

Additional Locals.

W. H. Staats, the Bend hotel man, was a business visitor in town last Saturday.

T. M. Baldwin returned last week from a brief business trip to outside points.

R. W. Bruese and C. W. Carey were in from Combs flat the first of the week attending to business affairs.

Mrs. Minta Prine arrived from Lewiston Idaho Saturday for a visit with her mother Mrs. Dan Powell.

J. S. McMeen and wife and Frank Rodman and wife, of Lamonta were visitors in the city last Saturday.

Uncle Jim Faught was down from his ranch on Crooked river Tuesday, and paid this office a pleasant call.

W. G. Keady came down from Howard Sunday and was perambulating around during the fore part of the week.

H. G. Kibbee, of Hay creek, was in town the first of the week looking after his book business. He is representing a large eastern book concern.

Miss Ruby Mulvahill, the accomplished daughter of our friend M. Mulvahill, of Mitchell, was married March 30 to Otis Helms, of Twickenham.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cary came in from Matoles Monday, the first time since moving onto their farm last fall. Both look hale and hearty and report that country life agrees with them.

Sunday night and nearly all day Monday the wind blew a gale and Monday night there was a slight fall of snow. Old father Winter is very loth to withdraw from the scene and let a more welcome visitor take his place.

The Journal editor is pleased to note that his friends Newt Burgess and C. A. Danneman are two of the republican legislative nominees. They are mighty good men, who will be easily elected. Newt's brother-in-law, Dan Malarkey of Portland, is also a republican nominee for representative.—Fossil Journal.

Wallace Post was down from Post the first of the week and informed the JOURNAL that D. Koopman had lost some ninety odd sheep by having his hand fired into one night while they were inside the limits of the Maury Mountain cattle reserve. If these parties had all joined the Crook County Stockgrowers Association they could have had their differences adjusted and there would have been no trouble.

A. Roberts, formerly of Alkali flat, was brought over from Mitchell Monday suffering from a severe case of blood poisoning. He was over on the John Day when his foot became inflamed from being chafed by his shoes, but it was not thought to be anything serious until it had gone on for several days, then becoming alarmed he came to Mitchell, but could not get treatment there so he was brought here. On the summit the team mired down and the outfit was compelled to remain over night without food or fire in a blinding snow storm. The party arrived here afternoon Monday and Dr. Belknap was hastily summoned, but nothing could be done to save the limb and it was at once amputated by Drs. Belknap, Rosenberg and Gesner. He was brought over from Mitchell by A. C. Donnelly and P. L. Puett.

Application blanks are now ready for all desiring to become members of the Crook County Stock Growers Association. Parties can sign same by applying to W. A. Bell or at this office. Every stock owner and every person interested in the stock business in this county should become a member of this association and thus aid in maintaining our home range for home stock. In this manner we can retain enough grass to keep our stock in good condition.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the proposition to open a wagon road from here to Detroit. We believe that the road now crossing the mountains can be used to the county line, or so much of it as is necessary, and there would then remain but a short distance to build. This road would be a great accommodation to travel as it would shorten the distance and make a much better road. Besides all this it would give this county an outlet to San Francisco and other points and give better freight rates than we have at present from Portland.
