Have your photo on one of those superb mounts at Kelley's gallery. There's nothing prettier.

Ladies Dress Goods in all grades and prettiest patterns at J. F. Morris'.

I. Michel has just received a brand new line of shoes for both sexes. Go in and inspect them.

Bruce Gray and Bennie Booth left Monday morning for Puget Sound and Willamette valley points. They will be gone about two or three weeks.

A big line of Ladies and misses shoes just received at Wurzweller and Thompson's. They are up to date.

Francis Sexton, of the firm of Sexton & Walker, of The Dalles, was in our city Monday evening on a timber claim.

W. T. Fogle has been doing the memorial turn at the PoinDEXter Shaving Parlors during the absence of W. S. Hyde.

You will find an A No. 1 line of Men's Furnishing Goods at J. F. Morris'. They are unexcelled in the city, and the prices are right.

D. Bloch, a Portland salesman, arrived Saturday, and will be found in the future at Wurzweller & Thompson's store.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to Smith & Cleck will please call and settle as they need the money.

Lau Hodges and family left Monday for their ranch three miles above the city, where they expect to stay during haying.

If you want to buy a Cruise shoe, wait until you see the line of Wurzweller & Thompson's. Their line is unequalled.

George Schlecht is now the chief on the Deschutes Echo. Mr. Schlecht is a competent newspaper man and the Journal wishes him success in this field.

Drs. Rosenberg, Gesner and Belknap operated last Sunday successfully on Mrs. George Wiley, of Post. The patient is getting along nicely.

A pleasant party in honor of Mr. Sexton, of The Dalles was had at the residence of W. A. Booth Monday evening. A pleasant time was reported by those present.

A Brand New Line of Gents' Hats just received at J. F. Morris'. They are in the latest blocks and are being sold at a small margin of profit.

J. S. McMeen, of Lamonta, was in the city Saturday on business. He reports the crops in his neighborhood good, and that the late crops are the best.

Oscar Hyde has sold his residence in this city to J. R. Henderson, consideration $1200. This is one of the neatest residence properties in the city.

Our fellow townsman, John Geiger, has one of the prettiest gardens in Oregon. In it he has nearly every table vegetable, and their appearance denotes much work and care on the part of Mr. Geiger.

R. M. Powell, of McKay recently completed his handsome residence on the McKay creek road about five miles from town. It will make a nice home for some lady, but as yet Rich has not announced her name.

Notice the ad of Salomon, Johnson & Co. in this issue. They are having a special sale on summer goods including ladies shirt waists, crash skirts, and lines and, and straw hats for all. They are selling 'em at a reduction of 20 per cent.

W. Davis, of Vancouver, who has been in Silver Lake the past month passed through the city Wednesday enroute to The Dalles.

The number of irrigation ditches and canals in operation in the United States exceeds 20,000, and their combined length is not less than 50,000 miles.

The county court made an order at their last session, to the effect that all heavy bills against the county must have them in by 5 p. m. on the day preceding their regular day of convening. This rule will be strictly adhered to.

Some talk is being indulged in for a baseball tournament to be held in this city the latter part of September. Such a meeting would be a good drawing card and would also give the lovers of baseball a chance to see some good games.

The special sale of Wurzweller & Thompson's, in which they are disposing of their entire line of summer goods at a big reduction is being well attended. Don't be the last, but come early and get your pick.

The new building being erected by A. Lippman & Co. is rapidly nearing completion. This enterprising firm find their present quarters too small to accommodate their increasing business, and the new building will enable them to make a better display of their large stock.

Roseco Knox, a prominent stockman of Post, was transacting business in Prineville last week. Mr. Knox says that the ranchers in that section will cut a good crop of hay, especially alfalfa which is unusually good this year.

The baby of Elmer Clark, of Paulina, reported dead in our last issue is still alive and is now well. It was thought to be dead, however, as the time of the report, as it had a sinking spell, and remained unconscious an hour and 15 minutes.

Wm. Skelton, of Portland, the father of Mrs. A. J. Noble, of Paulina, died in Salem, on July 28th. He was aged 82 years, 5 months and 4 days, and had been ill for some time. His only other child was R. J. Skelton, of Foster, Oregon.

Diek Mulholland, of Crook, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Mulholland brought down the charter and books of the M. W. A. lodge of that place and turned them over to the lodge of this city. He reports the farmers in that section to be busy preparing for haying.

