GREAT GRASS THERE.
Didn't go Further with the Herd—Bought More Cattle—The Averages and Browns.
 Chester Avery and Walter and George Brown arrived Tuesday evening from Deschutes. They left Benton recently, it will be remembered with 500 head of cattle for Silver Lake. The trip across the mountains was made without the loss of a single head. At the Deschutes such fine grass was found that it was determined to keep the cattle there until fall, instead of taking them direct to Silver Lake as was first intended. Grover Avery and others remained in charge of the herd, and Chester Avery and the Browns returned. Chester Avery is to leave again, perhaps today, taking with him two mowers and other supplies for use at Silver Lake. He is in addition to take over the mountains 75 head of cattle purchased on the return trip. The Browns brought back several head of horses that came from the Silver Lake country.—Corvallis Times.

Ashwood Gleannings.
 From the Prospector.
 J. G. Poindexter and mother, Mrs. Poindexter, returned Monday from a trip to Prineville.
 J. G. Edwards returned Sunday from an extended trip to England and other points in Europe.
 George Barnes, of Prineville, was in town the first of the week attending to some legal business.
 Peter Lehman is building a blacksmith shop in Ashwood which will be opened for business in a short time.
 Grandma Maupin and Mrs. Nannie Perkins, her daughter, moved back to the Maupin ranch the first of the week. They have been residing in town since the fire awaiting the completion of the new house Perry was having built.
 Sam Hamilton who for the past several years has been an attaché of the ranch force of his brother, T. S. Hamilton, has moved into town and will in the future, with his son, Charley, conduct the big hotel now nearing completion. When this commodious building is thrown open to the public Ashwood will have a hostelry of which it may feel proud.
