TOM THOMAS KILLED.

Ernest Thorntn killed by D. J.

Last Thursday afternoon Col. E. W. M. Thomas, the well known ex-Union scout, was killed by D. J., a laborer of the company, who had been hired by the col. to help in the construction of the new telegraph line. The company had just completed the work, and the col. had found the wires were not properly strung. The company was not willing to pay, but the two men found their way into the
