

Local Mention.

Peter Delore and wife are in from Suplee looking after business affairs.

C. McPherson, of Gates hill is in the city on the regular jury panel.

Alex Smith, of Smith Bros., came in from Sisters Saturday to attend court.

Vince Circle came in from Beaver creek the first of the week to attend court.

L. V. Baily is in from Paulina attending court and looking after business matters.

C. P. U'Ren, came in from Bakeoven Saturday as a witness before the district court.

J. W. Howard returned Friday from The Dalles where he went to dispose of a band of cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jesse of the south Crooked river were visitors in Prineville last week.

W. T. E. Wilson and O. D. Allingham are in attendance on this term of court, from Sisters.

C. W. Circle was in from the ranch the first of the week and reports everything fine out that way.

J. W. Wimer and family were in from Post the first of the week looking after business matters.

D. W. Allingham, a prominent citizen of Matoles is attending court and looking after business matters.

Ed. W. Nelson came in from Maury Saturday to attend to business matters and left his number for the JOURNAL.

District attorney Menefee and attorneys N. J. Sinxott and H. S. Wilson were arrivals from the Dalles the last of the week.

John Claypool returned Saturday from Hay creek, where he has had charge of the Shaniko stage company's stock for some time past.

A. E. Hammond, chief engineer of the C. S. Ry., is reported to be in the Haystack country looking over the old survey made by that road.

C. Montgomery was over from Wilcox creek Monday. He was accompanied by H. Cheek of Albany who has large landed interests in this county.

John Biscar came in from Paulina last week after supplies and took home within a couple of relatives of the Escalles who are just over from France.

Sam Hamilton was a visitor from Ashwood Saturday and paid this office a friendly and financial call. He reports everything going along smoothly at that booming little camp.

Roscoe Knox came in from Post the first of the week as a witness and reports crop prospects good in that part of the county. Sheep shearing will begin in that district the last of the week.

C. B. Miller and wife of North Carolina, with their twelve children were registered at the Prineville last week. They are looking for a location and the school district that they locate in will be materially benefitted.

Harry Temple, the erstwhile facile pen-pusher of the Dufur Dispatch, was down from Wolf creek last week enjoying the society of the city and laying in supplies. Harry remembered the printer with a brand new subscription.

Joe Lister and wife were in from North Crooked river last Saturday visiting relatives and laying in supplies for the spring round up. Mr. Lister is one of the largest cattlemen in this county and reports cattle looking well in his section.

L. D. Gillenwater's sheep camp outfit was entirely destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The camp was established in the Horseheaven country and while the herders were out with the sheep the fire broke out supposedly from embers left in cooking the morning meal. Everything was a total loss the herders being without anything to eat until something was sent in to them.

E. G. Hallock of Minneapolis arrived in the city Sunday.

L. S. Logan and George Kolbe came down from Price Sunday on business.

Judge T. J. Childers is over from Ashwood as a witness in the Bruner case.

Bert Magers came over from Shaniko Sunday to look after business matters.

Born—Wednesday morning in this city to the wife of William Bogue, a daughter.

D. A. Shrum and Wade Sirum are in the city from their ranch on Cherry creek, attending court.

G. Springer, the Haystack stockman is in attendance on this term of district court as a juror.

C. E. Person, a prominent farmer of the Squaw Creek country, was in the city this week attending court.

George Noble and wife came in from Paulina Wednesday morning. Mr. Noble is attending to some land business.

Amos Barber, who has been laid up with a broken limb for some time is out again and will soon be as sound as a dollar.

Died—At her home near Maury, Monday, May 6, Mrs. George Lewellyn of dropsy of the heart. She was a daughter of W. W. Harris.

Taylor Hill is putting up a new windmill and will have one of the finest in the city when it is finished. J. B. Shipp is the architect in charge of the work.

Tom Kinnedy, a well known sheepherder of the Trout creek region is in town and has found a valuable shepherd dog lost by Phil Brogan jr about a year ago.

John Geiger, proprietor of the Prineville brewery, has received a load of beer barrels that are "whoppers," each holding 150 gallons of beer. Mr. Geiger says he is going to flood the town this summer.

