

Local Mention.

Lee Wigle was down from the ranch on Crooked river the first of the week.

Dick Adams was down from Combs' Flat Sunday and took in the rabbit drive.

A. C. Lucas was up from Hay creek on business matters the first of the week.

Judge Wills expects a brother from Iowa to arrive today, whom he has not seen in forty years.

W. W. Brown arrived down from File last week. He is taking a band of horses to Shaniko to ship.

R. E. Fortner, of Emmett, Idaho, is in the city renewing acquaintances and visiting with old friends.

Don't forget the stockmen's meeting Saturday. It is of vital importance that all the stock interests should be represented.

Jay F. Stroud and J. F. Taylor were business visitors from Lamonta Monday. They were stocking up with farming machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peck and Frank Rodman were business visitors from the thriving little burg of Culver the fore part of the week.

Misses Belle Wilson and Mellie Roberts, who have been visiting in the city for the past week returned to Alkali Flat the first of the week.

The editor wishes to return his most grateful thanks to the ladies who remembered him with a box of fine luncheon from the Peck dance last Friday.

George Gibson was in town from Post last week and informed the JOURNAL man that he had exchanged his birthright for a piece of soil on New-woth creek.

The New dancing club was organized last week and gave a dance Friday night that was very well patronized. The club will give another one Friday night.

The democratic central committee held a meeting Saturday and fixed the time and place for the convention and apportioned delegates to the convention from the different precincts.

There is a strong probability that Mark Powell will be a candidate for the nomination for sheriff on the republican ticket. He would make an efficient officer and is well qualified for the place.

At the stocking social in the Union church Friday night for the purpose of buying books, the neat sum of $38.75 was taken at the door, which will be almost net, as the expenses were nominal.

F. T. Higgins came in from the woods last week and reports some snow yet on the head of the Ochoco. He left Monday for his ranch on Bear creek, where he intends putting in some storage reservoirs this spring.

The Prineville Dancing Club gave a free dance Saturday night that was one of the best given in the city for some time. The floor was completely filled with dancers from the first round until 12 o'clock. The regular Saturday night dances will be kept up as usual.

Frank Elkins is moving his blacksmith shop from the corner opposite Simpson, Wilson & Co.'s to the lot adjoining the Hamilton stables. This is his second move since last fall. Since the JOURNAL located in this end of town everybody seems to want to move this way.

Through the kindness of Senator Mitchell we have received a mail sack of garden seeds from the agricultural department which we will distribute among our subscribers. Call and get a package and save us the time writing your name on the same.

At a meeting held by the stockholders of the Willow Creek Land and Livestock Co., last Saturday on Willow creek, the organization was perfected and incorporation completed with 1000 shares at $3 per share. 822 shares were subscribed on the spot. The company has leased the Muling land on Willow creek and intend dealing in livestock and land. N. A. Newbold is president and George Dee secretary.

Patrick O'Rourke, an Ashwood miner, was a business visitor in our city last week.

County court convened yesterday, Wednesday, and will likely hold over this week.

Ferry Road, the hotel man, was in from Culver and spent Sunday visiting with friends.

John Y. Todd was over from the flourishing community of Sisters the first of the week.

C. H. Foster was over from Sisters the fore part of the week looking after his many interests.

Jack and Fat Hastings were up from Hay creek last Saturday and paid this office a pleasant call.

Mrs. Susie Slayton's building is rapidly nearing completion and will be a neat residence and millinery store.

John Combs returned Saturday from Wasco county where he has been attending to business affairs during the past two weeks.

Frank Glass and J. B. Benham were over from the Deschutes the first of the week looking after business matters and laying in supplies.

C. E. McDowell will soon finish clearing his farm of sagebrush which he will proceed to burn and then plow the land, seeding it to alfalfa.

A number of shearers went down to the B. S. & L. Co.'s ranch at Hay creek Monday to prepare for the spring shearing which begins there this week.