A South Dakota editor says he has two subscribers who frequently get full and every time they are in that condition they come in and pay a year in advance on subscription. One of them is already credited to 1941, and the newspaper fraternity throughout the United States is envious to find out what brand of whiskey he drinks.

About 30 head of "Hunch Grass" horses were sold on Tuesday afternoon on the vacant lot, on Water street, belonging to Potter & Milster. The horses belonged to Messrs. Campion & Garland, and was auctioned off by H. Town, bringing from $10.00 to $51.00 per head.—Silverton Silvertonian.

Dr. W. S. Holt, of Portland will preach at the Union Church Friday at 8 p. m. Rev. Holt is the synodical missionary of the Presbyterian church for the state of Oregon. He is an able speaker and all should avail themselves of this opportunity to hear him.

Fred W. Wilson, who was orator of the day at Prineville on the 4th, returned home yesterday. He says the celebration was well attended, and was pleasant throughout. The exercises were good and the hospitable people of Prineville entertained royally.—Times Mountaineer.

Mae Looney, who left this county three years ago for the benefit of his health, has returned to Mitchell. Part of the time he was at Hot Springs, Arkansas, and the remainder at his former home in Hawkins county, Tenn. His health is considerably improved. He was in Fossil during the week with his brother Eugene.—Fossil Journal.

Fred McCallister, owner of the Cove fruit farm, which is situated below town on Crooked river, was in the city Saturday with a load of fruit. He certainly misses varieties that will compare with any under the sun, and the Royal Ann cherries he had with him on his last visit, made the much lauded Hood River cherries look like thirty cents, both for size and quality.

The subscription list of the Presbyterian building fund is now in the hands of the trustees for collection. Subscriber will confer a favor by calling at the First National Bank and paying amounts subscribed on or before August 1st.

The Crook county jail hasn't had an occupant since C. Sam Smith assumed the sheriff's duties a little over a year ago. This isn't due to Mr. Smith's negligence, nor that of his deputy, Mr. Claypool, but is due to the fact that Crook county's population is composed of law abiding citizens.

Several ladies of this city took advantage of the opportunity to buy home made lace from a band of Gypsies which passed through here last week. The lace sold was purchased from the store at ten cents a yard and sold for 25 cents, netting them a profit of 15 cents.

The petition which is being circulated for a daily stage line between this place and Silver Lake is being generally signed. A daily service between here and Silver Lake is much needed and it is to be hoped that it can be effected.

O. M. Riser, formerly a merchant of our city, but now a traveling salesman of Portland, arrived Saturday and spent several days with us shaking the hands of old acquaintances, and making new ones. He left Wednesday for Mitchell. Mrs. Riser, who arrived last Wednesday, will visit her sister, Mrs. I. Michel, and her family for a month or so before returning to Portland.

A trip up the McKay 10 or 12 miles takes one through some of Crook county's most fertile lands, where beautiful homes have been built and productive farms developed. The McKay creek valley is of the same character as the Ochoco, and is somewhat smaller in extent. A trip taken last Sunday through this section for a distance of 12 miles shows the crops to be good, with alfalfa and rye haying well under way, and the country in general to be wearing the same prosperous air, characteristic of a Crook county farming section.

Dr. J. H. Rosenberg returned Thursday from Beaver Creek, where he had been in attendance on Freddie, the 8-year old son of A. J. Noble. The little fellow has a serious case of double pneumonia, but the doctor reports him improving. He also reports the farmers along his route of travel to be busy putting up hay.

The demurrer of J. M. Lawrence was sustained in the county court last Thursday by his honor Judge Biggs. In his demurrer Mr. Lawrence alleges that there was no grounds for the suit brought by D. F. Steffa, the other claimant of school clerkship honors. Mr. Lawrence has the school clerk's books, and it was their possession that suit was brought against him.

Thron Thronson and his son Thron Jr., were in town last Wednesday, on their way to Ashwood from Dayton, Washington. Mr. Thronson returned several weeks ago from an extensive trip in the East, where he went in the interest of his Mayflower mining property on Ochoco. He is making arrangements now to begin operations at this property within the next month or so.—Antelope Herald.

Wool is sixteen cents. A sale of 90,000 pounds was made Monday by a local dealer to a buyer from abroad. But a small portion of the crop remains in the growers' hands. Most of it went at seventeen to seventeen and a half cents, though several growers held until sixteen and a half was the best obtainable price.—Corvallis Times.

