Death of a Pioneer Woman.

Mrs. Mary Vanderpool died at her home in Dufur on Friday, March 8, aged 69 years and 5 days. For a number of years Mrs. Vanderpool has been an invalid, but only a few weeks prior to her death had she been considered dangerously ill.

Mrs. Vanderpool was a true type of the pioneer woman, and with her husband made a home on the frontier, that was ever open to the wayfarer, and their hospitality, which knew no bounds, was accepted by many of the early settlers of the state, both in the Willamette valley and Eastern Oregon. She was born in Missouri, and in 1852 with her husband crossed the plains to Oregon, settling in Benton county, where they resided until 1869 when they removed to Ochoco county, locating on a farm near the present site of Prineville, residing there until 1884, when they moved to Dufur where the doctor died eight years ago. Since his death, Mrs. Vanderpool has been waiting the messenger to summons her to the beyond, surrounded by her family of two sons and one daughter—W. T. and W. L. Vanderpool and Mrs. Rebekah Wilson, who comforted her declining years, and she gradually declined peacefully to the grave.—Mountaineer.

Too Much Brass.

I. N. Moore was arrested last Tuesday for stealing brass from the O. R. & N. Co. and was bound over by Recorder Gates in bonds of $1000 to answer before the next term of the circuit court on a charge of grand larceny. The evidence produced against Moore on the examination is very damaging and unless explained away in the circuit court will land him in the penitentiary. Some time since Moore sold some 600 pounds of brass to Ferdinand Matthews, the junk dealer, and this fact put the representatives of the railroad on his track as being a thief. He had been in the employment of the company until a few weeks ago, and the presumption is that while working for the company he was stealing discarded brass boxings from the shops. The suspicion against Moore caused Marshal Driver to take the matter in hand, and when last Tuesday he learned that Moore had hired a team and gone to the ranch of his father-in-law, A. Ganger, he laid a trap for him which resulted in his capture. Shortly after dark, Moore drove up to Mathews' junk shop, and began unloading brass, while Marshal Driver was secreted in the rear of the building. When the brass was unloaded, the marshal placed Moore under arrest and landed him in jail.

It appears that while Moore was working for the company he had been carrying off brass and storing it on the Ganger place below town, having carted off some 1600 pounds in all.—Dalles Mountaineer.

Final proof on homestead, timber culture or desert lands can hereafter be made before any U. S. Commissioner in the land district, irrespective of county lines. It has heretofore been necessary to take these proofs in the county in which land was located, but congress recently amended the law so as to permit settlers to appear before the nearest commissioner and make proof, without regard to county lines.

Farmers in this section are busy plowing and putting in their grain. Oliver Powell and wife passed through Hay Creek Thursday en route to Portland, where Mrs. Powell goes for the purpose of having her eyes treated. Mabel, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Doak, has been quite ill but is slowly improving. The dance at Hay Creek on the 15th was well attended. The music was furnished by Mr. Spear, Walter Parrish and Mrs. Moser. The maskers were:

Manda Wiltse	Flower Girl.
Lyn Nicholas	Hair Wigor.
Flouenech, Lee Curtis,	Frank
Doak	Firemen.
Grace Parrish	Gipsy Girl.
Zolla McCoy	Minnehaha.
Eustace McCoy	Hiawatha.
John Allen	Town Hobo.
Louie Volrath	Sockless Jerry.
Chas. Brock	Aunt Dinah.

Mr. Edwards had a narrow escape last Tuesday. While driving to one of the company's ranches below Parrish's, the pole of the buggy slipped from the neck yoke, and the horses began to run. Mr. Edwards was thrown from the buggy, striking on his head and shoulders. It was at first thought that he was badly hurt. Dr. Hudson was summoned from Antelope and Mr. Edwards is getting along nicely.

Hay Creek, March 18, 1901.

W. W. Brown, of Fife, sold last Monday to Arne Inda, of Nevada, 4000 head of mixed yearling sheep at $2 per head, to be delivered after shearing. In view of the low price of wool this appears to be a very good sale. Mr. Brown has over 10,000 sheep left, some of which he intends selling.
