Fay Hodges has returned to her place of study after several days absence.

Henry Smith was absent from the IX grade last Thursday afternoon.

Cecil Yancey was a little tardy one day last week.

The IX grade pupils have come to the point where they realize the necessity of home study in algebra.

Mother—"Johnny, how is it you stand so much lower in your studies in January than you did in December?"

Son—"Oh! Everything is marked down after the holidays, you know, mother."

Miss Emma Ketchum had charge of IV and V grade pupils last week on account of Miss Smith being absent in order to attend the regular teachers' examination.

Nellie Day returned to school last Monday after a week's absence from school.

Roy Gray was absent from the VIII grade last Monday.

The IX grade pupils have taken up the study of Greece by Botsford. This is to be a supplementary work and will be beneficial to the whole class.

Miss Smith again has charge of her pupils after a week's absence from school.

Randolph Ketchum was absent from the VI grade last week.

Clarence Ferguson was absent from Prof. Mosier's room last week.

Romance of an Irish Nurse.

Four years ago an Irish girl fell in love with a strange young man, a patient in a large hospital in Dublin. She could not obtain an introduction to him, but learned his name in some way, and on Christmas Eve, 1898, she sent him an anonymous present in the form of a beautiful Christmas card, which the recipient resolved to keep. On becoming strong again the young man was sent to South Africa, and on the outbreak of the recent war volunteered for service with a Natal corps.

On Christmas Eve, 1900, the young fellow, lying wounded in the hospital, resolved to make some kind of presentation to the young Irish nurse who was attending upon him. Anything suitable to the season he found hard to obtain, and, finally, he determined to send her the Christmas card received two years before from an unknown Dublin flame. His surprise may be imagined when, on receipt of the patient's token of esteem, the favored nurse came to his bedside and confessed blushing that she "had seen the card fully two Christmases before." The two are long since married.

Lost in the Snow.

Fred Fletcher, the Plush stage driver, had a narrow escape from freezing to death last Friday night between Drake camp and Twelvemile Creek. It was storming very hard all day Friday and Friday night, a blinding snow storm obstructing one's view except a few feet in front of him. Night overtook the belated stage driver, who was traveling with a span of horses and a cart, and in a short time he was hopelessly lost, shortly after passing Drake camp. He built a fire and remained at that desolate place until daylight the next morning, when he pursued his way on down to Plush, a distance of 20 miles, arriving there late in the afternoon Saturday, when he should have been in Lakeview on his return trip. Fred stayed all night at Plush and started early Sunday morning with the mail for Lakeview, where he arrived about 12 o'clock Sunday night, being a day and two nights late. He snatched a few hours' sleep and started early Monday morning with the mail for Plush.

In the meantime his friends becoming uneasy about him started Johnnie Morris and Will Childers out horseback to look for the delayed driver. They got only as far as Camas Prairie, where they found the snow about four feet deep. Thinking it impossible to proceed farther in the soft snow, they retraced their steps back to Lakeview. Notwithstanding their failure, the missing driver made his way with a span of horses and a cart through to Lakeview the following night.

A Cure for Lumbago.

W. C. Williamson, of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies had failed to do." Sold by all druggists.

Laundry Solicited.

Mrs. Dora Lyons wishes to announce to the public that she will do washing and ironing at reasonable prices. Washings will be delivered.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy.—Mrs. J. A. MOORE, North Star, Mich. For sale by all druggists.

All For $3000.

I have a ranch consisting of 134 acres three miles north of Ashwood. 18 acres of alfalfa and 30 acres of grain land, with good new house and barn. Fine young orchard in bearing. 30 head of young cattle, 23 head of sheep, 24 hives, and one short horn bull; all two years old next spring. Plenty of feed and pasture. 100 acres of ranch under fence. This ranch is only one mile north of the Oregon King mine.

THE DRAUGHT'S BLACK-DRAUGHT THE ORIGINAL LIVER MEDICINE

A sallow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. The Draught's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It stirs up the torpid liver to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by The Draught's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than The Draught's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.

Mullins, S. C., March 10, 1901.
I have used The Draught's Black-Draught for three years and I have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.
