

Sisters Sittings.

"Hello, Jack and Daisy Bell."
We will miss John Elder's smiling face at the Sisters.
We are pleased to note that Mr. Ira Person is fast improving.
We hope to see our old friend Clyde Herring at the 14th dance.
Mr. Roy Foster visited his brother-in-law, Mr. Geo. Wood, on Long Hollow.
We are sorry to state that the Herring brothers have quit the sawmill.
Mr. Alex Smith had quite a surprise through a mistake by having his mustache cut off.
Mr. William Woods has his house almost finished and will move in the same the 1st of March.
Will Claypool says he is getting most too old to smile at the girls. "Watch out for those Missourians, Bill."
The jolly crowd of the Sisters went skating on Hindman's pond last Sunday night and all reported having a good time.

AUNT JEMIMA.

Price Paragraphs.

The weather is mild here now for this time of year.
Harry Barnes had the misfortune to lose one of his fine cows last week.
Grant Mays was over on the head of the river last week hunting for cattle.
L. V. Tice is back on his Camp creek stock ranch for awhile looking after his cattle.
Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Barnes were over from Crooked river last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Boynton.
E. A. Parker was seen taking a sleigh ride one day last week. He said there was just enough snow to make fine sleighing.
Duck hunting is a very common thing these days, one man killed 16 at one shot; if he had had a good shot there is no telling what he would have killed.
A number of our young people went to Clarence Wiley's last Friday night to the dance. They had a very pleasant time and intend going back if there is ever another one.

JEMBO.

Haystack Happenings.

Jim Barnett had the misfortune to get run over by a wild cow last week, but was not seriously injured.
The mud at present is no telling how deep, as one man reports getting his saddle horse down. The ground was frozen about a foot deep.
When the ground thaws out the farmers of this section will make a bold rush at the plow handles and the soil will roll over in great shape.
On the road home from the dance Fred Green and Percy Banta killed a white weasel that measured 9 1/2 inches. Mrs. Green will stuff the hide and keep it as a specimen.
O. C. Hale has built a large wagon and machine shed on his farm. This is something that is badly needed on every farm to shelter machinery from rain and hot sun, when not in use.
The dance at W. S. Hale's last week was well attended. There were 28 persons present and all enjoyed themselves. Two little tots of five and three years of age danced a schottische with the big folks.
Persons hauling lumber should be a little more careful about leaving wagons, or other obstructions, standing in the county road for a load of people going to the dance had a narrow escape from serious injury, by running into a wagon load of lumber left in that manner.

Paulina Pointers.

We are blessed with rain today instead of snow.
Mr. and Mrs. Dean lost their little babe recently.
Mrs. George Senecal is very sick and not expected to live.
Our sheriff is with us this week attending to business matters.
The thermometer has been down to 20 degrees below zero this winter.
G. W. Noble is killing off some of his old cattle which he has become tired of.
Marion Morgan is out again after being down some time with a severe attack of "grip."
Cattle feeding is about over with for this winter. Everything indicating the early approach of spring.
Everybody has been busy putting up ice for the hot weather next summer and ice cream ought to be plentiful.
February 10, 1902.

Plow Grinding.

Ed Harbin desires to announce that he is prepared to do all kinds of grinding in the latest approved fashion. Chilled plow share grinding a specialty.

MARRIED.

MILLER—WILSON—At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson, of Culver, Crook county, Ore., Elder J. H. Grant officiating, Mr. George M. Miller and Miss Ada E. Wilson, both of Culver.
The contracting parties are well and favorably known in Culver and vicinity. Their relatives and many friends join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life. After the ceremony the guests were invited to partake of an excellent dinner prepared by Mrs. Wilson, to which all did ample justice. The groom and bride were tastefully arrayed for the occasion and received many not only useful but valuable presents. The Sunday school and music class will lose a faithful member, as Miss Ada and her mother, Mrs. May Wilson, have been untiring in their efforts in all Christian work at Culver, and have endeared themselves to their many friends by their many acts of Christian kindness. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Springer and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Merrill and family, Grandma Springer, Miss Bessie Wilson, Miss Myrtle Banta, Miss Grace Merrill, Miss Florence Merrill.
