

Local Mention.

D. F. Stewart returned from Lawton last Sunday morning.

Al G. Reed started for southern Oregon Wednesday.

Sheriff Conleton left Monday on a business trip through the country.

It has been decided to hold a school picnic in the court house grounds Friday.

Med Moore left for Paulina on Monday's stage to look after business matters.

Horn—Four miles north of Prineville, to the wife of Bert Barna, a daughter.

Supt. Boegli will begin his regular visit to the schools of the county next Saturday.

A. B. Niles, the Walla Walla tomestone man, came over from Canyon City Saturday, via the Izee stage.

W. A. Bell and Herbert Rideout left Sunday for a time with the finny tribes in the Deschutes.

G. A. Hendinger came up from Portland last week to look after the interests of his brother-in-law D. L. Bruner.

Judge Wills left Tuesday morning for his home at Hay creek to rusticate a few days and look after business matters.

A marriage license has been granted by J. J. Smith, to W. L. Morford and Miss Lena Husay, both of this county.

Elkins and King have added a lot of shelving to the store fixtures to accommodate their new stock of goods.

The JOURNAL is the best advertising medium in Crook county. Orders for job work executed promptly.

Circuit court convenes on Monday May 6. The regular docket and full court reports will be published in the JOURNAL.

N. B. Moses, foreman of the Hackleman ranch, came in from Camp creek Saturday to look after business matters.

George Cyrus went out to his ranch on Squaw creek Monday, to rusticate awhile and breathe the pure ozone from the pine woods.

Will Marks the Mitchell sadler, came over Saturday to visit his sisters. He is running B-wone and Doaks branch house at that place.

Land is being filed on almost every day in some portion of Crook county. People are beginning to realize what a grand country this is.

A. F. Oakerman passed through here the first of the week on his return from Portland where he went recently to dispose of a band of horses.

Peach trees are beginning to bloom in Prineville, but they will have a cold time of it if they produce any fruit as it is too frosty of nights.

The Faultless Churn Co. received a lot of their churns last week and is placing them on the market. They have the appearance of being O. K.

Warren Brown returned Saturday from a trip through the west end of the county where he went to serve papers on the jurors for this term of circuit court.

W. O. Margison a brother-in-law of deputy county clerk, B. F. Wilhoit, died in Portland last Friday. Mrs. Margison, formerly Miss Mattie Wilhoit is very ill at her home in that city.

W. H. Booth returned Monday from extended trip in the Squaw creek country and reports everybody over that way working on the big irrigating ditch which is being brought out of Squaw creek.

D. P. Adamson started out for the farm Friday and said he was going to engage in farming. He took a trunk and bicycle along, but whether he was going to plant them or not we are unable to say.

Ed Harbin recieved a new fourailed stoker Monday. He will soon have his planing mill in shape for work. The big smoke stack, 65 feet in length, was knocked down last week while the engine was being placed, but no damage was done.

Work was begun on the ground for the removal of Adamson and Wennek rugsters. It will be moved back next to M. A. Moore's building and a new building erected on the corner which will be used as a drug store by the same firm.

The seventh and eighth grade pupils gave the Prof. a pleasant surprise Friday evening.

O. G. Colver, the Culver merchant, was doing business in Prineville last Friday.

P. B. Davis, the Sisters sawmill man paid a business visit to the metropolis last week.

Ronick C. Jessee was in town Thursday making final proof on his homestead.

H. A. Beck was in from Post Friday after a load of supplies for his stock ranch.

Pen Blevins, a Howard stockman, was in town Friday looking after business matters.

T. R. Curl was in from South Crooked river Thursday making final proof on his homestead.

G. W. Millican, a prominent Pine Mountain stockman was seen on our streets last week.

Lucere Temple, Rathbone Sisters, was organized last week with a good list of charter members.

County Commissioner H. J. Healy, was in from Haystack Saturday and paid this office a pleasant call.

If you like the JOURNAL tell your friends and ask them to subscribe, if you don't like it come and tell us.

C. C. and J. W. Hon were down from Howard the latter part of last week attending to business matters.

Warren Glaze returned last Friday from Eugene where he has been taking lessons in music the past winter.

Miss Ida Friday departed for Paulina last week, where she will teach a term of school in the Claypool district.

