

Local Mention.

Joe Taylor came in Monday from his ranch in the vicinity of Grizzly.

Miss Ethel Hamilton, of Antelope, is visiting with relatives at this place.

Guy Moore left last Friday for Wasco, where he goes to work during harvest.

D. F. Stewart left last Saturday for Milton, Oregon, on a brief business trip.

A brother of S. S. Stearns, whom he had not seen for seventeen years, is visiting him this week.

Wm. Shellabarger, formerly of this place, but late from Grangeville, Idaho, is now in Prairie City.

Rev. Dr. Gue, a prominent Methodist clergyman of Portland, died suddenly in that city last week.

"B. B." Smith has finished painting the roof of A. C. Knighten's dwelling, which adds considerably to its appearance.

C. N. Scott returned Friday from a trip to the east end of the county, where he has been looking up the resources of nature.

G. Springer, the Haystack stockman was a business visitor in town Monday and reports everything progressing nicely in that section of the county.

N. A. Tye & Brothers is the new style of the Japanese Bazaar. A new sign adorns the front of their place of business as well as a fresh coat of paint.

J. L. Luckey and son Johnny returned from a two weeks pleasure jaunt on the headwaters of the classic Deschutes where they whiled the time away with rod and gun.

Mrs. Henry Barnard eloped with an itinerant hobo the other day leaving a family of almost helpless children to shift for themselves which will no doubt become county charges.

R. G. Smith and family accompanied by the family of county clerk Smith left Wednesday for the aromatic groves of pines along the shores of the Big meadows on the Deschutes.

A. H. Lippman is having a lot of juniper lumber sawed in anticipation of a large demand for his home manufactured furniture. He had one log sawed up that measured 34 inches in diameter.

Prof. T. R. Ryan gave a number of hypnotic exhibitions in Glazes hall last week that were very creditable. Dr. Rosenberg became a pupil of the Prof. and is now able to hypnotize on his own account.

While the temperature has been bordering on the torrid we have a fine breeze blowing most of the time and do not feel the heat. In the eastern states it is different as many deaths are recorded daily.

John Templeton and wife, accompanied by Ralph Poindexter and Miss Ethel Philiber, started Saturday for Belknap springs for a summer outing. They were amply supplied with fishing tackle of the most approved patterns and will no doubt return with enough fish to supply their friends. John took a rifle and may bring back a male deer or two.

Monday's outgoing stage carried home a party of Portlanders that have been doing the Cascades for a short time. They started out from Eugene and crossed the mountains intending to hit the headquarters of the Deschutes and then drift down in their canoes, but found the river too rough for that purpose. The party consisted of Dr. Geo. F. Wilson, Bert Mackey, Roderick McCleay, and P. B. Gifford. They were equipped with three canoes of the most approved patterns, which will be shipped out by wagon.

Rev. G. W. Grannis, of Salem was in our city for several days this week looking after the interests of the Willamette University and the United Artisans. He held divine services in the M. E. church while here and also delivered a lecture Monday night on Artisanism. He will visit a number of the towns in Grant county and Baker City.

Walter Knox, the well known stockman of Post, was a business visitor in town Monday.

A. P. Dawson was in from his Willowcreek farm Monday looking after business affairs.

D. A. McDowell was up from his Crooked river farm Monday looking after business matters.

A. C. Walls, a pioneer carpenter of this place, is visiting in the county after an absence of several years.

J. M. Montgomery one of the solid farmers of the western part of the county was doing business in the city Monday.

C. C. Hon and wife and John Hon and family were down from Howard to attend the funeral of grandma Thomson.

D. Koopman, a prominent stockman of Newsom creek, was attending to business matters in the county seat Monday.

Postmaster Summers has the champion currant bush of the county on his property in the south end. It is about five feet in height.

R. H. Barnett of Haystack was seen going out of town Monday with a load of haying machinery and we expect he will use it if he gets a chance.

Miss Ilda Elkins was married to E. E. Aldrich in the M. E. church in Lebanon Tuesday. Miss Elkins has a number of relatives in this county.

W. P. Keady returned from Portland Monday and went on up to Howard Tuesday. It is rumored that an expert went along to examine the mines.

Ed Slayton was down from the ranch Sunday visiting with relatives and friends and reports his hay all up and the second crop of alfalfa looking fine.

G. M. Paul, a prominent rancher of the Culver district, was a caller at this office Monday. He has just returned from a visit to the old home in Linn county.