J. W. Boone and wife, W. S. Hyde and Mrs. E. O. Hyde returned Tuesday from a trip to the Deschutes timber belt, where they had been to look over their timber claims before making final proof. They were well pleased with the timber and report a good time. Jake and Walt were the proud possessors of quite a crop of whiskers and a beautiful nut brown complexion.

A small sheepman southeast of Gillette, Wyo., was visited by a band of masked cattlemen a few days ago. Dynamite was placed under his humble sodhouse, windrill and watering tanks and all blown to atoms. He was bound to a post while the work of destruction was going on, and when the mob left him, they admonished him to leave the country and make no attempt to rebuild.

Thos. M. Spencer, representing the cigar and tobacco firm of Boltz, Clymer & Co., was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Spencer has taken an active part in trying to have Congress vote a medal to Matlock and Kelley, the heroes of Heppner. He has composed a poem on their ride, which is a very creditable piece. We publish it in another column of this paper.

Rev. E. L. Alter administered the rites of baptism to Miss Winnie Cline Wednesday afternoon.

The Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft are preparing for a gala time at Portland next week.

News comes from abroad that Dr. Lunden claims to have experimentally proved that rays reflected from radium enable the blind to see partially.

The Portland base ball team of the Pacific coast league after suffering all kinds of hard luck have taken a winning streak and won four games out of six with the leaders.

J. L. Windom, of Culver, was transacting business in the city Wednesday. Mr. Windom reports that the grain crops in that section will be very light this year on account of weeds and a late season. Not more than a half crop will be harvested.

Haying has commenced and from all reports there will be as much hay put up this year as usual, notwithstanding the reports earlier in the season that the grain and hay crop would be short. At the Zell ranch above town Milt Zell and Jim Cran are rushing the work of putting up their hay and will put up about 500 tons this season.

Si Hodges brought in a good sample of bromus grass from the Mark Powell ranch on McKay creek last week, which is the best we have seen. This grass was grown without irrigation and is claimed to make as good hay as alfalfa and judging from the its appearance it is superior. As soon as the farmers in the county realize the value of it as hay and commence to grow it extensively there will be no such thing as a shortage in the hay crop. This sample is on exhibition at this office and those who are interested in such things should call and examine it.

A Hospital For Prineville.

Dr. J. H. Rosenberg contemplates the erection, in the near future, of an up-to-date hospital in our city. Such an institution would fill a long felt want for Interior Oregon, as not only our section, but all Eastern Oregon is now compelled to go either to Portland or The Dalles for hospital treatment. Our climate is healthier than that of either of those places and with a modern equipped hospital in our city, in charge of skilled doctors, the people of interior Oregon would not only be saved the long and tedious trip to an outside point, doubly long to an invalid, but they would also have the privilege of being treated near home.

KELLEY AND MATLOCK'S RIDE FOR LEXINGTON.

When History writes of Heppner town, Of the terrible flood that swept it down, Fame shall stand by and with glided pen, Write the names of these two men. Two that rode forth ahead of the wave, Two that rode forth others to save, Two that rode forth who lost their all, Two that rode forth at duty's call. Fighting their way through storm and night, While torrents rolled to left, to right, For the spotter Death on his white horse rode, Then a race for life, on the Willow Creek road. On like the steam cloud, the riders came, Urging their horses again and again, Above the tempest their words rang clear, "Fly for your lives, The cloud burst's here!" How many mothers with glistening eyes, Now gaze on their babes, for that timely cry; How many husbands have clasped their wives, And blessed those men, who saved their lives? Two that rode forth ahead of the wave Two that rode forth others to save, Two that rode forth who lost their all, Two that rode forth at duty's call. Their are hosts of others in Heppner town, If truth were known, who deserve renown, But 'till now be handed down from Father to Son, How Kelly and Matlock rode from Lexington. THOS. MURRAY SPENCER, Portland, Oregon. June 2 2, 1933

Harry Broker, of Deschutes, spent a few days in the city the first of the week. While here Mr. Broker, secured several musical instruments for the band boys of his city, who lately organized an association at that place.

Deputy Sheriff, Fred Claypool, made a trip to McKay the first of the week and brought in Charley Slavin, who was charged with horses stealing. Mr. Slavin was released on furnishing $500 bonds.
