

LOCALETTES.

Kelly's photos are genuine works of art.

Smith & Cleek are in need of a job; ready money and those who are owing them would confer a favor by calling in and settling up.

County Surveyor Graves was out with a party of people last week in the Deschutes country, showing them some fine mill sites.

Mrs. J. H. Douthitt, who has been spending some time visiting her father and mother at this place, left last week for her home in The Dalles.

A. H. Lippman & Co. put in a new refrigerator in O'Neill's place of business last week. This refrigerator is no infantile affair as it is 5x8 feet, and 9 feet in height. Messrs O'Neil can now keep a large supply of their choice goods in fine condition, which is a much greater convenience to them than heretofore.

Last week the county court awarded a Mr. Tiltonson of Portland, the contract for building a bridge across Crooked river at Prineville. The bids were as follows: Tiltonson, for a combination iron and wooden truss bridge $4690; Royal, for a How truss wooden bridge $1000, and Harbin for a wooden How truss bridge $4500.

In last week's issue in speaking about Clay Simpson and the life insurance Co. he represented, we inadvertently made an error and said he represented the New York Life, when we should have said the old and well known reliable Washington Life Insurance Co., which is one of the largest concerns of its kind in the United States, and Mr. Simpson may well feel proud to be in the employ of such a substantial company as the Washington is.

E. F. Boggs, has opened up a lunch counter and oyster house in the building formerly occupied by G. Comins as a restaurant. Mr. Boggs is just the right man in the right place, as the large patronage his place of business enjoyed from the time he opened up last Saturday evening until the present time proves. A person can obtain anything to eat he wishes, and that at the most reasonable prices. Mr. Boggs has also beds to let at very reasonable prices. A speciality is made in giving meals to families.

On last Monday evening the members of the "Eastern Star" camp in unexpected at the home of T. M. Baldwin to pay a farewell visit to his wife and their sister, who will leave this week for Portland to make her home in that city for the winter. One would have thought these visiting "stars" had dropped from the heavens, they were so unexpected and heavily laden with merriment. After a few hours spent in games and other amusements, the company separated, all however first wishing Mrs. Baldwin a pleasant fall and winter in her new home, and a safe return to our city when spring comes again.

Ben Jones purchased of A. H. Lippman a fine residence last week, and will move his family into town so his children can take advantage of the splendid educational facilities offered here.

D. F. Steffa of Bend has purchased an interest in the Journal and is now one of Prineville's sturdy citizens. We wish Mr. Steffa unbounded success in his new venture, and may his journalistic ship always have a full cargo.

Lionel Johnson, travelling correspondent for the old reliable Oregonian, has been with us during the past week and left for Lebanon this evening.

The young ladies of this city intend organizing a brass band in the near future. The ladies who are taking this step are all good musicians, and will be a band that would do credit to any city.

Horace McKinley, who gained much notoriety in this state through timber transactions in Lane county, was in our city several days last week, and on last Monday left for Klamath county.

Mrs. Bradford purchased the millinery parlors and stock of goods of Mrs. Slayton, on last Tuesday. Mrs. Bradford has come into possession of one of the best paying businesses in the county, and we bespeak for her the same large patronage that has been enjoyed by Mrs. Slayton during her many years of business.

Uncle Sam's agent shut down the Derham saw mill one day last week, because it is alleged that Mr. Derham was cutting and sawing government timber. It is to be hoped that Mr. Derham will soon get out of this trouble, as one would think he already had trouble enough to fill to overflowing one's cup.

Our public school, as well as the high school opened this week with a good attendance in all departments. The teachers employed in our schools, are all well known educators who are thoroughly interested in their work. Prineville is surely to be congratulated upon the splendid educational advantages she now possesses, as with our public school offered as it is, with good efficient teachers, a child can obtain all that is taught in such schools, and when through these can at once enter the high school and obtain all the advantages of a good education that can be found anywhere in the state.

Our friend of the Bend Bulletin got things rather badly mixed regarding the recent purchase by O'Neil Bros. of this place, of the Foster ranch. The Bulletin says O'Neil Bros. made the purchase for the Prineville Land and Live Stock Co. The Bulletin is badly mistaken as O'Neil Bros. purchased it for themselves alone, and for no one else.

O'Neil Bros. are having material hauled on the ground for a large brick ware house, which will be so constructed, that if desired at any time it can be used as a business house.

Born.

On last Wednesday evening to the wife of Jeff Evans a big bouncing boy. It is needless to add Mr. Evans is one of the best pleased men in Prineville.

On last Sunday evening Mrs. Lee Wigle presented Mr. Wigle with a boy. Mother and child doing nicely, and the father is filled with delight over the new arrival.

On last Monday evening Mr. Chase was made happy by the arrival of a big boy baby at his home. No present that Mrs. Chase could have made her husband would have been more acceptable than the bouncing baby boy.

May all these boys grow into manhood and fill honest and respected places.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Joe Lieter and wife, of Paulina, were in town this week.

Mrs. Clay Simpson returned from a trip to Portland last week.

P. B. Doak and family have been visiting friends at Ashwood this week.

Frank Ekins and family arrived home from their trip to the valley, last week.

Judd Palmer, one of Deschutes' prosperous farmers, was in Prineville this week.

Jack Rayl, of Crook, has been spending the week with us, attending to some business matters.

Henry Windom came in this week with a load of fine looking grain, just threshed on his farm.

Mrs. M. R. Biggs arrived home last Thursday from a visit to Burns. The Judge wears a broad smile in consequence.

J. H. Templeton, Judge Booth and D. F. Stewart, the bear hunters, arrived home safe and sound, from their trip last Friday.

H. Y. Huston, of Sisters, a well known blacksmith, was in our city the first of week, laying in supplies for his business for the winter.

All parties owing for lumber at the Maury sawmill will please come forward and settle, as I need the money.

Wm. McMEELIN.

Miss Ethel Liggett returned home from a visit to the Willamette Valley last Thursday evening, and now is at her old position in the clerk's office.

Bob McGowan, who has been in the employ of the Sisters Irrigation Co. for the past Summer, moved into Prineville the fore part of the week with his family, to stay during the winter.

Dr. C. A. Cline, arrived home last Saturday from the Willamette Valley, where he had been disposing of some horses, and left Tuesday in company with Mrs. Cline and daughter, for The Dalles and Portland. Miss Cline will spend the winter in The Dalles attending school at that place.

ARE WE YOUR DEALERS?

A Wonderful Discovery. One of our leading Western physicians on being interrogated as to what he regarded as the best remedy for all ailments that the human flesh is heir to, and what is the best preventive of disease, replied, PORTLAND'S CLUB WHISKY, as I know it is a pure bourbon. Well matured and aged in wood. For sale by all first-class dealers. Again the air is full of reports of a railroad building into Gilliam county. Perhaps it may come some day, but we fear it is just a fresh supply of wind let loose to create some talk, as it was in the case of the extension of the railroad into Crook county, by the people of Portland. Some people like to blow better than the winds do in winter.
