SCHOOL COLUMN

A PAPER. Issued weekly for and by the V and VI Grades of the Public Schools, of Prineville, Oregon.

CHAS. SUMMERS, Editor.
S. J. NEWSOM, JR., Associate-Editor.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1901

Iva West, a former pupil of V grade, visited our school Tuesday.

The city marshal has inspected the cross walk near the school, and, no doubt, it will be repaired in the near future.

Owing to the crowded condition of the school, the directors have ordered that the primer class be dismissed at noon for the day.

During the week ending November 8, there was not a case of tardiness nor absence in the V and VI grades. Pretty good showing for 56 pupils.

A Thanksgiving program is being prepared by the pupils of the two upper rooms, which will be rendered the day before Thanksgiving.

At the last meeting of the Prineville Society, Miss Myrtle Swearingen was elected editor of the school column in the Prineville Review, vice, Ralph Sharp, resigned.

Tuesday, Mrs. Rosenberg was unable to attend to her school duties, on account of having a severe cold. Miss Emma Ketchum had charge of the primary department during Mrs. Rosenberg's absence.

The pupils of the different rooms have been troubled from time to time by the loss of pencils, tablets and other things, which were evidently taken from the building after the departure of the janitor in the evening. A new spring lock has been put on the door, and it is hoped this will put an end to the trouble.

Following we give the names of the ten pupils highest in rank in the V and VI grades: In the V grade, were Nora Stearns, Sammie Newsom, Lora Stearns, Roy Foster, Elva Debbs, Lockwood Simpson, Dolly Hedges, Walter McFarland, Ceoie Smith, and Hattie Postwick; in the VI grade, were Elwood Draper, Iora Ward, Birdie Morris, Maggie Foster, Aleatha Dillon, Lester Cohrs, Anna Salomon, Beulah Crooks, Sichel Hinkle, and Georgia Hodges.

Last Friday, the second division of the Wide Awake Society, lead by Ceole Smith, rendered the following program: Song, "Let Us Arise," School; recitation, "The Old Fashioned Girl," Nora Dobbs; select reading, "The Wild Cow," Lockwood Simpson; recitations, "When Banners are Waving," Sichel Hinkle; "We Must All Scratch," Beulah Cline; Song, "Four Trades," Edna Estes, Elva Dobbs, Lora Stearns and Ceole Smith; recitation, "Naming the Baby," Dollie Hodges; instrumental solo, by Agnes Elliott; select reading, "Letter to Farmers," Alec Elliott; recitations, "Poet of Freedom," Lulu Anderson; "The Soldier's Cradle Hymn," Ethel Prine; "The Boys," William Meenk; song "The Moonlight Sail," School. Visitors present, were Mesdames B. F. Harper, I. Michel, E. Sparks, M. R. Elliott, A. L. Knighten, C. A. Cline, Kisser, Shattuck, Boegli, Wurzweller, Estes, L. M. Hodges, and Lehman and Miss Maude Brown. Exercises were also held in Professor Orton's and Miss Belknap's rooms.
