Fine Crook County Sheep. On last Saturday the Baldwin Sheep & Land Co. expressed to R. A. Jackson, of Dayton, Wash., three of the finest rams probably ever sent from their ranch, two of which were French merino and one Delans. One of the rams is the famous Holliday ram, now four years old and weighs 400 pounds. This ram when two years old was the prize winner at Salt Lake two years ago when sheep were on exhibition from all parts of the world. The Holliday ram, as well as both the others, were raised by the B. S. & L. people and are home production. Mr. Jackson is more than fortunate in procuring such fine stock to place in his breeding pens. It has been the aim and intention of the B. S. & L. Co., since its inception, to be at some time the leader in the raising of fine sheep, and they have now attained that position, as has been proven by the many first prizes captured by them wherever their sheep have been exhibited in the United States.—Shaniko Leader.
