

Additional Locals.

Mrs. Elva Allen, of Eugene, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Powell.

L. C. Perry was down from Diamond Lake the first of the week looking after various business matters.

A. S. Parsons, Blanche Parsons and Pearl Chamberlin, of Buckley, Wash., filed on timber claims this week.

W. N. Bowser and P. J. O'Leary, of Bemidji, Minn., were in the city last week. They have been investigating our timber lands.

Don't forget that you can save 50 cents on your winter reading by subscribing for the Oregonian with the JOURNAL for $2.50.

All Artisans who want to pay their dues can do so by calling at the JOURNAL office, as the editor has the books and is now acting secretary.

The unveiling of the Storey monument by the Woodmen of the World, which was to have taken place next Sunday, has been indefinitely postponed.

At the teachers examination held last week the following teachers were granted certificates: Miss Eunice Horney, of Haystack, and Charles King, of Prineville. Both certificates were second grade.

The wheat crop is not turning out near as well as was expected. The grain looked well, with plenty of straw, but the average yield in this section is only about twelve bushels per acre. It is a good thing that the farmers of the valley have gone into diversified farming and are not now depending altogether upon wheat.—Lebanon Express-Advance.

Arrangements have been made for the county high school pupils for the winter and spring terms and they will be taught in the public school in the principals room. A portion of the primary department will be taken to the Odd Fellows hall and thus ease up on the public school to such an extent that room can be made for the high school pupils in the professors room.

D. P. Rea, with his friend, Dr. Watson of Portland, started Monday morning for a hunting and fishing trip among the lakes and headwaters of the Deschutes. They were heavily armed, and we may as well be prepared for some "hot air" when they return.—Shaniko Leader. This probably accounts for the heavy rain last week, as heavy firing has always been the cause of rain. We may look for more storms in the near future as a lot of local sportsmen are leaving town for Davis lake and other points in the Cascades.

J. H. Jackson, who has just returned from Agency Plains tells us that as far as the eye can reach cabins may be seen, at least a hundred having been put up recently. From Timothy Brownhill's claim, which he had fenced in and built a cabin on, fifty may be counted. Mr. Jackson has also fenced in and built on his land. Experts who have recently gone over the land to determine as to its productive quality place it sixteen per cent above that of Sherman county, which will be the best of news to those who have taken up land there.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Want Oregon Minerals.

A letter has been received by Philip S. Bates, who has been appointed a delegate from the Chamber of Commerce to the International Mining Congress to be held at Butte, September 1-5, asking what exhibit Oregon would make at the congress, says the Oregonian. The letter will be considered by the Chamber of Commerce at its meeting tomorrow, and some action may be taken. The letter received by Mr. Bates was as follows:

"I have just received official notice from Governor F. W. Hunt, of Boise, Idaho, that they are preparing and will send forward in a few days under the care of the Hon. J. A. Lippincott, state senator, a fine display of the minerals from that state. What is Oregon going to do? Please let me know at once.

I am erecting in the exposition building at Columbia Gardens very artistic tables upon which to display all exhibits. I will also make arrangements for glass cases which will be under lock and key, in which to place the more valuable specimens. I am anxious now to know just how much space I will have to arrange for Oregon, so please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

"Mr. Charles M. Reeves, secretary committee on state and territorial exhibits, Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St. Louis, will be here in the interests of that institution, and deliver an address upon its importance, and from my standpoint I think it would be greatly to the interest of your state, considering the fact that you propose holding a Lewis and Clark exhibition, to be well represented. I have also a letter from Professor J. A. Jones, chief department of mines and metallurgy, Louisiana Purchase Exposition, telling me that he will also be here as a delegate from that institution; also from the state of North Carolina, and will deliver an address, the subject of which will be "Great Expositions as Factors in Promoting Mining Interests of the Country." In this paper he will describe the various factors, such as mining journals, the American Institute of Mining Engineers, the local mining associations, the government and state geological surveys, the railroads, etc., which will all be co-operating during the next two years in a general movement for promoting the mining interests of this country.

"I consider this session of the mining congress to be the most important meeting ever held in the United States in the interests of the mining industries, and as Oregon is a mining state, and looking forward to a greater development in this respect, that it is an opportunity that should be beyond all question utilized to the greatest advantage."

A visit to the livestock exhibit at the State Fair will be worth many times the price of admission. No state in the Union will have a better livestock show, and every farmer should make an effort to see the biggest show ever held this side of the Rocky mountains.

Grasshoppers are doing considerable damage near Corvallis. They don't refuse anything green.
