

FRANK ELKINS.

Among the younger business men in this city, Mr. Frank Elkins has a particularly bright future. He is a former Linn county boy coming from the famous Luther Elkins stock. He was born in Albany, July 25, 1872, and came across the mountains in 1882 remaining six years. In 1895 Mr. Elkins returned to Portland permanently and ever since that time has been closely identified with the progress of the city. His universal good nature and unquestioned integrity have endeared him to the hearts of his associates and acquaintances, until, in common parlance, Frank can have anything he wants. Against his own wishes his friends pushed him for the nomination of sheriff in 1900, but owing to the opposition of the outside delegates who considered him too young, he lacked one vote for the nomination. Mr. Elkins is an enthusiastic member of the volunteer fire department, having served as foreman of No. 1 until the organization of the department in 1899, when he was chosen chief, and re-elected in 1900. He was married to Miss Louise Campbell in March, 1898.

WILL WURZWEILER.

Will Wurzeiler, the genial head of the firm of Wurzeiler & Thomson, was born in Germany, August 31st, 1855, of Jewish parents. He received an excellent business education in Europe and came to America when 26 years of age, locating and engaging in mercantile pursuits in Joseph, Wallowa county, Oregon, in 1883. After fourteen years business in Joseph he removed to Prineville, where his marked ability is admitted and recognized by all. Mr. Wurzeiler was married in 1883 to Miss Bertha Alexander of Pendleton. In public spirit and enterprise he is always in the lead and has been councilman both in Joseph and Prineville. Mr. Wurzeiler is in politics a gold Democrat. He never does a thing by halves; and whatever he undertakes receives his whole energy and support. This gentleman is an enthusiastic Mason, having attained to the 32d degree Scottish Rite.

DR. H. B. BELKNAP.

The subject of this sketch was born in Benton county, Oregon, April 5, 1856. He was educated in Willamette University and removed to Crook county (then Wasco) with his parents in 1875 and engaged in the stock raising business which was then about the only avocation of the residents of this section of Oregon. In 1883 Dr. Belknap went east and entered the medical department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, and in 1886 finished his professional education at Bellevue Hospital Medical College in New York City. He has practiced his profession in this and adjoining counties with signal success for fourteen years. Dr. Belknap is particularly successful in difficult and serious surgical work and is frequently called to Portland to assist in important operations. In politics the doctor is a Republican and as such was elected County School Superintendent in 1892 and County Treasurer in 1894. He was mayor of Prineville three years from 1893 to 1896. He is medical examiner for all the secret beneficiary orders in this city, and is also prominent in Odd Fellowship and Masonry. He was married to Miss Wilda Ketchum in 1888, and has a fine family of boys.

A. H. LIPPMAN, FURNITURE DEALER AND UNDERTAKER.

The furniture and undertaking establishment of A. H. Lippman is a credit to Prineville, equaling in quality and quantity of stock the best houses in much larger cities. It might also be said to be a monument to the industry, skill and enterprise of its proprietor, who has in a comparatively short period built up an exceptionally fine trade.

Mr. Lippman knows how, when and where to buy, and also seems to know by intuition just what his patrons will be best suited with. It is almost superfluous to say that his stock of furniture, carpets, matings, linoleums, pictures and mouldings, caskets trimmings and caskets is complete. He also keeps a full assortment of doors, windows and lumber of all kinds and his prices are always as low as it is possible to make them.

JOHN H. ROSENBERG, M. D.

Whose picture appears above is a native son of the state of Oregon. He was born in the city of Portland on June 28, 1872, and resided in that city until he made Prineville his home in the month of May, 1899.

Dr. Rosenberg's education began with the introduction to the "three R's" in the Portland public schools. He finished at the Bishop Scott academy and entered the medical department of the University of Oregon, from which he graduated in April, 1897. Within one month after his graduation he was appointed house surgeon of the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. He afterward served as surgeon on the steamers plying between Portland and the Orient.

During the time Dr. Rosenberg has practiced in Crook county he has gained the hearty respect of his patients not only as a man of medicine, but as a kind and gentle friend in the house of suffering.

He is one of the "native sons" of which Oregon has just reason to be proud.
