SCHOOL COLUMN

A PAPER. Issued weekly for and by the V and VI Grades of the Public Schools, of Prineville, Oregon.

ANNA SALOMON, Editor.
CAROL SMITH, Associate-Editor.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1902.

Roy Price entered the VIII grade last Monday.

Grace Merrill entered school last week. She will take up the VI grade work.

Written tests were given in several studies in the two upper rooms during last week. The papers show an advance over last month.

The following persons were visitors last week: Mrs. Chas. Lister, Mrs. Hugh Lister, Mrs. Knighton, Mrs. Leighman, Messrs. Howard Dillon, Wid Barnes, Harry Smith, Chas. Ewing, Ed Broock and Ralph Sharp.

No one should hurt another's feelings by referring to any personal defect; neither should young people make side-shows of themselves by whispering, giggling, and chewing gum when forming a part of an audience. This is a rudeness that is unpardonable. You may not like the sermon, the lecture, or the music; but you are to be courteous, and listen with undivided attention.—Word and Works.

Last Wednesday the board of directors made an order closing the school until Jan. 26. This was done on account of the smallpox. The teachers and pupils were very sorry this had to be done as the school had just recovered from the check in the school work caused by the holidays. The school has labored under great difficulties. The first two months we could not get our full supply of text books. Soon afterward the scarlet fever scare caused poor attendance for some time. Then came the holiday's vacation, and now comes another break in our work. We hope to soon be at work again and will endeavor to do all in our power to do the year's work notwithstanding these difficulties.

At the meeting of the Wide Awake Society held last Friday an excellent program was rendered by the second division as follows: Song, May, school; recitation, The Arithmetic Lesson, Edna Estes; select reading, Lots of Don'ts, Lockwood Simpson; recitation, Flo's Letter, Dolly Hodges; music, The Waltz or the Winds, Edna Estes; select reading, Frank's Bath, Ceole Smith; recitation, Mattie's Wants and Wishes, Agnes Elliott; recitation, The Hand-Bell Ringers, Siebel Hinkle; select reading, Lora Stearns; song, Haste Schoolmates, Haste, school, recitation, Josiah's Country, Elva Dobbs; recitation, Two Little Maidens, Beulah Cline; recitation, All the Cows Are Chewing Gum, Nora Dobbs; song, On the Lake We Float, school. Exercises were also held in Prof. Orton's room and in Miss Belknap's room.

Thousands Sent Into Exile.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. Don't be an exile when Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption will cure you at home. It's the most infallible medicine for Coughs, Colds, and all Throat and Lung diseases on earth. The first dose brings relief. Astounding cures result from persistent use. Trial bottles free at Adamson & Winnek Co. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.