Died—At Powell Buttes, Friday, May 3, Mrs. Martha J. Martin, mother of Mrs. W. T. Casey. Mrs. Martin was a native of Tennessee and crossed the plains in 1857, this being one of Oregon's pioneer women. She was aged 66 years and ten months.

Mrs. Charles Gilchrist and niece Wilda Gilchrist came from Indianapolis last week, they having been met at Shaniko by Mr. Gilchrist. They took their departure for the ranch at the head of Crooked river next day after their arrival here.

Jehu Johnson left last Saturday for Ironside, Malheur county with his cattle. He has secured a good range in that region where the grass has not been eaten out to any perceptible extent as yet. The JOURNAL will furnish him the news in his new home.

Charles and Frank Packwood came in from Lakeview Tuesday. They are taking a trip through this country on a tour of inspection their home being in Bieber, California. They are accompanied by Ross Rickett and Harve Paulke of the same place. The Packwood brothers are old time friends of Miss Kate Helfrich of Haystack.

C. C. Hutchinson, president of the Oregon Irrigation Co., returned Saturday from a business trip to Portland. He reports everything progressing nicely with their ditch. They have a force of men at work all the time and will soon have water out on the desert. A number of Portland capitalists are interested in this ditch. The company has filed on 300,000 inches of water in the Deschutes river.

Married.

A letter from Wilbur, Washington, informs us of the matrimonial union of Mr. Max J. Fangborn and Miss Mady Aldridge. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's parents in the town above named on Tuesday, April 30th 1901. The bride is a Crook county production, having been born in Prineville nearly seventeen years ago, and will doubtless be remembered by many of her young friends here. The groom, we are told is a young man of sterling worth. He is engaged in the stock business, and owns two excellent fruit ranches on the Columbia river near Wilbur.

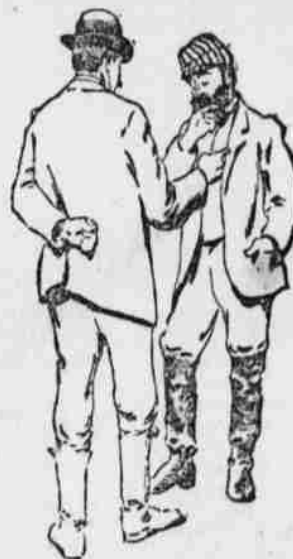

Really Fashionable

Is the clothing we are showing for this spring and summer. There's a style to it not found in the ordinary run of ready-to-wear clothing. We're proud to have you compare our suits with tailors' double the price goods.

We have the nobbiest line of Men's Suits in town. Just received a large line of Men's and Boys' crash hats. Wurzweiler & Thomson.

Always do Your Thinking Before Your Buying!

SOME SILY R-TONGUED TALKER

may try to make you believe the "moon is green cheese," and it does not matter much whether it is or not, but when you come to

Buying Farm Tools

Don't trust him too far. Do some thinking before you buy.

THE OSBORNE LINE.

You can yourself see their superior points. Also see our line of Washing Machines and Wringers.

Garden Seeds in Bulk.
ELKINS & KING.

This Space is Reserved for Ed Harbin's

New Planing Mill

—AND—

Bicycle Repairing Shop.
South End.

GREAT CLUBBING OFFER.

We have made arrangements th club with the following named papers. Sample copies of both the Tribune and the World may be furnished on application.

Journal and Weekly Oregonian.	$2 25
Journal and Weekly New York Tribune.	2 00
Journal and Thrice a Week World.	2 00

It is a startling sign of the instability of the times when European sovereigns go to America to invest their private fortunes. American railways in particular seem to have a great attraction for the various royalties. Even so patriotic a person as the German emperor has not escaped the general desire to put money as far away as possible from the Fatherland. He has invested over £600,000 in the Atchinson-Topoka, the Illinois Central, the Louisville & Nashville, the Santa Fe and the Union and Southern Pacific railways. The Empress Augusta Victoria has £100,000 worth of shares in the same concerns, while the princes of the house of Russia have invested about £200,000. These railway investments bring them in an average of 5 per cent.

The Czar of Russia has over £1,000,000 worth of shares in the Pennsylvania railroad, the Northern and Canadian Pacific, the New Jersey Central railways, which give him an annual income of £100,000.

E. L. Johnson came in from Sisters the first of the week.

John Hastings and brother were in from Hay Creek the first of the week.