

Local Mention.

Grant Mays is in from his ranch at Crook county.—Dalles Chronicle.

Chas. Cotter, of Bend, was a Prineville visitor Friday.

M. L. Brown, a prominent stockman of Paulina, was in the city Friday.

Wm. Vandervert, of Lava, was in the city the first of the week.

Wm. Staats and son, of Bend, were in the city one day last week.

Prof. Boegli is having a dwelling house erected near the school house.

B. C. Cady returned Sunday from a trip to the timber where he went to locate some timber claims.

Al Coleman, a former barber of this place, is in the city renewing old acquaintances.

W. S. Paul, of Albany, has been in Prineville for the past week trying to buy a few good horses.

Mrs. Wm. Staats and Mrs. Bener, of Bend, were Prineville visitors the fore part of the week.

Tom Watkins, the timber cruiser for Dorgan & Co., was in the city the latter part of last week.

Jos. Street, from up Crooked river way, was a Prineville visitor the latter part of last week.

Charles Christiani, formerly of this office, is now taking a course of studies at the High school of this place.

Chas. Graves, county surveyor, left Monday morning to commence the survey on the McDowell road below town.

Samuel Rosh, of Lamonta, has been in the city for the past week looking after business interests here and visiting friends.

Mrs. Mina Wilmarth, who has been visiting relatives and friends here for the past month, left Monday morning for her home in Burns.

A. M. Drake, of Bend, passed through the city Friday on his way to Portland where he goes to look after some business at that place.

Miss Uaa Stewart left on Monday's stage for Corvallis, where she goes to enter the Oregon Agricultural College for the winter.

Miss Effie Crooks arrived in the city yesterday from her home at Prineville and will visit with Mrs. J. M. Fillion.—Dalles Chronicle.

D. A. Finley and wife, of Rosland, were in the city the first of the week making final proof on their timber claims.

E. N. Gillam left for the Willamette this week after his brother, C. H. Gillam, who will become a resident of this county.

Wm. H. Brock, the timber cruiser of Bend, has been in Prineville for several days looking after business in his line.

Dick Vandervert, proprietor of the Prineville-Silver Lake stage line, was seen on the streets of Prineville the first of the week.

Dr. Rosenberg is reported as being seriously ill. The JOURNAL with many friends of the doctor hope that he will soon be able to get around again.

S. C. Jastrupe, formerly business manager of the Plaudester at Roseburg, paid this office a pleasant call on Monday.

W. A. Booth, our county judge, returned the latter part of last week from California where he had been to attend the late sickness of Mr. Foller, who died a short time ago.

H. F. Swalla, editor of the Echo, has been "abroad" for the past week looking after business matters and we presume gathering some material news for use in his paper.

Stan Farmer, of Hood River, formerly of this place, who has been visiting his relatives in this county for the past 140 weeks, left for his home on Monday's stage.

Leysing, manager of the Rod Front, informs the JOURNAL reporter that he has just received word of the death of his wife in China. He says that probably Tye will come back and take charge of the business during his absence, as he intends to go to China as soon as he can arrange his business.

Champ Smith left on Monday's stage for Salem having in charge Frank Hardy, of Upper Eschutes, whom he is taking to the insane asylum of that place.

Ye editor, W. T. Fogle left Sunday morning for Shaniko and way points. He will take the train at that place and go on to Lone to look after some business at that place.

Hon. T. H. Lafollette, one of the leading Crook county sheep breeders, was in The Dalles yesterday returning from attending the meeting of wool-growers at Pendleton.—Mountaineer.

Harvey Cyrus was in from Sisters Sunday where he has been for some time engaged in agricultural work. He reports everything to be moving along in that prosperous place.

Another delegation of timber seekers arrived in Prineville Sunday morning. They are from Minnesota and say that many more are headed for this country for pine timber.

J. C. Wilson, the carpenter who has just finished the addition for the JOURNAL office, left Monday morning for T. H. Lafollette's on the Oehoco where he will do some carpenter work for Mr. Lafollette.

Word has been received that John Claypool, who was reported seriously ill at Weston, Oregon, was much better and would be able to leave for home in a few weeks. Many friends here will be glad to hear the good news.

Roy Howard returned Saturday after a summer's absence. Roy has traveled over the larger part of Baker and Wallowa counties on his wheel the past summer and reports having had a good time.

Minor Lewis, a prominent barber of Portland formerly of this place, has been shaking hands with his many friends and also looking after some business in this place for the past week. He looks as young and happy as of old.

Adrian Crooks, electrician for the Prineville light plant, is spending his vacation in The Dalles with superintendent McArthur, taking lessons in electrical engineering. Mr. Crooks expects to spend two weeks in The Dalles.—Mountaineer.

