Prineville Public School Notes

This column is edited by pupils of the upper grades, purpose, the general advancement of all educational interest.

EDITOR: Guy O. Latollett.
ASSISTANT EDITOR: Charles O. Christiani.
REPORTERS: Irene Barnes, Ralph Poindester, Georgia Hodges, Stella Young, Elwood Draper and Lester Colins.

Sichel Hinkle has returned after a week's absence.

Vida Jones was a visitor of Prof. Orton's room last Thursday.

Sammie Newsom returned last Monday.

Ora Prose was absent from the VIII grade last week.

Clyde Rowell was absent on Friday because of his father's illness.

Charlie Summers was absent from Mr. Mosier's room last week on account of sickness.

There was a volunteer program given in Mr. Mosier's room last Friday.

Ruth Taylor was absent from Mr. Mosier's room Wednesday and Thursday.

This weeks work has been of vital importance to those who intend trying for a diploma.

The small boys have organized a base ball team and take every opportunity to practice the game.

Lizzie Ketchum was absent from the IX grade on Thursday and Friday of last week.

The pupils of Mr. Mosier's room came into the principal's room last Thursday to practice songs for the Arbor Day program.

Louise Summers was absent from Miss Smith's room Monday and Tuesday on account of sickness.

Irene Barnes left school feeling quite ill on last Tuesday. We hope her illness will be of short duration.

David Starr Jordan of the Stanford University says: "The boy who smokes cigarettes need not worry about the future. He hasn't any."

Nellie Day and Bert Barnes have returned after a brief absence. Bert was detained by a slight attack of scarlet fever.

Cecil Yancey and Charles Christiani were absent on last Monday. Cecil has returned, while Charles is yet quite ill.

Pictures of Garfield, Lincoln, Jefferson Shakspeare and Whittier have been ordered by room No. 3. They hope that the board will furnish frames.

The X a bright and newsy little paper published by the Grass Valley Academy, has reached our table. The Crook County High school will publish a paper of its own next year.

Those of the seventh grade who drew the best maps of the continents of the world are: Celia Nelms who had Europe for her subject; Anna Salomon—Asia, Verona McGowan—Africa, Berdie Morris—South America, Anna Salomon—Australia.

It seems that Colonel Bryan has finally decided to get out of the way of Populist candidates aspring for the presidency, but will stand near enough the track to interfere with any fellow of the conservative stripe who appears likely to get it.—San Francisco "Call."

Maud Dobbs and Henry Smith have quit the IX grade for this year. We think this quite a mistake unless compulsory, yet if they succeed in passing an examination and return next year they will be welcomed by all. Maud intends teaching a country school, while Henry will perform the duties of book keeper for his father in the big Tumello ditch concern.

Nancy Whitsett and Lester Ferguson have dropped out of Mr. Mosier's room and have gone to the country.

The VIII grade class are busy preparing for the State final examination which when this appears in print will be under full progress. They have become aware of the fact at this late hour that "effort is never lost" and although some have worked faithfully all the year, others we fear will be "weighed in the balance and found wanting." Success with these applicants depends almost wholly upon presence of mind and confidence. Some priviso has been made whereby they may attempt eight of the ten branches leaving two until the next May test. We know just how these pupils feel and wish them unbounded success.

The total enrollment of the IX grade is thirteen, of these ten remain and will, without doubt, finish the work and be promoted at the end of the year. This will make a good X grade for next year. This number may be increased by some others who are eligible but have not been in school during the past year. The VIII grade pupils of the Prineville Public school and others from the country schools should furnish nearly thirty for next year's IX grade. This will be quite a good showing for the second year. If the new High school building could be built during the coming summer, it would go a long way towards building up the High school sentiment in this county. The High school will do much for Crook county. Students can get four years of work at home instead of going to some other part of the state for it. People will move to Prineville to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the High school. Besides the regular four year's course the High school should offer a business course. There are many boys and girls in this county who will never take the High school work, but would be glad to get a business education if they could get it at home. Two teachers for the coming year could do the regular High school course and also the business course.

The school will observe Arbor Day with appropriate exercises. The program will be short as the exercises will be in the open air and all will have to stand. Friends of the school are invited to attend these exercises. The program is as follows:

Song.....School
"Arbor Day Song."
Invocation
Recitation.....Millard Elkins
Recitation.....Leola Estes
Address.....Hon. George Barnes
Recitation.....Birdie Morris
Song.....School
"Arbor Day Ode."

