Lava Lore.

From our regular correspondent.

What shall we write? All about the celebration? It was a success and that is all we could ask.

A feast of fat things was spread in the shade of the pine trees. After dinner the crowd adjourned to the hall where a feast of the soul was enjoyed.

BUNCH GRASS.

Price Paragraphs.

From our regular correspondent.

We are having very warm weather at present. The hills are beginning to lose their beautiful green and are donning the golden brown and yellow.

Randolph Gibson and Lelan Harris contemplate a trip to Walla Walla, in a few days.

Mrs. Frank Hackleman's mother and two sisters arrived the 1st inst. from the Valley.

L. V. Tice arrived safe and sound last Wednesday under the watchful care of Marsh Logan.

C. F. Boynton began cutting and putting up his hay this week.

The Q boys who went to the railroad for Mr. Hackleman, are expected home in a few days.

C. E. Parrish intends working for Frank Hampton through haying.

Willie Gibson returned home from Buck Creek a few days ago.

The Hackleman men and A. M. and F. C. Logan are very busy gathering their cattle and branding calves.

Mrs. Norris Morgan is on the sick list this week.

The long looked for, long prepared for, and at last welcomed Fourth of July is over.

The picnic was a fine one, the dance also, with a slight exception; some got "wooly" and had to be taken down.

Nevertheless the dance was enjoyed by all, especially one young man, for his best girl threw both arms around his neck, at the time, the woolly gentlemen was taken down.

Oh! Art! JUMBO.

Maury Nites.

From our regular correspondent.

Haying has commenced in this neighborhood, but hay hands are very scarce.

Mr. Bennet is recovering slowly from the accident he had a few weeks ago.

Calvin Morris of Lebanon, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennett.

Mr. Glenn has gone to town in search of hay hands.

Miss Lucy Smith has gone to work through haying for her uncle

Mr. Fred Smith.

Mrs. Noble is quite sick at the home of her daughter Mrs. G. W. Glenn.

The celebration on Maury mountain was a grand success. Quite a crowd gathered there Thursday morning and enjoyed a quiet visit until noon when a nice luncheon was spread, then dancing was indulged in for a few hours in the afternoon.

Miss Mabel Bennett has been on a visit to her parents, but returned after the Fourth.

Charles Luelling and family have gone to Prineville. Mrs. Luelling's health is very poor this summer.

Miss Pearl Vanderpool will close a three months term of school here next Friday.
