

Local Mention.

Special music today—Thanksgiving—at the Union church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake were in from Pilot Butte the first of the week.

L. Sandor a prominent business man from Shaniko, was in the city last Sunday.

U. S. Cowles was a business visitor from the Mud spring neighborhood the first of the week.

Manzell Wheeler and wife were over from their home on Willow creek the first of the week.

George Senecal, one of the prominent stockmen of the Suplee country, was in the city last Sunday.

E. W. Nelson was down the first of the week from Upper Crook river and paid this office a pleasant call.

W. W. Joslin was over from his farm on Willow creek Friday, making final proof on his timber culture.

Through the kindness of our friend Mr. Doak we received a new subscription from Ashwood this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMeen were over from Grizzly the first of the week. Their new house is about completed.

John Adkinson was down from Lava the first of the week attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

Commissioner Healey was in from Haystack Monday and reports a good prospect for grain so far in that section.

Will Hardin returned last Saturday from his recent exploration of portions of the Willamette valley and reports having had a splendid time.

A. E. Hammond, of the C. S. Railway and the Cline Falls Development Co., was circulating in our midst the latter part of last week. Work is progressing at the Falls.

George Rodman was in from Calver the first of the week and paid this office a pleasant call. He reports grain looking well and a large amount yet to come up which the last rains will bring out in good shape.

Before the next issue of this paper we expect to be in our new quarters in our own building on the west side of Main street near the Ochoco bridge. Call and see us when we get in running order.

The National Stockgrowers convention is now in session in Chicago and the Portland Chamber of Commerce is contemplating making an effort to have the next session held in Portland, which would be a good thing for the state.

Wells Bell and Will Marks went over to the Deschutes Saturday for purpose of investigating some property in which they are interested. This is their story, but a young lady who has a homestead out that way told our society reporter that Will was going out to look at her ranch, and as they took a cooking stove with them it looks suspicious.

Wm. H. Parker will leave this morning for Prineville where he has purchased an interest in the CROOK COUNTY JOURNAL. Will has been foreman of the Herald for over ten years and is a first-class printer. His friends wish him success in his new venture. Harry Crawford will assume the responsibilities of the foremanship.—Albany Daily Herald.

Hon. J. N. Williamson returned last week from an extended visit to Portland and Salem. While away he was called upon to bury his mother who was recently stricken with paralysis. She was an Oregon pioneer and had arrived at the ripe old age of 73. The JOURNAL joins with the entire community in extending sincere sympathy to the family.

A. H. Lippman has just completed the front for the new building being erected for Mrs. Susie Slayton. This makes the fourth one he has constructed during the past sixty days. Mr. Lippman received an order a few days ago for 5000 doors finished in good shape, from a St. Louis planing mill, but owing to transportation facilities was unable to fill it. Where would the demand for our excellent pine lumber end if we only had cheap transportation?

Firemen will give a grand ball at Glazes hall tonight—Thanksgiving.

D. Koopman was a business visitor from Post last week. He recently lost a cabin by having it set on fire by an incendiary.

Jake Johnson was down from his farm on Mill creek the last of the week attending to business matters and was looking as well as usual.

The Knights of Pythias, assisted by the Rathbone Sisters, will give a grand ball on Christmas eve. A good time is assured to all who attend.

Henry Gray was down from his ranch on Upper Crooked river last week and reports work having begun on the Yancy bridge near there.

Frederick Green died very suddenly at Haystack last Thursday. He went after a bucket of water and fell dead. He came out from the Willamette valley last fall.

George O'Neal was down from Paulina Friday making final proof on his homestead near that place. Mr. O'Neal is one of the heavy sheep owners of that section.

Wm. Palmeha was over from Grizzly the first of the week and paid this office a pleasant call. He reports everything progressing nicely over in that part of the county.

The number of claims allowed by the county court according to the semi-annual statement of the county officials during the past six months was 2134 aggregating $11,816.87.

There will be a special session of the county court held on the first Monday in December for the purpose of rearranging the various voting precincts and to establish new ones.

E. Johnson and wife will leave Friday for the San Joaquin valley in California where they will winter. They will be met in Portland by their son Jehu, who will accompany them and spend the winter there.

Mrs. Newsom, of Prineville, Oregon, arrived recently on a visit to her sister-in-law, Mrs. B. H. Simpson. Mrs. Newsom left Tuesday for Pomeroy, Wash., where her mother resides, to unite in a family re-union. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Lula Simpson.—Weston Leader.

The dog poisoner has been at work for some nights past and there are a number of casualties. While there are always dogs in towns of this size that deserve to be killed, there is no excuse for anyone who poisons promiscuously and such persons should be severely dealt with.

Hon. J. N. Williamson's many friends here will regret to hear of the great sorrow which has come to him in the death of his mother. The Herald joins in the many expressions of sympathy which the sad occasion has called forth from the press of the state, and from personal friends of Mr. Williamson.—Antelope Herald.

Wm. J. Wood and Marion Stillwell were over from their ranches in the Squaw creek country and report everything looking fine in that section of the county. There will be a large acreage of clover and alfalfa sown in that country during this fall and next spring. That already sown looks well and it is thought that a great deal of the soil heretofore believed unfit for alfalfa will prove to be the very best and we may safely predict that Squaw creek will yet be one of the best alfalfa sections in the county.

W. F. Keady and wife returned Sunday from a trip to Portland. Mr. Keady informed us that his recent trip with H. V. Gates through the southern part of this county and through Lake and Klamath was a very pleasant one and that he enjoyed it very much. He reports the section traversed as needing a railroad very much. Stock looks well in that section of the state and the ranchers are yet cutting fine crops of hay off of the same land that they have been cutting from for the past twenty years. Mr. Gates is now in California purchasing a lot of machinery for their oil operations in the Malheur country. They will have on the ground by the first of the year machinery which will enable them to sink a well 2500 feet, and they are tanguine that they will be successful in opening a good well in the near future.
