The revival meetings in progress at the M. E. church are drawing good crowds, and much favorable comment is heard on the work of Evangelist Cawood. Mr. Cawood was until recently a dentist, and his conception of worldly things is a little more vivid than some, owing to the fact that they are still fresh in his mind, he having been a christian only a year and a half.

The Journal's editor was the recipient last week of an official history of the Second Oregon Regiment, compiled by Ad-Gen. C. U. Gantenbein, who was a man or in that organization throughout its service. It is a neat leather bound volume of 700 pages, and contains a fairly accurate record of every man in the regiment, and the work of the regiment as a whole, as well as the official reports of the insurrection and its primary causes. The book is made doubly interesting because of our having been a member of the regiment, and is highly prized by us.

Dr. W. W. Taggart, has a descriptive booklet well in hand and enough support insured to guarantee its publication. It will be devoted to the resources of our county, and will comprise in the neighborhood of 60 pages of illustrated matter. It is a worthy project and should be given hearty support by all interested in the development of our section. Advertising is the only way to get the merits of a country before the eyes of the people whom we want here. People with money and push to develop the resources that are bound to be developed and that will make Crook county one of the most populous counties in the state.

Guy E. Moore, a former well known Prineville boy, won in the oratorical contest at Corvallis last Friday evening, which entitles him to represent his school at the state oratorical contest, and a medal and $15 in cash besides. This comes as good news to his friends here who still cherish an interest in Guy. A letter received this week stated that he was ill on the evening of the contest and had to be carried to the auditorium where he justly won his honor. This is pluck deserving of notice.

Don't forget the Modern Woodman Dance next Friday evening. Music by Sharp's Orchestra and supper at Bonneys. A good time is assured all who attend.

A Serious Fire.

T. F. McCallister, of Haystack, suffered a severe loss a week ago last Saturday, by the burning of his packing house and smoke house. The latter was situated only a few feet from the former and the fire started there, spreading rapidly to the packing house, and it was only a few moments after the discovery of the fire, until both buildings were enveloped in flames. There was a heavy wind at the time, and it seems almost miraculous that Mr. McCallister's home and barn did not go.

The loss is confined to the packing house and smoke house and their contents which included 72 hogs, machinery and furnishings, in all a loss of about $2000, with no insurance. Mr. McCallister rebuilt his smoke house, commencing the next day but is undecided as to a packing house.

MARRIED.

HINTON—HARRIS—In this city, Monday, Feb. 15, Kittle Hinton to Ed Harris, both of Bear creek. The young people are popular young folks in our county, the groom being a prominent stock man, while the bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. Ben Hinton.

The Journal wishes them much happiness.

A Pretty Wedding.

On last Wednesday evening there occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Knighton in this city, a very pretty event when their daughter Zella was married to James Dyer. The wedding was a quiet one, only a few relatives and immediate friends of the family being present. After an interesting ceremony by City Recorder Biggs making the happy couple man and wife, all enjoyed a bountiful supper after which the evening was made lively by congratulations and music. The Social club, of which the young couple are members made its appearance during the evening, and rendered some songs very effectively, and then joined the happy wedding crowd for a time.

The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, among which were the following. Water set from I. Michel, berry set and jolly dish from Warren Brown; set of glass dishes, set of tumblers, set of sauce dishes, syrup pitcher, salt and pepper shaker and vinegar bottle from Roy Gray and Winnie Windom; water pitcher and berry dishes from Mrs. Susie Hodge; silver butter knife and sugar spoon from Orange Hodges; cake stand from Fay Hodges; cake dish from Iva Booth; pair of vases, from Lula Brown and Walter Lithgo; set of table linen from George Hereford; carpet sweeper, rug and set of silver knives and forks, from Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Knighton; fruit stand from Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pierson, also yearling heifer, stand-over and chair-cushion.

The bride is a popular native Prineville girl, and has been active in social circles in our town, while the groom is a young man of sterling worth, well and favorably known in our county. The young people have a host of friends who wish them a life of happiness and success, to which the Journal includes itself.

Elwood Field Fence

The above cut shows our ELWOOD woven wire fence. It is so strong that it stops all large animals and so close at the bottom that the smallest pig cannot get through it.

The largest meshes in the higher sizes are eight inches from center to center, the next size mesh is four inches from center to center, while in the lower part of the fence additional strands are introduced making the smaller meshes just the size of a four inch diamond divided in the middle. We carry this fence in stock in the following sizes: 26 inch, 34 inch and 42 inch, in 10 and 20 rod rolls.

WE FULLY GUARANTEE THIS FENCE

So that you take no chances in buying it. It gives perfect satisfaction every time.
