Ora Parker had the misfortune to seriously injure his arm while at work Monday. It will be some time before the injured limb will be mended.

Geo. Schlecht, of Portland, who has been inspecting the country toward Silver Lake, passed through the city Saturday on his way home.

H. S. Travis, of Portland, who has been looking at the timber prospects for this section, was an outgoing passenger Saturday.

During the past eight days, the Journal has added 14 paid up subscribers to its already large list. We now have as many subscribers as any other two papers in Crook county.

Miss Emma Ketchum, who has been spending the past few months in Portland returned home Friday. Her many Prineville friends are glad to again see her in our midst.

City Recorder Biggs has been grinding out cases in the municipal court the past week, with the result that the building fund is considerably larger.

Dr. J. W. Fogl, an expert oculist of Portland, will be in Prineville every three months. Those wishing anything in his line would do well to consult him.

R. V. Jenkins, of Cuver, made our city a visit last week. He was attending to business matters. He reports that the farmers down that way had commenced their spring plowing.

W. B. Holman, of Portland, arrived Saturday for a stay in our city. Mr. Holman is an accomplished violinist, and a chance to hear him is indeed a treat.

The work on the new planing mill building is being pushed right along. It is 60 by 80 feet in dimensions, and when it is finished and the machinery in place will be a valuable addition to Prineville's industries.

Dog tax is now due, and those owning canines would do well to call on City Recorder Biggs and settle, as strenuous efforts are going to be used soon to exterminate all unlicensed dogs.

The Saturday night dances given by Sharp's orchestra are being well attended this winter. Last Saturday night 35 numbers were sold, and all seemed to enjoy the evening.

C. T. Allingham, a brother of L. E. Allingham, of this city, was a Prineville arrival Wednesday. Mr. Allingham is from Lebanon, and comes for a brief visit.

The new Ads in this issue of the Journal are those of C. L. Winick, R. L. Hickman, Elkins & King, Modern Woodmen and Sharp's Orchestra and N. A. Tye and Bros.

J. W. Hawkins, of Howard, spent a few days in town the first of the week. He reports his logging crew at work getting out timber for the spring run, which will commence about March 15. His mill has a daily capacity of 15,000 feet.

The Artisans are preparing to give a feast and entertainment on Monday February, the 16th, at Belknap's Hall. Each Artisan has the privilege of bringing his or her family and inviting one friend. A royal good time is promised those who attend.

L. W. Woods, a former well known business man of this city, who has been residing in Idaho for several months, returned to town Sunday. It is reported that Mr. Woods will open a saloon here in the near future. —Blue Mountain Eagle.

J. S. Kelley leaves today, (Thursday) for a three month's visit in the Willamette valley. He goes by way of Pendleton, where he will be joined by Mrs. Kelley. During his absence, his gallery will be occupied by Mr. Hickman an expert artist.

Fritz Rinehart was arrested Thursday upon a charge of using obscene, profane and abusive language, the complaining witness being John Geiger. He was found guilty as charged and sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs.

Thron Thronson, of Ashwood, was in our city the first of the week. He has purchased the group of claims known as the Ochoco Mines, and expects to have them in running order about May 1st. He returned home Wednesday.

The Hill Military Academy, of Portland begins its spring term Feb. 1st. This school is enjoying a constantly increasing patronage, and ranks among the first on the coast as a preparatory school for young men. Drs. Rosenberg of this city, and Ray Logan, of Moro, are former pupils of Dr. Hill.

Last Wednesday night a favored few were treated to a life like Kinetoscopic reproduction of the Jefferson-Fitzsimmons fistick combat. The result was, as usual, the lighter man giving way to his more powerful opponent, but for some unaccountable reason, the machine broke down, and the bout closed at the end of one short round.

The Modern Woodmen of America lodge at their meeting Monday night fixed definite plans for their dance, on February 20th. The committee now have the matter in hand; and will try and give the dance loving public a good time. Supper will be served at Bonney's Restaurant, while Sharp's Orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion. Notice their ad with full particulars elsewhere in this issue.