At the family residence in this city Friday evening July 26th Mrs. Elizabeth C. Thompson, quietly passed away, aged 80 years, eight months and nine days. Obituary next week.

Card of Thanks

To the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted them in their late sad affliction and did all in their power to soothe the last hours of Elizabeth C. Thompson, her surviving relatives and family take this means of expressing their thanks and gratitude.

Prineville, Oregon, July 30th, 1901.

Most Popular Teacher.

The vote on the most popular teacher up to the present stands as follows:

Miss Lilly Read.....	300.
Miss Carrie Fee.....	300.
Miss Lilly Knox.....	318.
Miss Lulu Luckey.....	150.

Pleasant Surprise.

Thursday evening a number of the friends of Miss Edith Howard gathered at the residence of Dr. Belknap and proceeded in a body to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Slayton for the purpose of spending the evening in pleasant games and bidding Miss Edith "good bye." The time passed very quickly and at a late hour refreshments were served, after which all wended their way homeward by the light of the moon. It was the unanimous verdict of those present that it was one of the enjoyable events in their lives.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boegli, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gray; Misses Lulu Luckey, Mabel Baldwin, Maud Vanderpool, Pearl Vanderpool, Addie Vanderpool, Grace Belknap, Ethel Liggett, Effie Crooks, Minnie Crooks, Una Stewart, Emma Ketchum, Ethel Swearingen, Mary Salomon, Edith Howard; Messrs. Carey Foster, Warren Brown, Herbert Rideout, Granville Clifton, John Howard, W. T. Fogle.

In the tree guessing contest John Howard and Grace Belknap were awarded the prize, a handsome little doll; the booby prize was given to Lulu Luckey and Herbert Rideout.

Summer Togs

Ready now.—The right things for the right sums. Our outing suits for stylish folks are the swellest ever shown in town. Prices as low as you'd expect to pay for the ordinary kind of clothing, but this is unusually good.

SPECIAL.

Line of Men's Linen Suits. Keep Cool. $3.50.

Men's Negligee and Dress Shirts. The Latest Styles and Colors, 50c

SPECIAL.

A big line of men's summer working shirts, all colors, 40c.

A fine line of men's and boys' summer hats. The latest fancies.

WURZWEILER & THOMSON

MADE ONLY BY
The Plano Manufacturing Co.

The simplest, strongest, most efficient and lightest running binder built.

It has the simplest, surest knottor yet invented—holds the world's record for accuracy in binding.

Its famous Lever Device increases power just when it's needed most.

Its patent Fly Wheel stores up surplus power and freely pays it out when needed. Built of the finest steel and iron, a triumph of mechanical perfection, you'll find it just the sort of money-saving implement you need. Costs more to make than others, but it's steeped with honest value. Drop in and look it over.

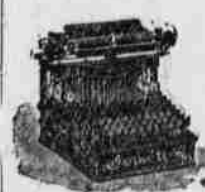

ELKINS & KING,
Prineville, Oregon.

This Space is Reserved for Ed Harbin's

New Planing Mill

AND
Bicycle Repairing Shop.
South End.

Coast Agency Co.

Pacific Coast Agents for
Jewett, Sholes,
Remington and Oliver Typewriters.

Expert Repairing.

Platens and parts for all machines. Duplicating goods and office supplies of every nature. Rubber stamps and seals a specialty. Write us. Long distance phone in the office.

266 1-2 Stark St., opposite Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Wilda Belknap returned Friday from Portland, where she has been for some time past attending to grand lodge matters.

Notice to Creditors.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been by the county court of Crook county, state of Oregon, only appointed Executrix of the estate and last will and testament of Medford A. Moore, deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same duly verified to the executrix at the office of M. E. Brink, in Prineville, Oregon, within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice. Dated July 30, 1901.

SARAH E. MOORE,
Executrix of estate of Medford A. Moore, deceased.

M. E. Brink, Attorney for executrix.

If you want to get some nice household furniture cheap, inspect the furnishings of the bowling alley store, up stairs.

All persons having books belonging to the circulating library of the bowling alley store are requested to return the same at once to the Executrix. 8-11f

Executrix Sale.

The entire contents and stock of the Bowling Alley store, consisting of cigars, tobacco, confectionery, show cases, shelving and fixtures, billiard tables, stoves, household furniture and furnishings, will be sold by the executrix at less than cost for cash. The estate also has one Acetylene gas plant complete which is offered at 25 per cent of cost. Please inquire of Sarah E. Moore, or at the office of M. E. Brink. 8-11f.