Williamson Safe.

Reports from the primaries in nearly all of the counties of Eastern Oregon indicate that Williamson will get a big majority of the delegates and the result in Portland is very favorable. A careful observer in the political field predicts that Williamson will have not less than 125 votes in the District convention. This would mean about forty majority for him. There is little doubt but the delegation from this county will be elected unanimously. For Governor there are a number of candidates and they will have a clear field yet as none seem to be getting much ahead.

Moody Discovered.

Strange fancies are woven about campaign time. Candidates for re-election seem to think the people forget the past whenever a campaign statement is made. Till within the past four or five weeks the people of this region did not know that their Hon. M. A. Moody was a worker in the House of Representatives. They knew they had elected him twice, but suspected that he had fallen into some political abyss en route to Washington or about the purlieus of the capital.

If he is working now, as some of his ardent supporters would have us believe, we are cordially glad. For the past four years this part of the State has been dependent upon such efforts as Hon. T. H. Tongue, of the First District, could bestow. If Mr. Moody has begun to work some, after four years experience, there is hope that he will become a fair Congressman if the people will keep him in office twenty or thirty years longer. We dislike a situation without hope. If he must serve us, we are delighted to know that there is a time when he will be able to do something for his constituents.

In all the transport controversy a private citizen was sent to Washington to make an impression on the War Department. Until this year, when Senator Mitchell's strength was thrown in for the Celilo-Dalles canal, this vast project was discounted in Washington. Mr. Tongue got the members of the Rivers and Harbors committee to visit Oregon. After every other arid land State in the Union had invited the Geological survey officials to inspect streams and make surveys. Mr. Moody invited them to forgotten Oregon, but only after the survey officials had almost forced themselves upon us. If an assay office or other improvement was ever discussed for the First District, Mr. Moody knew of but one possible place where it could be located. Business men of this entire district have been frantic over the apparent neglect suffered during the past years, and will truly be delighted to learn that Mr. Moody has roused sufficiently to do something.—Baker City Republican.

Hats, a new line, all sizes, shapes and color—that will fit big men, little men and boys. See Bee Hive.

The railroad boys who helped Mr. Moody to carry his own town in the late republican primaries got their reward when the delegates elected by their assistance absolutely refused to permit N. J. Sinnott to read a set of resolutions drafted by the railroad boys for submission to the county convention, notwithstanding Mr. Sinnott's repeated and earnest appeals to the convention to listen to what the railroad boys had to say.—Dalles Chronicle.

By all means the nomination for Governor should fall to eastern Oregon, and if it does we favor the nomination of J. R. Whitney for state printer, as he is capable and deserving.

Wanted: Several good responsible republicans to fill county offices. Fair salaries and a good job. Take your choice gentlemen, anything from County Judge down.

MARRIED.

CLAYPOOL—WOOD: At the residence of J. B. Claypool near Sisters, Wednesday March 5 1902. W. E. Claypool and Miss Lena F. Wood, Elder J. H. Grant officiating.

Willie, who was raised in the Squaw creek country, is not only well and favorably known in Crook county, but in Linn county as well, and is a cousin of the JOURNAL editor. Miss Wood is at present a music teacher at Sisters, but was formerly from Kansas City, Mo., and has made many friends during her residence in that community. Their many friends in Oregon and Missouri join in wishing the young people a long, prosperous voyage through life's fitful sea.

The conclusion of the ceremony was a supper of an unusual display of good things prepared by Mesdames Claypool and Wood. The only sad feature of the occasion was that the editor was not there; however if he is as successful editing the JOURNAL as his cousin in entertaining his guests, it will be the banner paper of Crook county for years to come.

Following is a list of the presents: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wood, meat platter and 13 chickens; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Claypool, bed, pillow and orange dish; Mr. and Mrs. Cremer, cake stand; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stillwell, of Portland, silver butter knife and pickle fork; Mr. and Mrs. Prine, of Holbrook, Ore., sugar shell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Osborn, sauce dishes; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilt, china table set; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, glass table set; W. E. Claypool, to the bride, rocking chair; Jesse Claypool, set glasses; Guy Claypool, fruit stand; Percy Smith, salt shakers; Clyde Herring, sauce dishes and berry bowl; Miss Belle Claypool, fruit stand; Miss Jessie Andrews, sash cover; Miss Ada Wood, salt and pepper set; Miss Carrie Robbins, book of roses. J.

SPINNING — RETHLEFSEN — At 515 Everett street, Portland, Oregon, Wednesday evening, March 12th, 1902, Mr. J. F. Spinning and Miss Marie C. Rethlefsen, of Manning, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Spinning will make this their future home as Mr. Spinning has a permanent position with the Adamson & Winnek Co.

THOMPSON—ALLEN—At the residence of Silas Hodges, Prineville Oregon, Sunday evening, March 16, 1902, Mr. H. P. Thompson and Miss Hattie Allen. Rev. H. C. Clark officiating.

The young people are well and favorably known throughout the county. The JOURNAL joins their many friends in wishing them a safe and prosperous voyage o'er the sea of life.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY

THIS INFORMATION IS FOR PEOPLE OF MATURE WISDOM

Don't set up a "coin-plant" and make your own dollars. Uncle Sam has ideas of his own about such things. People have come to grief before by trying it. There is a surer, safer way, if not so rapid.
