Destructive Hail Storm.

The most terrific hail storm that ever visited this section passed over the city Saturday afternoon May 13, at half past three o'clock...

A few moments before the storm broke forth, dense black clouds were seen rising from the southwest, while the flashing lightning and rolling thunder foretold of the impending storm.

It seemed as though Jove, the mythical deity of the ancient Romans, had in fact turned loose his wrath and thunderbolts upon the inhabitants of Canyon City.

Horses and cattle were driven almost frantic by the stinging welts from the icy bullets. Several teams hitched along the streets broke their fastenings and tore through the town.

The greatest damage wrought by the storm was the stripping of the fruit trees of their fruit and foliage. The damage in this line was especially great...

Nearly every building in the city suffered from broken windows and glass doors, and in several instances roofs could not withstand the terrific bombardment.

After the storm had subsided, the waters which had collected in the path of the storm, in the ravines on the east and west of town, came tearing down Town Gulch...

For over an hour this large volume of water came roaring down Town Gulch, and but for the timely assistance of a large number of men and boys, who placed planks on edge thereby forming a levee...

corner to witness the sight. The storm passed over the farms of Joe Oliver and D. B. Rinehart, playing sad havoc on both places.

Man that is born of woman is small potatoes and few in a hill. He goeth forth in the morning warbling like a lark, and is knocked out in one round and two seconds.

Pullman Ordinary Sleepers.

The tourist travel between the east and the Pacific coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment. To meet this demand the Pullman Co. has issued from its shops what it technically calls the "Pullman Ordinary Sleeper."

Much of the first class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service being nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers.
