SCHOOL COLUMN

A PAPER. Issued weekly for and by the V and VI Grades of the Public Schools, of Prineville, Oregon.

ANNA SALOMON, Editor.
CECILE SMITH, Associate-Editor.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1902.

We now have 211 pupils enrolled.

Mrs. Chas. Lister, Mrs. Hugh Lister and Mr. A. C. Sly were visitors last week.

Prof. Orton's pupils have a fine new dictionary. The old dictionary will be used in the primary rooms.

The following new pupils entered during the past week, Grace Evans in the VI grade, Minnie Jarrett in the IV grade and Herman Jarrett, Harry Jarrett and Milly Jarrett in the I grade.

The Prineville Society elected new division leaders at their last meeting. Those chosen were, First division, Lizzie Ketchum, second division, Irene Barnes, third division, Maud Dobbs, fourth division Zella Knighten.

A good chance alone is nothing. Education is nothing without strong and vigorous resolution and stamina to make one accomplish something in the world. An encouraging start is nothing without backbone. A man who waffles first one way and then the other, who has no opinion of his own, or courage to think his own thought, is of very little use in this world. It is grit, it is perseverance, it is moral stamina and courage that govern the world.—Herald and Presbyterian.

The following pupils of Miss Belknap's room were neither tardy nor absent during the month ending Dec. 27. Alex Barnes, Mortie Porter, Julia Bino, Floy Slayton, Caroline Christiani, Bessie Elliott, Orpha Wright, Wilford Belknap, Willie Ferguson, Henry Meenk, Stanley Morris, Kenneth Miller, Newton Poindexter, Martin Prince, Newton Smith, Cecil Stearns, Henry Thorn, Earl Wurzeiler, Frankie Smead, Katie Chambers, Willa Combs, Alta Dillon, Leathe Ferguson, Lilly Hogg, Nellie Summers, Lorene Winnek, Emerien Young, Jessie Elliott.

Supt. F. L. Soldan of the St. Louis schools makes a plea for old-fashioned methods of school discipline. He holds that the whims of parents should have no weight in the school room and that "a good old-fashioned wallop" is the best remedy for unruliness. "There are times when moral suasion fails," he says, and when "the switch is mightier than the tongue." Pupils should never be expelled from school, he says. Even the most unruly ones are there because they have a right to an education, and educators have no right to shirk their part of the work, he holds.—The Pathfinder.

The following program was rendered last Friday by the first division of the Wide Awake Society under the leadership of Iora Ward. Song, Sweet Summer's Gone Away, School; Recitation, Hop Loo, Randolph Ketchum; Music, May Queen Waltz, Iora Ward; Recitation, The Lie and the Bad Habits, Edgar Barnes; Select Reading, Neglect of Little Things, Grace Wilson; Music, Kingston Waltz, Birdie Morris; Recitation, Effect of Sally's Bloomers, Iora Ward; Dialogue, Now To Keep Good Resolves, Nate Wurzeiler, Maggie Foster and Birdie Morris; Song, Happy School Days, Roy Foster, Stella Hodges, Maggie Foster and Georgia Hodges.
