

Additional Locals.

J. M. Merritt, of Fife, was doing business in the city last week.

Jay F. Stroud was over from Lamona Tuesday attending to business affairs.

Frank Bogue and wife, of Lava, were business visitors in the city the first of the week.

J. S. McMen was over from Lamona the first of the week looking after matters political.

Joseph J. Windle and wife, of Minneapolis, were sojourning in our city a few days the first of the week.

John Biscar and P. Mocho, two of the Paulina sheep raisers, were business visitors in the city Tuesday.

Miss Pearl James, of Sodaville, passed through here the first of the week enroute to Paulina to visit relatives.

Sheriff Conleton returned the first of the week from a trip in the north end of the county serving papers on jurymen for the May term of circuit court.

D. A. Findlay was down from Rosland Monday after supplies and attending to matters pertaining to his homestead final proof. This office acknowledges a pleasant call.

J. C. Hoover paid this office a pleasant call Tuesday and reports having just quit work at the lambing camp of Morrow & Keenan and that their increase will reach fully 100 per cent this season.

H. W. Reed, late of Wisconsin and North Dakota, was in from Bend Tuesday filing on some of Crook county's fine soil and will be one of our energetic citizens. While in the city Mr. Reed called at the JOURNAL office and became one of our family of subscribers.

C. W. Elkins, county roadmaster, returned Tuesday from a trip in the Ashwood and other districts of the northern part of the county and reports having stirred up the supervisors to work out the tax in their districts and other matters that needed attention.

On the third Monday in May the Artisans will have a high old time. There will be numerous social features to the meeting and all members are allowed to invite their families and one friend. The ladies will furnish a nice lunch and there will be games and a literary program.

Advices from the land office state that timber land filings can now be made before U. S. commissioners, county clerks and judges of courts having a seal. This will obviate the necessity of going to The Dalles to file and we hope it will be taken advantage of and many filings be made on our fine timber.

Juniper Circle, W. O. W., will give an entertainment in Glaze's hall on Friday night, which will consist of vocal and instrumental music, tableaux, pantomimes, etc., to be closed with a laughable farce. Doors open promptly at half past seven and the performance begins at 8 sharp. General admission 25 cents, children under 12 years 15 cents.

W. G. Mayfield was in from Haystack Monday attending to business matters. Mr. Mayfield has been wintering his cattle in that section of the county. He has about 500 head and runs them in the Rosland country in the summer. He is also a stockholder in the Little Deschutes Irrigation Co. of the latter place which has about 21 miles of ditch completed.

Jesse Windom, of Hay Stack, was in town on Wednesday. He says that the entire Hay Stack and Agency Plains country is being taken up by settlers, and believes that in time it will be a great grain producing district. Mr. Windom has resided in the Hay Stack country for nine years and he informs us that twenty one and a half bushels to the acre is the smallest crop of wheat he has ever raised there.—Antelope Herald.

Sisters Siftings.

W. E. Claypool and wife are in Prineville on business.

Percy Davis was in from Beaver creek and bought W. E. Claypool's calves. A good price was given.

Mr. C. H. Foster is improving his lately purchased farm and we wish him great success in the future.

J. Quiberg is making a warm fight for road supervisor. It will only take a few more cigars to elect him.

The farmers of Squaw creek were pleased to see a fine rain, for things are quite dry and dusty in this part of the county.

Mr. Arnold will close his singing school next Sunday and it is my opinion that he has given every one good satisfaction.

George Wood had the misfortune to get run over by a milch cow but I think he will recover as soon as he gets over the scare.

We are sorry to say that Mr. and Mrs. Osborn have gone to Haystack. They will be missed very much by all, and especially by the young folks.

From all reports we have come to the conclusion that Guy Claypool has died of heart trouble in the last few days. What do you think about it, Guy?

Miss Faye Lampion was a visitor of Sisters a few days ago, and if the young man that took her away would be kind enough to bring her back we would be much pleased. We also miss Miss Fanny Osburn from our vicinity.

SMIPLE SIMON.

W. A. BOOTH.

Dated this 21st day of April, 1902.

A petition is being circulated to have the mail schedule from here to Silver Lake changed from twice a week to six times a week. This change will be a welcome one as it now takes two weeks to get letter through to Lakeview and the answer back.

There is said to have been one death in Paisley and one in Lakeview from smallpox during the past three weeks. Criminal carelessness causes this disease to spread.
