Will He "Vigorously Urged." Among the barrels of literature being sent out by Secretary Manager J. C. Leary, in the American Cattle Growers' Association, is a letter which among other things contains the following paragraph: "Cattlemen generally favor a joint suit to the Supreme Court to prevent the leasing of the public domain. All advertising in any newspaper is now being prohibited by this association which will be prosecuted and vigorously urged next month. It will be favorably respected if owners generally supported it. Does it meet with your approval?" The shot is not there in the "cowmen" in Lake county, outside of big corporations, that will support such a measure, I learned that the editor of one in your town in the form of an article.

Jane Property Sold. Last Saturday Capt. H. Kellogg, administrator, sold at public sale the real estate belonging to the estate of Till Glaze. This property consists of the land and house at the former residence of Robinson's fruit farm, and a tract of wild land that lies out in the Valley. Robinson Robinson bought the property for forty for $400, and W. M. Fritzgerald secured the other for $1500. The Glaze heirs still retain the ranch on the Island.—Bend News.