If you don't attend the rabbit drive Saturday you will miss the most fun you ever had. It will start from near Ben Jones' place and drive to the Circle corral.

Mrs. Ollie Keehn, of Prineville, arrived here Wednesday morning and went on up to Sweet Home to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rowell.—Lebanon Express-Advance.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Poindexter were over to Culver Friday and took in the dance that night at Peck's. They report one of the most pleasant evenings they have enjoyed in years.

D. P. Adamson received the first load of his drugs Sunday and will be ready to fill prescriptions some time next week. He will occupy a part of the Smith building until his new brick is built.

The Wasco county sheep men who have made such a hard fight against J. N. Williamson may find that it has been a boomerang when they come to herding all over this county in a promiscuous manner.

B. C. Low came over from the Deschutes last Friday to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the Deschutes Reclamation & Irrigation Co. Work will soon begin on this ditch and it will be finished in about two months. It is now about five miles in length and the only ditch on the river having water in it.

Some time since Foster & Lehman took 75 head of beef steers to Shaniko for shipment that averaged 1249 pounds. A sample steer was weighed here and at Shaniko which showed no loss whatever on the drive. If there is any other part of the state that can beat this showing after a 60 mile drive we would like for it to speak out or forever after hold its peace.

Mrs. W. H. Parker returned Tuesday evening from Prineville where she has been visiting her husband who is one of the proprietors of the Prineville JOURNAL. She is highly pleased with Prineville and Crook county and the family will move there in the spring. She says the weather for the past two weeks has been delightful, warm, dry and sunny and the roads are dusty.—Albany Herald.

Stockmen, Attention.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the stockmen of Crook county on Saturday, March 8, in the city of Prineville for the purpose of organizing the Crook County Stockmen's Association. All persons interested are requested to be present. Cattle men as well as sheep men are interested in this matter. Those desiring permits on the Cascade forest reserved are vitally interested.

Signed: G. Sam Smith, J. G. Julian, E. H. Sparks, T. H. Lafolett, Wm. C. Wills, Chas. E. McDowell, Chas. Lister, E. T. Slayton, M. C. Nye.

Wurzweiler & Thomson.

CLEARANCE SALE.

Every Article in the House REDUCED

For the next 30 days we will Sacrifice all of our Winter Goods.....

This is a bona fide REDUCTION SALE.

There will be no Reserve. Every piece of Winter Goods will be Reduced

Every piece of Ladies' Underwear Reduced.
Every pair of Ladies' and Childrens' Wool Hose Reduced.
All of our Ladies' Skirts and Jackets Reduced.
All of our Ladies and Childrens' Jersey Leggings Reduced.

All of our Ladies' Dressing Saques Reduced.
Every piece of Wool Dress Goods Reduced.
All of our Boys' and Men's Clothing Reduced.
All of our Boys' and Men's Underwear Reduced.
All of our Ladies' and Misses' Fascinators Reduced.

WURZWEILER & THOMSON.

ELKINS & KING

SHEEP MEN should inspect our stock of Tents before "Lambing."
WE HAVE WEDGE TENTS

WE HAVE WALL TENTS in all the popular sizes.

Our prices are as low as these goods can be sold for.
We also carry wagon covers. Call and see them.

ELKINS & KING.

ELKINS & KING

On account of the great demand for Coyote Traps we have had trouble to keep up our stock—but we are now getting in a full assortment, and will be able to fill all orders in a few days.

The above is the style of No. 0 and 1 1-2

The above is the style of No. 2, 3 and 4.
PRICES ARE THE LOWEST.

ELKINS & KING.

Spring Goods

Now ready for inspection. Come in and let me show you the Handsomest line of Suitings ever displayed in Prineville.

Don't

Buy hand-me-downs until you have seen my line of Goods and learn my prices.

GORMLEY,
THE TAILOR.

The above is a very good likeness of our solid Oak Center Table, that we are selling at $2.90.

ADAMSON & WINNEK CO.
Incorporated 1899.