Crook - County - Journal.

THURSDAY, JAN. 24, 1901.

THIS PAPER is kept on file at the E. C. Baker's Ad-vertising Agency, 24 and 25 Merchants Exchange, San Francisco, California, where contracts for advertising can be made for it.

Case of Royal Worcester corsets just received at Wurzweller & Thompson's.

Greatest Slaughter of Hats, Boots, Shoes, Dry Goods and crockery at the Bazaar.

The Rutledge Comedy Company will be in Prineville Saturday and Monday evenings.

Simpson, Wilson & Co. are offering great bargains in Mens' and Boys' Hats.

B. E. Bennett, of Post, filed a home-stead claim on Camp creek last Monday.

Col. M. C. Nye and wife are in Portland where the Col. is having his eyes treated.

Mens' hats which formerly sold for $2.50 to $5 now 90c to $2.50 at Simpson, Wilson & Co.

Royal Worcester corsets in all colors and lengths at Wurzweller & Thompson's.

The regular clearance sale of Winter goods is now on at Wurzweller & Thompson's.

Ladies' Capses and Jackets at half price during the clearance sale at Wurzweller & Thompson's.

Mr. and Miss Horsey, of Haystack, were in town Monday purchasing school land in that vicinity.

For the next 30 days we will sell all of our Winter goods for one-third off when cash. W. & T.

When you want us to sell you goods at cost get in while the clearance sale lasts. The Bazaar.

Miss Emma B. Pike has filed a contest against the homestead entry of J. H. Johnson in the Haystack country.

Andrew Morrow, one of our most prominent sheepmen, was in town on Monday. He reports his stock in fine condition.

Miss Kate Hellrich who so ably assisted the JOURNAL force in their time of need, left for her home at Lamonta on Tuesday.

Gold has been found on the Clark Rodger's farm, 8 miles south of Salem in what is expected to be paying quantities.

It is stated that the C. S. has arranged with the O. R. & N. Co. to give Shanks the same rate from Portland as is given to The Dalles.

Chas. Hindman, of Sisters, was in town on business this week. He reports quiet in that vicinity and ordered the JOURNAL sent to his address to live things up.

A young man by the name of Rose who has been in the employ of T. J. Powell for several years, is lying at the point of death from injuries received by being kicked by a horse which fell with him.

The physicians have given up all hopes of the recovery of the Queen of England, and say she cannot live but a few days. In her death the world loses one of its grandest characters and a breaking up of the British empire is expected by many as a result of her death.

N. A. Tye, at the Bazaar, says that if the miserable thief that stole a fine china cup from his store last Saturday will call in he will give him the saucer that belongs with the cup and ask no questions.

Geo. L. Strong, one of the original proprietors of this paper when it was established as the Monitor, at Mitchell, Oregon, has taken a position as foreman in our office. He is a first class printer and orders for job work of any kind will receive his immediate attention.

The Northwest Live-Stock and Wool-Growers' Journal, published at Pendleton and edited by John P. McManis is a 24-page monthly magazine first class in every particular and full to the brim with valuable information for Oregon stockmen. The price is $1.50 a year, but we offer it as a premium to all new subscribers to the JOURNAL, or those who pay all arrearages and one year in advance.

Editor Palmer went to Bond Tuesday on a business trip.

Woolen socks, ladies' hose and lined gloves at your own price at the Bazaar.

G. W. Gibson, of Post, was in town Wednesday filing a homestead claim on Newsum creek.

It will pay you to read J. F. Morris' new ad this week. Money can be saved by following his advice.

The JOURNAL has on hand a sufficient number of its Annals on hand to supply every demand.

Simpson, Wilson & Co. have something of interest to tell you in their new ad this week.

Smith & Cleek are running a pipe from the water main into their saloon, which will prove a great convenience.

The Shaniko stage still contrives to arrive as late as possible, much to the annoyance of the patrons of the route.

The holiday number of the Crook county Journal is nicely illustrated and neatly gotten up.—Hood River Glacier.

The closing sermon preached by Rev. Levi Johnston last Sunday was delivered to a house packed to the utmost capacity.

R. S. Price has plenty of dry, solid juniper wood which he will sell at lowest cash price and deliver on shortest notice—124th.

Ed Genov returned on the Burns stage Saturday evening from a visit in Lakeview, Salt Lake city and other points.

The engine for the new saw mill at Pilot Butte arrived this week and will be put in place at once when the mill will be started up.