Two new comers have been in the city for the past week and one of them has entertained our citizens to some of the latest songs. He is an artist in his line and furnished amusement for the dance Saturday night by singing and dancing between dances.

Com and Sam Carroll, of Bridge creek, were in the city last Saturday with two wagon loads of fine eating and cooking apples which they disposed of to the people of our city. They report everything in that section of the state to be in a flourishing condition.

David Hamar passed through town the first of the week with a bunch of cattle which he purchased in the valley last winter. The cattle became scattered during the winter and he just finished gathering them up. He is taking them out to his ranch on Bear creek.

The Poindexter Hotel has pitched a large tent in the lot back of the main building and put several beds in to accommodate people who want a place to sleep. Both the Prineville and Poindexter Hotels have been full up for the past summer owing to the rush for timber lands, and from all indications it will continue the same all winter.

Mrs. Weigand left on the 12th inst. for Portland, where she goes to purchase a new and up-to-date photographers outfit, to place in her building next door to Cyrus' jewelry store. Mrs. Weigand is a photographer of first class attainments and will guarantee all her work. She expects to open her gallery about the 1st of October.

After a visit of three weeks among old friends in Benton, J. M. Henkle left yesterday for his home in Crook county. As soon as he can sell his stock farm near Prineville Mr. Henkle expects to return to Benton to reside. He hopes to be able to arrive this autumn or next spring. He makes the trip home in a private conveyance over the Santiam road over the Cascades, and expects to be three and a half days enroute.—Corvallis Times.

WURZWEILER & THOMSON'S

New goods are arriving daily.

New add will appear next week.

Jas. S. Kelley, Photographer.

VIEWS
COPYING
PORTRAITS
ENLARGING
Prineville, Oregon.

J. H. Foster was in from Sisters the first of the week.

Ralph Hutchison, resident dentist. Crown and Bridge work a specialty.

Portland Club Whiskey, a pure bourbon, well matured. Recommended by leading physicians. For sale everywhere.

The Prineville base ball club is trying to arrange for a match game of base ball to be played during the fair next month. They have sent a challenge to the Haystack club and expect an answer from them in the near future.

W. F. Edmondson was over from his ranch on the Matoles Monday and brought over a load of watermelons which he disposed of to the citizens of Prineville. He did not forget the JOURNAL office and in the afternoon we enjoyed eating one of the best melons of the season.

A large box of clothing and other articles that will be needed by the sufferers from the forest fires has been sent out by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Portland. In one of the bundles that was sent in was a doll, neatly dressed, and on it was this note, in childish handwriting: "This dollie is for some little girl whose dollie burnt up. Take good care of her. Her name is Minnie."

Dr. W. W. Taggart, late of River Falls, Wisconsin, has located in Prineville. Dr. Taggart is an eye specialist. For a time his headquarters will be at Poindexter Hotel. As he will be out of town much of the time, patients should make an appointment with him. Dr. Taggart fits glasses and spectacles accurately. All work will be guaranteed one year without additional expense to the patient. Take notice of the children now that the school year has begun. Headaches and kindred troubles are caused by the eyes. Proper care now will enable them to do their work better and easier later in life. The most serious and complicated cases of eye trouble are successfully treated by Dr. Taggart. Inquire at the Poindexter Hotel.

Grade Cattle Sale.

During the County Fair I will have on exhibition and for sale a number of high grade young Hereford heifers which I will dispose of at private or public sale. I will also dispose of my entire band of grades at the ranch on Crooked river. J. H. GRAY.

Elkins & King

PRINEVILLE'S BUSY STORE.

Our 1902 stock of Oliver Gang, Sulky and Walking Plows is far the most complete we have ever carried. These plows have no equal as a breaking plow and will plow ordinary sage brush without grubbing.

The new Oliver Sulky's have a great improvement over last years in the shape of a hand lever giving the operator full control to regulate the width of cut on turns and curve. The Oliver is one made to do the work and will do the work they are made for. Call and inspect them.

Our stock of repairs is exceptionally complete, not only the iron posts but wood as well.

We can save you time and money and patience.

GO TO

D. P. Adamson's Drug Store

FOR DRUGS
STATIONARY
WALL PAPER
SCHOOL BOOKS
SCHOOL SUPPLIES
PAINTS AND OILS
MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS
PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
AND
TO HAVE PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED.

Prineville-Burns Stage Line.

CORNETT & CANTRELL, Props.

Carrying U. S. Mail, Passengers and Fast Express

Leaves Prineville on Mondays and Thursdays at 6 a. m. Passengers waybilled for Post, Paulina, Fife, Riley, Burns, and all way points.

C. I. WINNEK, Agent, Prineville