Ellis Says It's Furnish.

Judge W. R. Ellis, formerly Congressman from this district, came down from Pendleton yesterday on legal business. In speaking of the political outlook, Judge Ellis said: "Umatilla County will give Mr. Furnish all the way from 500 to 1800 majority. I do not personally know much of the feelings in the other counties. While Mr. Chamberlain is stirring up a great deal of enthusiasm in that part of the state, it appears to me to be in the nature of a personal tribune, merely because he is a 'good fellow.'

"I know Mr. Furnish, and have known him for a long time. He is a good, clean man and commands the entire respect of the people of Eastern Oregon who know him. Unless Mr. Chamberlain gets a vote in the western part of the state that is unprecedented, Mr. Furnish will be elected by a safe majority.

Judge William C. Wills, who is Republican candidate for County Judge of this county, deserves the vote of every man in Crook county who takes a pride in the present splendid condition of his county's affairs. Without disparagement to his predecessors, Judge Wills has given Crook County a remarkably clean, businesslike and sound administration, and the result shows in the excellent condition of the county's affairs at this time. He has earned his re-election, if faithful performance of a public trust can earn the consideration of voters at the ballot box, and we believe that the Judge will show Mr. Booth a clean pair of heels at the June election.—Ashwood Prospect- or.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LeGrand, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by Adamson & Winnek Co.

Examination of Forest Reserves.

The report on the examination of the forest reserves and adjacent timber regions for the calendar year 1899, by Henry Gannett, has been issued as Part V of the Twenty-first Annual Report of the United States Geological Survey. It makes a volume of 711 royal octavo pages, illustrated by 143 plates, including a number of maps, most of which are in an accompanying portfolio.

The report includes, besides a summary of the work done in 1899, the following reports on specific areas: Olympic Mountains in northwest Washington, by Messrs. Arthur Dodwell and T. F. Rixon; Cascade Range in southern Oregon, including part of the Cascade Range Forest reserve, Washington, by Fred. G. Plummer; a portion of the Sierra Nevada of California, including the Stanislaus and Lake Tahoe Forest Reserves, by Geo. B. Sudworth; Lewis and Clarke Forest Reserve of Montana, by H. B. Ayres; Woodlands of Indian Territory, by C. H. Fitch; Classification of lands in various parts of the United States, by Messrs. C. H. Fitch, H. B. Ayres.

Application for this volume should be made to Members of Congress, or to The Director, United States Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

Upon his return to his old home at Prineville last week the citizens of that place, irrespective of party, gave Hon. J. N. Williamson a joyous welcome home. The stage coach bearing Mr. Williamson was met several miles out of town by a special carriage decorated in National colors, and the entry into town was in the nature of a triumphal march. It is just as well to begin calling him Congressman Williamson now as any time, for he's a sure winner.—Lakeview Examiner.

In regard to Judge Lowell's bolt, I think that the Judge made a mistake. While it will have no big influence, it shows his impracticable nature. Judge Lowell personally is a good and lovable man, but in politics he does not command much strength.—Portland Journal.

Ex-Gov. Hogg, of Texas, is willing to sell Englishman stock in his oil companies, but he balked on wearing the regular court costume required of callers on the King.

HOUSEWORK Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged meneses, leucorrhœa and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her meneses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendane, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901. I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fatter than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day. Mrs. Richard Jones. $1.00 AT DRUGGISTS.

Hogg weighs some thing like 400 pounds. Think of that elephantine figure in knee breeches, with a sword wabbling between its knees! We don't blame him for balking.—Ex.

Shudders At His Past.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann, of Levanna, O., "My three years of suffering from Kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man. They're universal to regulate Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Adamson & Winnek Co. Only 50 cents.

Don't forget that you can save 50 cents on your winter reading by subscribing for the Oregonian with the JOURNAL for $2.50.
