A. Hixon, the Antelope liverymen, was in our city last week on a business trip.

D. F. Stewart and daughter Una returned last week from a business trip to Lawton.

M. F. Hawthorn was a visitor from Lava last week, and paid this office a pleasant call.

S. S. Brown, a prominent Haystack farmer, was in town Friday attending to business matters.

Miss Louise Summers returned last week from a visit with her cousin Miss Ida Omeg at Ashwood.

Rev. G. W. Grannis will preach in the Methodist church, morning and evening, Sunday, July 28.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Vandervert were in from Lava Friday. This office acknowledges a pleasant call.

F. W. Watts, of The Dalles has been stopping in the city the past few days looking after the monument business.

Mrs. E. S. Dobbs and daughter Maud returned the first of the week, from a visit with friends in the Haystack country.

I. L. Ketchum has purchased the old photograph gallery and moved it to his lot on the bank of the Ochoco west of the bridge.

E. R. Carey took a flying trip to the Matoles last week. He is preparing to move to his ranch over there the first of September.

Asa Baker and wife were in our city last week. Mr. Baker is a prominent business man of Linn county and was out here on a visit to relatives.

The first melons of the season made their appearance at the Beehive Sunday. Why can't a few be raised on the Deschutes so as to have them near home?

John Brown, a brother of our popular (with the ladies) deputy sheriff, was in town the first of the week from his stock ranch in the Haystack country.

At the preliminary examination of Tom Payn, at Mitchell, for the shooting of McEachern, he was bound over to appear before the circuit court in the sum of $500.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dingee arrived from New Bernswick last Friday, and will remain for the winter. Mr. Dingee is a brother of Mrs. I. L. Ketchum and Mrs. C. L. Salomon.

W. F. Magee, of Mitchell, was shaking hands in Prineville last Friday. Mr. Magee was formerly proprietor of the Mitchell Monitor when it was printed on the Journal press.

Dr. Cline received last week a Clark rotary fountain spittoon which he has placed in his dental parlors. It is almost worth while having a tooth pulled for the pleasure of spitting in it.

The vote on the most popular teacher up to the present stands as follows:
Miss Lilly Read.....150
Miss Carrie Fee.....150
Miss Lilly Knox.....318

C. W. Elkins returned from his Beaver creek ranch last week, and informs the JOURNAL man that the hay crop in that section of the county will be an average crop, although it will be light in places.

Jake Johnson was down from his Mill creek ranch Saturday and reports that his first crop of alfalfa has been harvested and the second is eighteen inches high, which is pretty good for this year.

A private letter from Paulina states that a Hungarian named John Munk died at George O'Neal's sheep camp on the third of July. It seems that no letters were found on his person indicating who his relatives are, that as he has some money due him in various parts of the state it is of importance to those relatives that they find him. He had worked for John Barger, Bethany, Oregon, and for Abe Gausson, Junction City, Mont.

Smith Bros. have filed in the clerks office a plat of the townsite of Sisters.

Mrs. M. A. Moore and children returned from Corvallis last Friday. They will remove to that place permanently this fall.

Mrs. James Vanderpool left on Monday's stage for the John Day to assist in caring for her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Woods, who is very ill at that place.

News was received here Saturday by Judge Wills of the death of his brother-in-law S. J. Woods, near Joseph, Wallowa county. Sol Woods was one of the earliest settlers in Crook county and formerly lived on Willow creek.

J. Houck, of Lebanon, paid this office a pleasant call last Friday. Mr. Houck is an old acquaintance of ye editor whom he had not seen for ten years. He was accompanied by his son Alex, of Haystack.

About forty young people gathered around the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Boegli Monday evening and serenaded them with a number of songs and were invited in and drank the health of the newly wedded people in delicious lemonade.

At the meeting of the grand lodge D. of H. in Portland last week Mrs. Wilda Belknap was elected Grand Chief of Honor. This is recognition of merit and Prineville may justly be proud of the honor thus bestowed on one of her citizens. Mrs. Belknap was tendered a grand reception by the Grand Lodge, in Portland.

Obituary.

John C. Sumner was born in Spencer county, Indiana, September 25, 1833, died July 16, 1901. In 1842 he went with his parents to Arkansas, from whence he came to Oregon in 1852, being one of those sturdy pioneers who "conquered the wilderness" and made smooth the way for the coming generations. In 1886 he came to Crook county where he has since resided, living in Prineville continuously since 1888. In 1876 he served Linn county in the legislature. In 1888 he was appointed County Judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Johns and elected to that office in 1890. The Judge was a veteran of the Rogue River war. A wife and five children survive him, who have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

At a ripe old age he has passed to his reward. Let us cherish his memory as one who was faithful to his trust, an upright citizen, a steadfast friend, a kind husband, a loving father.

Boegli-Adams.

At the residence of the brides parents on Combs Flat, at high noon on the seventeenth of July, occurred a very interesting ceremony, when two of Crook county's prominent young people were united in marriage.

The high contracting parties were William Boegli, county school superintendent and Miss Amanda M. Adams, the accomplished daughter of William Adams. B. F. Harper officiating clergyman.

The bride was attired in a becoming costume of white, and the groom in conventional black making a very pretty picture as they stood up before the minister.

Only a few invited guests were present besides the relatives of the bride, they being as follows: T. F. McCafferty and wife; J. H. Gray and wife; R. W. Breese and wife, Steve Yancy and wife, Chas. Carey and wife, Mrs. E. W. Morford, Miss Nora Easterly, Misses Pearl and Frankie Helms, Master Bertie Bell.

A large number of both useful and valuable presents were received.

The JOURNAL acknowledges the receipt of a liberal quantity of luscious cake which caused us to have a light attack of palpitation—wedding cake is a dangerous thing for bachelors to eat.

The young people will take up their residence in the Mrs. C. F. Smith house in the western part of town, where they will, no doubt soon be in shape to receive their friends. The JOURNAL unites with their many friends in wishing them a long and prosperous voyage across the sea of life and may they find a pleasant harbor beyond the storm-tossed surf.
