A New Congressman.

A state with only two Representatives in the lower house of Congress takes a serious step when it removes a man who has served it with dignity, fidelity and credit for two terms, and replaces him with another. Yet it is not necessarily an unwise step. In this case results only can determine. Mr. Moody's career has been one in which the state could feel a justifiable pride. He is not an orator, but his personal qualities are such as to command respect and attention among gentlemen. Many an orator is less equipped for gaining recognition of a desirable sort at Washington.

What beat Mr. Moody was his unfortunate connection with the advocacy of lease laws for the ranges. It does not appear whether he was influenced in this matter by the scientific men who control the Government's policy, or whether he enlisted the co-operation of those men in proposal to which he had already been committed. This does not now greatly matter. The essential thing is that but for his mistake in this affair the efforts of his political opponents to unseat him would have found no foothold among the people of his district. It is simply impossible for any man to live a political life in Eastern Oregon and extend the faintest show of sympathy with the designs certain great foreign corporations entertain towards the public domain.

Whatever theoretical benefits may be bound up in an ideal leasing system, it is impossible longer to doubt that the inspiration and eventual effect of the Millard bill would be in the interests of the same sort of absentee landlordism that has recently made itself deservedly odious in the Carr case in Southern Oregon. Enormous areas of superb land in Southern and Central Oregon are now in the possession of land and cattle corporations which hope under a lease law to extend their holdings. There is no benefit in all this for the small stockholder or the settler, who must in time redeem these solitudes from comparative idleness and people them with thriving and productive industry. Upon this question the people of Eastern Oregon feel keenly. It is greater in their eyes than the tariff or the gold standard.

Upon this question as upon others, the people of Oregon will have in Mr. Williamson a faithful and alert Representative, for of his election there admits no doubt. His adaptability for the office is yet to be ascertained, and it has come to him, through the devious ways of politics, not as what he would have chosen for his own pleasure or as fitted to his faculties. But he has qualities of force, diplomacy, a prepossessing manner, a gift of making friends and a loyalty in holding them, which, rightly applied, may make his service effective and even brilliant. In the general congratulation of which he is the recipient the Oregonian gladly joins, as one among his friends of many years.—Oregonian.

A Ragging, Roaring Flood.

Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. C. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb, Sioux City and Omaha said I had Consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung troubles by Adamson & Winnek Co. Price 50c and $1.00.

It is possible that the refusal of merchants, manufacturers and professional men to employ boys addicted to the cigarette habit will do more to check the evil than all the laws ever passed or planned. When a boy knows that his future chance to earn a livelihood depends on his quitting the ill-smelling cigarette the knowledge will doubtless have more effect on him than a dozen parents' or pedagogues' lectures on the subject. The beauty of the thing is that no manner of deceit will avail, for the cigarette-smoking boy carries the literal sign manual of his vice on his fingers. A Chicago boy confessed last week that out of ten places to which he had applied for work the head of not one had neglected to ask him if he smoked cigarettes. In a number of instances he was made to show his forefingers. Few people will be sorry even if the action of the employers results in cutting off some of the profits of the cigarette trust. The dividend paid in brain, body and muscle will more than compensate the community.—Chicago Tribune.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under the Sun."

All doctors have tried to cure Catarrh by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membrane causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membrane that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of CATARRH has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only cures at once, but permanently cures CATARRH by removing the cause, stopping the discharges and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "SNUFFLES, the GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE," and is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment, and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"SNUFFLES" is the only perfect CATARRH CURE ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve HAY FEVER or COLD in the HEAD.

CATARRH when neglected often leads to CONSUMPTION—"SNUFFLES" will save you if you use it at once. It is an ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is guaranteed to cure CATARRH in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany every package. Don't delay but send for it at once and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "SNUFFLES," the GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE.