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism, which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy, I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—SALLIE HARRIS, Salem, N. J. For sale by all druggists.

Central Oregon's Great Need.

The extension of transportation facilities to Central Oregon is a topic to which The Journal has frequently referred, and the importance of concerted action in this direction cannot be overrated. The Portland Board of Trade has sent circular letters to the newspaper editors throughout Central Oregon assuring them of this city's hearty co-operation in all efforts to secure adequate railway facilities for that portion of the state, and urging that some organized effort to this end be inaugurated at once.

It seems proper that the initiative should be taken by Central Oregon as it is that portion of the state which is primarily and chiefly interested. Let the people of Central Oregon show themselves alive to their own needs and alert to help themselves, and Portland will do her full share toward achieving the desired results.

Much can be done by the press of the interior of the state and much has already been accomplished by it toward arousing public sentiment.—Portland Journal.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poison set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but" he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 1-2 boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitters has no rival on earth. Try them, Adamson & Winnek Co. will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50c.

The Prize Orator.

pean champions of religious and civil liberty; and today the world is sweetened by the harmonies of Mendelssohn, Rubenstein and Rosenthal. Though true to their adopted land, they ever sob over Jerusalem's desolation and sigh for their Judean hills.

The Jew has learned by hard experience, from Egyptian bondage to Spanish persecution, that if he would prosper he must be true to himself, to his religion and to his God. He knows, too, that Israel still has a mission, and that that mission is a Jewish mission and must be accomplished in a Jewish way. He knows, also, that as long as Israel preserves her national identity, the world will recognize by this living monument that the hand of God is in the affairs of men.

The Jews, therefore, will remain distinct until the sunshine of intelligence dispels the mists of ignorance, and the dark shadows of cruel bigotry flee away. When every land shall know the truth, when every heart shall receive the Prince of Peace, and every knee shall bow to the Jews' Jehovah, then Israel's mission will be fulfilled and her sorrow and bitterness shall be no more.

Pullman Ordinary Sleepers.

The tourist travel between the east and the Pacific coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment. To meet this demand the Pullman Co. has issued from its shops what is technically called the "Pullman Ordinary Sleeper." These cars appear similar to the regular sleepers, being built on the same plan, but not furnished with the same elegance. They are equipped with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, pillow-cases, towels, combs, brushes, etc., requiring nothing of the kind to be furnished by the passenger. Each car has a stove for making coffee and tea and doing "light housekeeping," and each section can be fitted with an adjustable table. A uniformed porter accompanies each car, his business being to make up berths, keep the car clean, and look after the comforts and wants of the passengers. In each of the trains which are dispatched daily from Portland by the O. R. & N. Co. is to be found one of these "Pullman Ordinary Sleepers." The car is attached to the "Chicago-Portland Special," which goes through to Chicago without change, and the one in the "Atlantic Express" runs to Kansas City without change. Passengers in this car for Chicago change to a similar car at Grandeur. Much of the first class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service being nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers. For rates and full information, including orders, write to A. L. Craig, G. P. A., O. R. N. Co. Portland, Ore.

A Cowboy Quadrille.

"Boys, cut and rope your mavericks; Bunch them up for a hot quadrille. Make your manners to your partners—Every Jack salute his Jill. Balance all and hit them heavy; Swing and throw 'em back in place; Promenade on and keep your maverick—Do not lose 'em in the race.

"Gents, 'ashay,' do it pretty Ladies, smile and follow suit; Balance opposite and then whirl 'em; Swing 'em twice and hold 'em to it. Right and left and keep 'em going Till you hit your partner again; Swing them off their underpinning. Make their sassy margins spin.

"Ladies, change and keep 'em going. Back to partners and repeat; Knock the splinters from the lumber—Hit 'em plenty with your feet. Bunch and run away together, Shake the music from your spurs; Pick your sage hen up and whirl her—Hide your shadder longside hers.

"Bunch the heifers in the middle; Circle, stage, and shake your pins. Form a basket round your darlings. Kiss 'em right above their chins. Swing and promenade your critters; Grab 'em tight and off you go. Round again like flaky lightning; Sent your sweet ones and let 'em go."