Minor Lewis, a prominent Portland barber came up from that city Friday to look after business matters.

Jesse and W. C. Cox, prominent Squaw creek framers, were doing business in town the last of the week.

George Dee, a well known Willow Creek farmer, was in town last week attending to business matters.

W. H. Quinn a prominent farmer of the Willow creek country was in town Friday doing business at the court house.

W. J. Wright, a prominent farmer and stockman of Howard, was attending to business matters in town last Friday.

Jesse C. McCabe, was in from Hay Creek last Friday fling on a homestead, and left his measure for a years subscription to the JOURNAL.

The County Court for the May term will meet on the first day of the month as the new session laws make it the first Monday which falls on the 1st.

Lew Bennett, was in from upper Beaver creek last Saturday after a load of wool sacks for R. A. Stewart, and reports everything looking prosperous up that way.

Quite a lot of improvement is being made in various parts of town and considerable cleaning up of back yards is being indulged in, all of which adds to the beauty and health of the town.

Notice how the list of JOURNAL advertisers is increasing. Business men know a good thing when they see it. New names are being added to our subscription list almost daily, and that too without soliciting.

With this issue we come out as an all home print paper, thus fulfilling one of the promises made when we took hold of the JOURNAL and we shall continue until every promise made then is performed.

Archie McGowan and Herman Haueriken came over from Burns Friday and will rusticate with Ed. Martin on the banks of the classic Deschutes and tempt the finny tribe from their safe retreats with a gaudy fly made mostly of feathers.

W. R. McFarland returned Sunday from the workings of the Prineville Reclamation and Irrigation Co's ditch and reports work progressing favorably. They now have the heaviest rock work done and will be able to build the ditch very rapidly as the work will all be in soil and no heavy cuts.

Really Fashionable

Is the clothing we are showing for this spring and summer. There's a style to it not found in the ordinary run of ready-to-wear clothing. We're proud to have you compare our suits with tailors' double the price goods.

We have the nobbiest line of Men's Suits in town. Just received a large line of Mens' and Boys' crash hats. Wurzweiler & Thomson.

Always do Your Thinking Before Your Buying!

"SOME SILVER-TONGUED TALKER

may try to make you believe the "moon is green cheese," and it does not matter much whether it is or not, but when you come to

Buying Farm Tools

Don't trust him too far. Do some thinking before you far.

We would like to show you THE OSBORNE LINE.

You can yourself see their superior points. Also see our line of Washing Machines and Wringers. Garden Seeds in Bulk. ELKINS & KING.

Jas. Silvertooth came over from Antelope Tuesday on a pleasure trip.

A lodge of Masons was organized at Moro last week. A large number of Masons from outside points were present including a number from Prineville.

Mrs. A. C. Palmer, who is in the city from Prineville, is the guest of Mrs. H. A. Falk. Mrs. Palmer is on her way to Portland, and will leave for that place upon the arrival of her husband, who will accompany her.—Dalles Chronicle.

Jim Oaks, of Cherry Creek, visited his family here during the past week. His two little children are victims of measles, which at present is almost epidemic in our town.—Antelope Herald.

Bidwell Cram, of Cross Keys, delivered at Shaniko, to Charles Butler, on Tuesday, 25 head of beef cattle, for which he received, for steers $50 and for cows $43.—Antelope Republican.

W. E. Claypool was in town the latter part of the week having a petition prepared for circulation, praying for the extension of the Sisters—Emercy mail route to Warm Springs, which will be a good thing for those living along the proposed extension as they will then get their mail several days earlier than at present.

As Down Went McGinty

Down goes prices on Mens' and Boys' Overcoats, Ladies' Cloaks and Jackets, Fascinators, Mitts, Ladies' and Gents' Heavy Underwear, all going AT COST

Prices Flattened to the Thinnest.

The values will tempt the most grudging pocket book. if you contemplate buying, don't think it over too long, but buy where prices are consistent with the cost of production.

J. F. MORRIS.

CHAMP SMITH.

ISOM CLEEK.

SMITH'S RECEPTION.

Wines, Liquors, Domestic and Imported Cigars.

The Celebrated A. B. C. Beer Always on Hand.

Proprietors of the Prineville Soda Works.

Two Doors South of First National Bank.

PRINEVILLE, ORE.