FRIDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1901

Effie Adams was a visitor last week.

Mrs. Knighten and Bacy Knighten made us a short call last Tuesday.

Two new pupils entered the II grade last week. The enrollment of the school is now 202.

The question of a High school is being agitated. There should be a high school, either City or County located here.

Mr. Boegli will visit as many schools as possible during vacation. Prof. Orton and some of the boys will take a hunting.

Monthly test work is going on in V, VI, VII and VIII grades. With an exceptional study or two the work has been excellent.

There will be no school during Christmas week. School will begin on the following Monday and will be dismissed for New Year's day only.

Three cases of truancy were reported last week. The pupils were found guilty and paid the penalty. We do not expect to hear of any more cases of this kind soon.

Last Friday the division of the Wide Awake Society under the leadership of Stella Young, and the Prineville Society under the leadership of Lizzie Ketchum united and rendered the following program in Prof. Orton's room: Song, Beautiful Twilight, School; Recitation, A Winning Company, Charles Summers; Select Reading, P.
