Come Up Higher.

Mr. Williamson is now a state senator and has two years yet to serve. Would it not be well for him to serve out his term before asking for additional preferment at the hands of the citizens of Oregon.—Dufur Dispatch.

The Dispatch forgets that Mr. Williamson is only asking preferment at the hands of the citizens of the second district and not the whole state. He evidently is thinking that Mr. Williamson is running for some state office. The election of Mr. Williamson to congress does not interfere with his efficient services to this district in the next session of the legislature, nor do we believe he is asking any more than what is justly his due at the hands of those he has so faithfully served in the past. His past record may be taken as an earnest of what we may reasonably expect in the future, and as he has been successful in those things which were expected of him let us reward him as a faithful servant is rewarded by his employer, by advancement in the service.

Our friend Edward Everett Young, of the Baker City Republican, has written us a letter stating that the editorial comment on Williamson which appeared in the JOURNAL some time since and was credited to the Corvallis Gazette, was originated by him and we hasten to make the correction as it was unintentional on our part. The Republican was the first paper in Eastern Oregon to champion Mr. Williamson's cause and we honor it for so doing.

The local political pot is beginning to bubble. Rumors of several candidates for county judge, sheriff and clerk are rife, but as yet they have not assumed a shape solid enough to be called certainties. Some of the democrats are grooming C. Sam Smith for the nomination for sheriff. Mr. Smith is one of the solid citizens of the county and would make a good run, but the republicans expect to elect the sheriff this time.

"Unless, in speaking of the 'coming men' it is always understood that the men embrace the women," is the way The Dalles Chronicle begins a local in last weeks issue. Certainly, that is always understood whether speaking or not, if the women are willing. When it is understood that the Chronicle has a lady editor this seems pertinent and practical advice, "but in case of disappointment don't forget to send for me."

President Roosevelt, it is reported, privately investigated the character of Mr. Farre before appointing him register of the Burns land office, which might be an intimation that the president has not the most implicit confidence in the recommendation of some of our representatives in congress. But perhaps it is only a habit he has.

J. F. Morris gives enlarged pictures for cash trade, made by leading artists.

The Telegram is booming Moody for the nomination for congress on the republican ticket, and as the Telegram is democratic in its tendencies we can easily read between the lines that with Moody as the candidate there is a strong probability of the democrats carrying the second district.

Haystack Happenings.

There are a few of the neighbors on the sick list.

There was a moderate change in the weather Friday with a change to a little snow Saturday and warmer Sunday.

The railroad fever is around here, all predicting where the route will be; some say here, some there, but all will wait and see.

You meet a man, "How is this for winter? I wish it would thaw out so I could work," is the common saying, (of course with a person that would rather sit in the house.)

There is a public well here in the neighborhood of the dry ranches. The well furnishes plenty of water, but the pump furnishes naught, so buckets take the place, with a few frozen fingers.

There was a rabbit hunt here last Friday on the ridge on O. C. Hale's place. The boys had a fine time with their new shotguns. Ferd McAllister was in the buggy with his new Winchester shotgun, and Mrs. Mc. driving at a fast speed after Mr. Rabbit. Mr. Mc. was so excited over his new gun that he forgot occasionally to shoot and when he did, usually missed. But when Mrs. Mc. ran the rabbit down so Mr. Mc. could get close enough he was sure to get Mr. Rabbit. Although Mr. Mc. got 26 of the long ears, the shots he fired were untold. There were somewhere near 125 killed and nearly half that many crippled that will die, and twice that number missed. Plenty of fun and plenty of noise. Feb. 3, 1902. E. J.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 10c at Adamson & Winnek Co.'s drug store.