M. Mulvehill reports having sold 360 acres of his Summit Prairie ranch to the Baldwin Land and Livestock Company. He also reports hay plentiful on the Mitchell side of the mountain with indications of an easy winter.

Among the articles omitted this week on account of lack of space were the following: Rosland Items, Crooked River and a communication from Mrs. Peck. Correspondence from our principal settlements are always appreciated, and those left out this week will appear in the next issue.

Several sales of beef cattle have been made the past week by parties in this section. Among those making sales were James and Ward Cram, the Ochoco stockmen. The former delivered a band at Shaniko last week to Charles Butler, a Tacoma buyer. The price received, we understand, was $4.25 per cwt. on foot, while Ward Cram has contracted to sell a lot at $4.37 1/2. Crook beats the world as a producer of fine stock.

M. R. Elliott is in receipt of a letter from Wm. Johnson, who served six years as Crook county's school superintendent, which is indeed a quite a curio. In one corner of the letter he drew a circle exactly the size of a dime, and within it wrote the Lord's prayer with a pen and ink, and with only the aid of the glasses, which he wears at all times. The writing is legible, and the feat is made all the more remarkable by the fact that Mr. Johnson is now 68 years of age.

Rev. G. M. Booth came in from Prineville this morning and expects to leave tomorrow for Salem, where the five Booth brothers will have a reunion, not having been together for many years. One brother is a member of the senate, another receiver in the Roseburg land office, another a judge of Josephine county, and still another, in Prineville, the County Judge of Crook county. The latter goes down to lend his influence against the creation of the new county of Stockman, so that all will be in Salem together. Mr. Booth will no doubt return and conduct at least one service in the Methodist church here Sunday.—The Dalles Chronicle.

MARRIED.

ZURCHER—HOWARD—At Enterprise, Oregon, January 16, Miss Edith Howard to J. D. Zurcher.

Notice to Stockholders.

There will be a meeting of the Stockholders of the Union Church Association at the Union church on Saturday, February 14th, at 2 o'clock P. M. The purpose of the meeting will be to elect officers to fill vacancies and plan means to pay off indebtedness against property and any other business pertaining to the interests of the association. A full attendance is desired.
A. ZELL,
Director.

Stockmen's Meeting.

On Wednesday February 4th, the Crook County Cattleman's Association will hold their annual meeting at the Court house in this city at 10 o'clock. At this meeting the business coming before the stockmen will be disposed of. In the afternoon at the 1:30 session Mr. C. J. Millis, Livestock agent for the O. R. & N., will address them. There will be a number of local speakers also. All old members and those caring to join are invited to the morning meeting, while the afternoon session will be of interest to the general public, and those in charge are desirous that everyone come that can.

Prineville Young Ladies.

Prineville, in the heart of Oregon's great inland country can boast of many distinctions, but none of greater consequence than her fair daughters.

A Prineville girl Gets up Early in the Day; then Combs her Hair and Dobs White over her face. She loves eyes Brown or Grey and says she must Ketchum at any Price. Perhaps if she is Sharp and does what Wright some Day she may Linger by the side of some Grey eyed Othello, where she may Hyde her Fair Curis until he Gets to acting like ne New-scote things and Holder. Here in Prineville there are Bells, who Bask in Summer in the Fair Rays of the Sun, as it sets in the West, just over the Hill. Really we are Lucky.

Elwood Field Fence

The above cut shows our ELWOOD woven wire fence. It is so strong that it stops all large animals and so close at the bottom that the smallest pig cannot get through it.

The largest meshes in the higher sizes are eight inches from center to center, the next size mesh is four inches from center to center, while in the lower part of the fence additional strands are introduced making the smaller meshes just the size of a four inch diamond divided in the middle. We carry this fence in stock in the following sizes: 26 inch, 34 inch and 42 inch, in 10 and 20 rod rolls.
