Mr. Honio has sold his saddle shop in Mitchell to John Plack of the latter place.

A Knight is moving to town from this town in the Howard country.

Joe Leader was down from his ranch on North Creek last but received orders for more goods and inquired after his friends.

We and Mrs. E. Payton started down river yesterday to visit the mountains by train. We were to write of their experiences.

Mrs. McCalhoun's cases down from the Osborne mining district Tuesday. She is one of those who believe in the ultimate chances of these districts.

The United Indians initiated seven new cases Monday and today each case is rapidly increasing since the most popular 10 per cent and social order.

C Allen came down here last Saturday to inspect the cattage of the members of the district and brought with him a "p. p. e" for some Black Rock children, which are sent out to be cared for by those who know.

J. B. Conrad, Mr. Sid of Shidler, Oregon, has bought the Russell ranch in Wasco county and brought a lot of cattle from out of state. Mrs. Conrad will winter in the valley and then bring his family set in the spring.

The people of the seventh and eighth grades will give us a surprise Christmas evening, the proceeds to be used in furnishing their room. There are many children who are glad of Christmastime.

This is a moving season and we feel that the good people of Prineville will patronize it liberally.

W. M. Perk of Haystack, brought in to our market Friday morning pictures of the Victor "bood" that was burned twice last week. They were rescued without irritation and unhurt.

Mr. Perkins informed us that he sold two boxes of the famous variety last spring that averaged less than 60 cents the box.

Sam Smith sold to the B & H Co last week over 100 head of grade steers and offered for 15 cents more.

C Sleep came up from headquarters to receive these and stated that he had been in Oregon for the last few days, and that he lost about $2 per head and that he would not ask all he could sell at the former figures.

Allen and Lathrop have sold City of Decatur to Mr. McKeel and Hollenbeck of Burns. These gentlemen are law of their business in town on exhibition during next week.

A part of these lands are railroad lots and a part a city and they are all well worth looking at and all sheep men are in a quandary in regard to this city of land. It is a beautiful city and they are all dead in the picture.

They also have a couple lots on which they wanted to build a new house.

On Wednesday, December 21st, the store of William 0. Sloat, an old merchant and the family of the 1840s, settled in this county, where he had been residing.

Mr. Jones has a wife and six children—two boys and four girls—none of whom reside in this county. The eldest is a boy of twenty-one years, a young man.

Prominent Citizens Meet.

A Friday, the well known stock man and post master at Greenfield died at his residence on Trout creek at midnight Friday evening.

of stormy weather.

Mr. Perkins was born in England 55 years ago, coming to Oregon in 1848, settling in this county, where he has been residing.

He has a wife and six children—two boys and four girls—all of whom reside in this county except the two girls, who are married and reside in California. The eldest is now a boy of twenty-one and is the son of the storekeepers in the town.

It was buried Monday at Asotin, Wash., by the friends of that town and the county and the entire population of the town, who expressed the sympathy in which we all feel.

We shall be glad to find a better and a cheaper stock of these goods, and we desire to keep our customers informed.

Under the new system of grading steers and heifers, and the new farm plans, the livestock business has been established in the hands of the farm men.

We are glad to quote you prices on anything in the implement line.

Our prices are as low as is consistent with legitimate competition.

We have all the Regals for the Oliver Flows, and a quite a stock of Repairs for them.

We carry the genuine Oliver Flow, both the "Chilled" and "Steel" in both Walking Farm and Gang.

We have all the models of the farm flows.

The Loon Line, Lever Harrow The Loxug Pg. Toot Harrow The Dear Wood Framed Harrow In the Disc Harrows We have the Dear and Oserberg.

Who ever ready, Will try on, that will make your old Hack as good as new—for a low price.

WURZWEILER & THOMSON

Announce the arrival of some very choice things in ladies' jackets, silk and flannel wafers. Eiderdown dressing jackets, rainy day skirts, poroles, Waistcoat and cranberry wrappers. Our line of French washing flannels and wrappings should not be over looked.

We do not blow about prices being lower than ever, but the following will convince any economical buyer that we are the lowest of prices:

Ladle's catalogue, wrapping, good line of colors. $ 5.00

Ladies' fall black cloak. 3.00

Ladies' Ibray lined hooded coat. Special at

Children's school handkerchiefs, best quality, lined, in stock. 2 for each 5.00

Ladies' black crocheted cotton sashes. Regular 35c line. 1.00

Pleasant Swiss plaids, just the thing for children's school dress. Special at 50c

36 inch white cheesecloth at 97

Headquarters for Royal Worcester Corsets.

WURZWEILER & THOMSON

ELIOT & PARKER

The Farmers' Outfitters

We Would Like

To talk with you about Flows and Harrows.

You may be surprised

If you have never looked through our immense stock, to know that we buy Flows and Harrows in our load lots.

We are glad to price you prices on anything in the implement line.

We carry the genuine Oliver Flow, both the "Chilled" and "Steel" in both Walking Farm and Gang.

We have all the Regals for the Oliver Flows, and a quite a stock of Repairs for all.

Our prices are as low as is consistent with legitimate competition.

The New Department Gang Flow with either No. 20 or No. 60 Cast Bottom, and in 12 and 14 inch Steel Bottoms with third bottom Attached.

We have in Harrows

The Loon Line, Lever Harrow The Loxug Pg. Toot Harrow The Dear Wood Framed Harrow In the Disc Harrows We have the Dear and Oserberg.

Wholes all ready, Will try on, that will make your old Hack as good as new—for a low price.

Adamson & Winnee Co.

There are several

Ways

to do business, but only one right way—by furnishing the consumer with a product, the consumer then sends his own premiums he has earned, from his own customers, to his own customs. When

When you are near our store, stop in and examine some of our new stock of furniture. Suits, Overcoats, Curtains, Wall Paper, Drakes, Stockings, Muslin, Instruments, Brandy, Cigars, Tobacco, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Wash Goods, etc., at a Reasonable Prices.

Adamson & Winnee Co.