Attention is called to the ad of the Poindexter Hotel in this issue. A most desirable stopping place can be found there, "with all the comforts of home."

Miss Stella Hubble returned from Mitchell last Saturday, where she has been spending the holidays. Miss Hubble is now learning the "art preservative" in the JOURNAL office.

Robert E. Glaz, a brother of Till Glaz, formerly of Prineville, shot and killed his partner in their hotel in San Francisco last week. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Glaz claims he acted in self defense.

Cy Mulkey, of Prineville, shipped over the C. S. railway to Seattle last Thursday, twenty-two head of the finest draft horses that it has been our lot to look at for some time. These horses were raised near Prineville, and that county has plenty more just like them.—Shaniko Leader.

We have received a copy of the Shaniko Leader's Souvenir Edition which in its typographical neatness and general make-up is a marvel when it is considered that it was gotten up in a country newspaper office. It is a credit to the town and the proprietor of the Leader.

The Artisans initiated several new members last Monday evening and at the close of the initiation ceremonies, ice cream and cake were served and a very enjoyable evening passed by all those present.

The Mayflower mining company have an engine, air compressor and Burleigh drill on the way to their mines, and on their arrival will extend the tunnel at the rate of eight feet a day.

I. L. Ketchum, the veteran shoemaker of this county, who closed out his business last summer and turned his attention to alfalfa farming, has again opened a shoe repairing shop and may be found any day at his old trade.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desires to extend their heartfelt thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted them and ministered to the wants of their beloved mother during her last illness, and who participated in the last sad rites.

Their generous attention will ever be gratefully remembered by us.

The Crook county Journal, published at Prineville, Oregon, by A. C. Palmer, is out with an 1901 annual in magazine form with 34 pages, and printed on fine book paper. It is handsomely illustrated with half-tone cuts of prominent men and scenes in Crook county, and is well written regarding the resources of this county. The printing was done in Portland. It is a very handsome number, and every man in Crook county ought to have a copy to send to a distant friend. We congratulate Editor Palmer on his achievement.—Lakeview Examiner.

OUR GREAT PRE-INVENTORY SALE.

We are offering great reductions in prices in our entire stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Furnishings, Clothing, Boots and Shoes.

For the month of January only. On February 1st we take an inventory of stock, and close our books for the year 1900; Hence our desire for turning out goods at such low figures. The more goods we can sell the less work we have in taking stock, and the more room we have for our new spring goods. These are the reasons for this great bargain event, and you should profit by taking advantage of the situation. Prices have been lowered to the last notch, and it would be wanton extravagance for you to buy elsewhere now. Watch this space next week for

Obituary.

Mrs. Myrtle D. Zell was born Aug. 8, 1878, at Lafayette, Yamhill county, Oregon. She departed this life Tuesday, Jan. 15, 1901, her age being 22 years, 5 months and 7 days. The deceased was united in marriage to C. M. Zell January 29, 1897, at Grass Valley, Ore. April 30, 1898, Mrs. Zell united with the First Baptist church of Prineville, of which she was a consistent member to the time of her death. She leaves a husband, an infant son, a father, three brothers and a host of friends to mourn her death. The remains were brought to Prineville and the funeral services were held at the Union church at 3 p. m., on Thursday, Rev. B. F. Harper officiating. The church was crowded, and a large concourse of our citizens were present at the interment in the Masonic cemetery.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—I see report of the bills allowed by our county court in one instance is misleading and causes remarks derogatory to our commissioners. The item I have reference to reads, "S. J. Newsom, services hunting for body of E. E. Davis, $24." The facts are, S. J. Newsom furnished his own team, feed, and board for himself and a young man in his employ, and was out six days faithfully hunting for the body of E. E. Davis, without any intention or expectation of being reimbursed from the county. The matter was this, (when the bill for $24 was allowed) The judge and one commissioner, Mr. Healey, agreed to the proposition made by me to furnish Indians their board and pay them $1 per day each, to accompany me on that hunt, which four persons earned $24 as per agreement.

When we returned to town, because I had assumed the bossing, the Indians called upon me to settle. The judge was below at the time and I paid them off, in good coin, and got my pay back in county order. Had we found the body, the county would have received 1/3 of the amount of the reward, as its part for furnishing 1/3 of our party.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned takes this means of extending his grateful acknowledgment and thanks for the kindness and attention shown him and his wife during her fatal illness.

MILT ZELL.
