Our President is Dead.

Such was the import of the message that was flashed across the continent last Friday over every telegraph and telephone line in the Union. Again it has been the painful duty of the press to chronicle the death of a president of this republic at the hands of an assassin—the third since the formation of the government. This time there is nothing to plead in extenuation for the act. When Lincoln was assassinated it was at the close of a long and bloody conflict when the passions of many were still at fever heat and partisan feeling ran high. When Garfield met his death at the hands of Guiteau, it was urged as a plea for him that he was crazed by bitter factional politics. But Czolgosz has no plea of this kind to enter in his behalf; neither can it be said that he is insane for his utterances are not the ravings of an insane man.

When the country is at profound peace and everyone is, or should be, enjoying the blessings of prosperity, this offshoot of an accursed society, whose sole aim is to destroy the lives of those high in authority, fires the fatal shot that causes a nation to mourn.

How to deal with this element is the vital question that must be taken up by the next session of congress. A law should be enacted that will make it a penal offence to attempt the life of the President. Furthermore, all good citizens should be given the privilege to shoot down anyone making threats against the life of the President.

All organizations that have for their object the overthrow of law and order should be destroyed and their members transported to some desert island where they can prey only upon each other.

While we believe in a free country, free speech and a free press, there certainly should be a distinction made in cases of papers that are pandering to the element from whence the assassin of William McKinley sprung. All persons writing or publishing books or papers along any line that will create a bitter feeling against the President should be placed in solitary confinement.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE State of Oregon for Crook County.
 The State of Oregon, Plaintiff, vs.

W. A. Booth, Administrator of the Estate of Elias Davis, deceased, and all heirs of said deceased, if any there be and all persons interested in said estate, Defendants.

Now at this time is presented the information in the above entitled cause of Frank Menefer, District Attorney for the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Oregon, for which it appears to the court:

That Elias Davis died in Crook county, Oregon, on the 17th day of August, 1900, intestate and without heirs, leaving property therein described as follows:

N 1/2 of SE 1/4, N 1/2 SW 1/4, Sec. 17, and S 1/2 of SE 1/4, SW 1/4 of Sec. 18, T. 16 S. R. 18 E. W.
 31, E 1/2 of S 1/4 of Sec. 13 T. 16 S. R. 17 E. of W. M., all in Crook county, Oregon; containing 480 acres of land of the value of $2500.00, 14000 pounds of wool of the value of $1750.00 and cash now in the hands of W. A.
 Booth, administrator of the estate amounting to the sum of $5254.32, and all of said property being of the value of, and amounting to the sum of $9484.32.

That W. A. Booth is the duly appointed qualified and acting administrator of the estate of said deceased and as such has the possession of all of said property; that the state of Oregon has right by law to all of the property of said deceased.

Now therefore, IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You the said defendant, W. A. Booth, administrator of said estate and all heirs of said Elias Davis, deceased, if there be any, and all persons interested in said estate are hereby notified and required to be and appear in the Circuit Court room in the county court house in Prineville, Crook county, Oregon, on or before Friday the 25th day of October, 1901, then and there to show cause if any there be, why the title to all of the property belonging to the estate of said Elias Davis, deceased, and the hereina-fore described property, should not vest in the state of Oregon.

Dated at Chambers in The Dalles, Oregon, this 11th day of September, 1901.

W. L. BRADSHAW, Judge.
