

Above is a picture of 125 Rambouillet thoroughbred rams, raised by the Baldwin Sheep and Land Company and shipped to the National Live Stock Association, which convenes at Salt Lake, Utah, January 15, 1901, for exhibition.

"Crook," a famous Rambouillet yearling ram raised by the Baldwin Sheep and Land Company, and E. H. Dean, one of the leading superintendents of fine stock in Crook county.

(See page 28 for description of this company.)

B. S. & L.
Company

When you want goods go to

Wurzweiler &
Thomson's Big Store

(See Page 33)

with Little Prices