

Local Mention.

T. M. Baldwin and family, returned from Portland Friday.

Ed Gerow is in the city shaking hands with many old friends.

B. J. Pengra of Lava, was registered at one of the hotels Sunday.

S. L. Logan was in the city Saturday.

Straud Price has wood to sell.

W. H. Foster was a visitor from the growing town of Sisters one day last week.

D. C. Jenkins was up from May creek last week.

R. H. Caldwell was down from Lava the first of the week.

Don't forget the show this week as it will be worth seeing.

A. M. Logan was in from Price the first of the week.

Orin Poindexter and J. I. West of Bend, were in the city the first of the week.

J. L. Luckey and wife, and son Johnny, left Thursday for the Willamette valley, via the Santiam route.

Eb Crabtree is roaming around the streets once more after several weeks absence.

The Base Ball Club was out Sunday in their new uniforms. They make a neat appearance in their new clothes.

I. R. Brock, Chas. Brock and Jackie Brock were down from Bend looking after business matters.

Jack Cadle who has been absent for several weeks is in the city. Jack has been cooking for the vaquero outfit.

Wm. Sherwood was a business visitor from Bemidji, Minn., last week. He was looking after timber land.

D. F. Steffa, editor of the Deschutes Echo was a Prineville visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. N. C. Simpson left Monday morning, with family, to visit relatives in the east.

Mr. Clay A. Simpson Manager of the Washington Life Insurance Co. has gone to Portland on a short business trip.

K. Jones and J. A. and W. E. Newton, of Philomath, Oregon were business visitors last week.

The editor returned Sunday from his recent outing in the Willamette valley.

C. A. Williams, of Millwaukee, Wisconsin, was looking over the resources of the country last week.

R. E. Lee, of Medical Lake, Washington, was looking over the resources of this great country last week.

C. D. Merwin and Swan Hansen were over from Spokane last week looking after timber land.

Donald McKay was a business visitor from our sister town of Antelope one day last week.

Bert Robbins was down from Paulina last week looking after business matters and taking in the sights of the city.

The new county officials will take their seats on the seventh of this month and we may expect a vigorous administration.

We understand that John Sumner, the champion bender player met his Waterloo one day last week. How about it John?

Charles Stanborough, of Bend, passed through this city enroute to Portland.

Lew McCallister was down from the first of the week looking after his multitudinous affairs and was as happy as a lark so we infer that he is expecting to make a strike one of these days.

H. B. Stevens was a business visitor from the growing little town of Silver Lake one day last week.

W. S. Fullerton, a prominent farmer of the Squaw creek country was a visitor at the county seat one day last week.

L. V. Bailey, the stockman and farmer from Upper Beaver creek, was a business visitor at the county seat last week.

Mrs. Mattie Philiber, of Portland is here visiting with her parents, Mr. Mrs. D. E. Templeton.

Miss Maggie Glaze returned Saturday from Burns where she has been for several months past.

S. P. Donkel was down from Lava last Saturday.

Frank Smith, one of the prominent cattle men and farmers of Camp creek region was doing business in town the first of the week.

W. D. Todd was over from the Squaw creek country the first of the week.

Mrs. Frank Hadley, of Eugene, is here visiting with her parents, Mrs. and Mr. J. N. Poindexter.

N. B. Moses and Montgomery Miller were in from Price the first of the week.

Wm. Coulthard was a business visitor from the Paulina country the first of the week.

F. H. Marion was down from Resland the first of the week looking after business affairs at the county seat.

Saville & Hermings will give a dance after the show the night of the 4th.

Rosecoe Knox and E. B. Knox were down from Post last Friday. Mr. R. Knox continued on to Shaniko to attend the wool sales there the first of the week.

What is the matter with a farmers institute and fair this fall? We could have a three days meeting and bring together the farmers and stockraisers of this county with good results.

The meetings at the Methodist church will continue over the 4th. A service will be held at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and in the evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these meetings.

Rev. H. C. Clark will preach at Willow creek Sunday July 6th at 11 a. m. Ed Kitcher was a business visitor in town the first of the week from his home near the coaling railroad point of Willow creek basin.

George Breeze, who has been visiting his brother, Dick Breeze for the past three weeks, departed for home at Montecello, Indiana Monday. He will visit with relatives a short time in Washington while enroute home.

The Haystack people will have a royal good time at the picnic picnic grounds on the Fourth. Every one who goes will be treated nicely as that is the way they do things down there.

We have received a new electrotype of township plats and can now furnish the finest printed plats in the county. We also have a small set for printing on the back of cards, envelopes, etc.

Ed Brock the popular waiter at Poindexter's Hotel has resigned his position and will now travel for a picture company. Miss Parker is doing the hash act in his place.

Fred Claypool returned Sunday from a trip into the state of Washington. He made the trip there and back on his wheel and looks as fresh as ever. He came back to accept a position as deputy sheriff under the new sheriff elect, C. Sam Smith.

