

Lava Lore.

The snow is nearly gone. The roads are very muddy. Ducks are scarce now on the river.

Quarreling seems to be the latest up here.

Mr. Sly, of Rosland, was down the last of the week.

Harry Everingham returned from Prineville Friday.

Milt Young came up from the Bend to attend the social.

Our school is getting along nicely and will be out in a month.

The farmers all wear a smile now a days, they think spring has come.

James Black, Forest Quimby, Jim and Ethel Carter started for Prineville today.

Oscar Peterson started to Bend where he will commence work again. He left a broken heart behind.

Boax—To the wife of Ora Poin-dexter an 8 pound son. Mother and baby doing nicely, with careful nursing Ora will recover.

Ralph Caldwell and wife returned home today. We are glad to hear Mrs. Caldwell is improving and hope she may enjoy better health in the future.

A basket social was given at the Big Meadow school house for the purpose of raising money to repair the school house. A large crowd was present and every one seemed to enjoy themselves. Enough money was raised to repair the school house and some besides.

SPITFIRE.

Post Items.

We are still having some winter weather.

The political pot has begun to boil around here now.

Nerly everybody is still feeding and stock is looking fine.

Mrs. Geo. Wiley is visiting friends in Prineville this week.

P. B. Davis of Squaw creek, passed through this burg Monday. Messers Roscoe and Geo. Knox have returned from a business trip to Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shepard, of Swamp creek, are visiting friends here this week.

School is moving along nicely under the management of Mrs. Eugene Wimer.

Mrs. Stella Rannels, of Paulina, is visiting her sister Mrs. Elmer Clark, here this week.

We have a daily mail between here and Newsom creek with Frank Hughes as carrier.

Billie Smead and wife have moved to Pine creek, where they will have charge of the Ed. Wakefield ranches the coming season.

Robt. Wiley has moved his cattle from the Stewart ranch to his Bear creek ranch where he will turn out as soon as the weather permits.

SAMBO.

Stockmen's Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Maury Mountain Cattle Association will be held at the Camp creek hall on March 29, 1902.

A. L. WIGLE,
Secretary.

The executive committee of the Oregon Wool Growers association will meet in The Dalles March 21 to consider the matter of apportioning the Cascade Forest reserve. Our Crook County Stock Growers Association should have a representative there in order to get its share of the grazing permits. There are sheep enough in the county to take very nearly all the range and we should have it.

Grant county is to vote on the proposition of a High school at the next general election.

The Idaho Northern, which was built last year a distance of 27 miles from Nampa, Idaho, to Emmet, and which is allied with Colonel W. H. Dewey's Boise, Nampa & Owyhee Railroad, will this year be extended 53 miles farther northeastward, up the Payette River to Garden Valley, where the north fork of that river joins the mainstream. It is aiming for the Thunder Mountain district, where Colonel Dewey and his associates have extensive mining interests.