J. B. Crossfield the pioneer traveling man for Mitchell Lewis & Staver Company was in the city the latter part of last week soliciting orders for his firm.

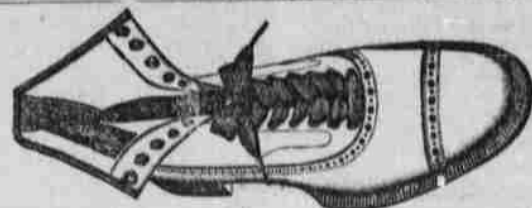

It looks good to us to get back to the sagebrush again and to the savory smells of this great inland country. The western part of the state may be able to raise more fern than we do, but there is a general air of slowness about it that does not agree with an eastern Oregon man.

Steve Black and family of Grass Valley Oregon, were in town Sunday. Steve brought the family up and treated all of them that were old enough on a timber claim. Steve evidently believes in making the most of a good thing.

The Columbia Southern surveyors are camped at Heister station and are finishing the survey onto the plains in the Willow creek basin as fast as possible. Application has been filed in the land office at The Dalles for an extension of ten miles from Shaniko and more will be filed as the survey progresses.

White Oak Shoes.

The Bill-well Shoe.

Spring THE 1902 WALK OVER SHOES FOR MEN.

All Sizes

All Widths

These Shoes are made of the very best stock. The best is always the cheapest. Every pair warranted. Special attention called to the boys' and youths' shoes made of this leather.

We are sole agents for WURZWEILER

Unexcelled for style, durability and comfort. The best of everything used in the construction of these shoes. Try a pair and you will buy only The BILT WELL SHOE.

BAKER BARBED WIRE & THOMSON.

GORMLEY TAILOR.

J. E. Campbell was a business visitor from the Warm Springs reservation the first of the week.

Miss Pearl Vanderpool will spend the Fourth with relatives on Bear creek.

Harvey Cyrus and wife have gone to the shady dell along Squaw creek to rusticate for a short time.

A parent of this city writes us that he is annoyed and tried by his son staying out nights, and asks us if we can present a remedy for this rapidly growing evil. The boy's spine can be broken with an ax, or he can be nailed to the floor with a red-hot railroad spike driven through his abdomen; but the most effectual way is to compel him to wear patched pants.—Hopper Times.

Haystack Union No. 144, Order of Washington, has been instituted at Culver, with 36 members. Mr. Perry Read, Past President; Frank Osborn, President; Mrs. Hattie Read, Vice President; Dr. W. Snook Chaplain; P. Osborn, Secretary; D. W. Barnett, Treasurer; James Read, Escort; Mrs. Ella V. Rodman, Asst. Escort; Dr. W. H. Snook Medical Examiner; S. W. Hanna, Capt. of the team; Frank E. Rodman, Guard; Edgar C. Crawford, Sentinel.

Poe LaFollette was in from his ranch on McKay Tuesday and brought in a sample of rye that measures eight feet and four inches in height. If any one can beat this bring in the samples. There is no doubt that if we had cheap transportation this county would become famous for its fine rye whiskey as well as beer, for there is no country on earth that can beat us for fine barley. Mr LaFollette has just returned from a trip through the Willamette valley and reports having seen no grain as good as there is on McKay creek.

Saville & Hermings Musical, Farce, comedy in Muldoon's picnic, the funniest show on earth and carries all first class people. The latest Music, the best dancers, special scenery and wardrobe. A laugh from start to finish. Saville and Tate, the Comedians are the monarchs of Irish comedy's and they will give you the best performance ever witnessed. Don't forget the dates, July 3-4-5th. Reserved seats on sale at Templeton's Drug store.

TO THE CONSUMERS

OF

BARBED

WIRE

Do You Know

WAUKEGAN Barbed Wire

Runs more feet to the pound than any other Brand Wire on earth, and is equal in strength to the Strongest?

Length to one pound, 2-point regular, 18.35 feet; 4-point regular, 15.20 feet; weight, one mile in length, 2-point regular, 290 pounds; 4-point regular, 290 pounds.

You are not so much interested in the price per pound as the actual cost per rod or mile.

Figure for yourselves, then consult our nearest agent. This will result in your buying the WAUKEGAN.

WAUKEGAN BARBED WIRE

WAUKEGAN CHIEF.

SOLD ONLY BY

Elkins & King,

AGENTS,

PRINEVILLE,

OREGON.

Write for prices. We are the lowest.

Wall Paper Arithmetic.

ADDITION:

The new styles of Wall Paper just received, also the sum you add to your savings by buying of us.

SUBTRACTION:

The amount we are deducting from other dealers prices

MULTIPLICATION:

The customer tells her friends that she has discovered the economical place to buy Wall Paper, her friends become our customers.

DIVISION:

Our profits are cut in two, that we may have more trade than before.

Do you want Wall Paper on the profit-sharing plan?

D. P. ADAMSON'S Drug Store is the Place.