C. T. Lillard was a business visitor from Paulina the first of the week. Mr. Lillard says hay in the Paulina district is scarce and but very little on the market for sale. That which has been disposed of recently has been sold for $10. Most of the cattlemen in the section are holding their own crops to feed during the winter.

The JOURNAL is increasing its subscription list at the rate of from one to three subscribers a day. These are coming in practically unsolicited and show beyond a doubt, that the people appreciate a live and fearless home paper which studiously avoids political intrigues of any kind and devotes its energies toward giving all the local news all the time.

Judge Brink this week filed the first application ever made in the county for the registration of land title. The application requires a new set of books and is a new and distinct feature of court work which heretofore has not been seen in Crook county. The circuit court is always open for this kind of the history of the county that an application has been filed.

J. F. Booge, of Sioux City, Iowa, who has been in town for the past week, left Monday with several other eastern men for Paulina. Mr. Booge has been in the real estate business in Iowa for a number of years but thinks Oregon is a better field for his business. He is going to look over several ranches in the Paulina district and will probably locate in Prineville this fall. At present his headquarters are at Deschutes.

The School Bulletin, a monthly school paper devoted to the educational interests of this county, will make its initial appearance on the JOURNAL press Saturday. The Bulletin is to be edited and managed by County Superintendent Beugh and is the first of its kind to appear in this portion of Oregon. The paper will consist of eight pages, four columns wide, and will have various departments conducted by the teachers and scholars.

The two Bend papers are quarrelling over the question whether their town is dead. The Echo advocates a funeral while the Bulletin maintains that life is not yet extinct. There isn't much likelihood of such a controversy in Prineville. The many loaded wagons and freight teams passing in and out of the city are proof positive that Prineville is not only very much alive but kicking right toward the front. There isn't an empty house in town, and business generally is more than normal.

Dr. J. H. Rosenberg has recently purchased a vehicle that is quite a curiosity, but still more of a convenience. In a country of cold winters and long drives, a doctor's life is materially shortened by the exposure. The vehicle mentioned does away with many of the hardships. It consists of an air-tight cab, about half heavy bevel plate glass, through which the team is directed. The cab is mounted on light running gear, and it all makes a convenient vehicle, when a driver can, by aid of an alcohol stove be so comfortable on the coldest drive as he would be in his own home.

About fifty holders of timber claims in Crook and Klamath counties, residing in Albany met last night in the hall of the Lion Engine Co. No. 2. An agreement was made to work together and not sell except in a pool. The general sentiment is that $2000 is low enough for the claims. At present only $1,000 is being offered, and this will not be looked at. Timber market prospects are bound to improve.

Besides those present about fifty others have signed an agreement to pool their claims with them, making over one hundred in all who will stand together for the mutual interests.—Albany Democrat

The Prineville Amateur Athletic Association held its regular meeting last Saturday evening. Owing to the short time the various committees had been at work but little business was reported. The organization expects to get the second story of the building occupied by the planing mill for its gymnasium and baths, and will complete arrangements for renting the place as soon as some of the stock holders, who are away on business, return to the city. About thirty-five names are on the charter membership list and it is expected that this number will be doubled by the end of the week. The young men around town are taking considerable interest in the association and everything points toward success in the undertaking.

More Sheep Shot.

A sheep shooting scrape was reported last week to have occurred on Wall creek on the 14th inst. Caring to the source of the report, we did not print in our last week's issue, but we learn authoritatively that the Col. Nye band of sheep was fired upon at that time by unknown parties, inflicting a loss of about 300 in killed and wounded.

Will Buy Cattle.

J. B. Cornett, of Summit Prairie, is in the city with his wife, and will leave within the next ten days for outside points in the county, where he intends purchasing about 300 head of two and three year old beef cattle.

We learn from Mr. Cornett that he intends paying $27 for two year olds and $34 for three year olds. As soon as he has his card made up he will drive them to Shaniko for shipment.

Silver Lake Wool Shipment.

Three teaming outfits passed through the city Wednesday enroute to Shaniko from Silver Lake loaded with wool from F. M. Christman consigned to the Shaniko warehouse company. The amount handled by these outfits is 40,000 pounds, and we learn from the teamsters that Mr. Christman still has about 10,000 pounds which will be hauled to Shaniko as soon as possible. These shipments are late, and will not be sold as advantageously as they would have had they been in time to be at the wool sales.

W. E. Hambrook Killed.

W. E. Hambrook, who was employed by the C. I. Winick Drug Company of our city last spring was killed in Portland last Monday by being run over by a train. It seems that Hambrook, who was under arrest at the time has had a wild career.

After leaving here early last summer, he obtained employment with Woodward, Clark & Co., of Portland and later changed his occupation to traveling for a novelty concern. It was while he was in Washington traveling in the interests of the latter company that Woodward, Clark & Co. missed a quantity of valuable drugs, which they traced to Hambrook. After making the trip under arrest and while entering the Portland yards, he jumped from the car window and fell back under the cars being killed instantly.

Basket-Shadow Social a Success.

The young ladies of the Baptist church held a shadow and basket social at the Union church last Friday evening to raise funds to buy furniture for the Baptist parsonage. It was the original intention of the young ladies to apply the proceeds of the social, which amounted to $24, to the purchase of horns for a young ladies concert band, but some of the members got short of breath so the idea was abandoned.

At the social Friday evening the shadows were purchased for various prices, the highest one being sold for $3.00. Some lively bidding, which furnished no little amusement, was the result of the pantomime auction sale.

After the shadows had all been knocked down to the highest bidders, an entertainment and musical program was carried out. The baskets were then opened and the contents placed in safe keeping.

Timber Claims Pooled.

Albany, Oregon, September 21, 1903. Editor Crook County Journal, Dear Sir:

It may be of interest to your readers to know that a large timber pool is being organized at Albany, composed of the owners of yellow pine timber lying along Deschutes south of Bend.

Efforts are being made by dealers to buy up these claims at the ridiculously low price of $800 or $1000, but our people will never sell out at any such figures. In fact they are assured that by pooling a large number of these claims they will have no trouble at all in securing twice the amounts now offered.

Over one hundred persons have already signed the contract or have signified their intention of doing so and the permanent organization will be effected next Monday evening, Sept. 28th.

The more claims we can throw together the quicker the whole tract can be sold, and the higher will be the price realized, and if any of your readers have claims in that locality, it would be well to correspond with the officers of the pool.

DR. N. E. WINNA, D. D., President.

So successful has been Georgia Harper as Camille, both from an artistic and financial standpoint, that a Pacific Coast critic has said: "Georgia Harper will become identified as Camille as was Clara Morris, Joseph Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle, and Booth as Hamlet."

Wheat Coming to Town.

Wheat is being received daily by the Prineville Flouring mills, sufficient to enable the mill to run steadily. Most of the grain is coming from the Haystack country and its quality is good.

The price paid by the Flouring Mills is 85 cents per bushel delivered.

Notice to Tax Payers.

The following is an extract from the section in the code providing for the time for the payment of taxes: Taxes legally levied and charged in any year may be paid on or before the first Monday in April following, and if not so paid they shall become delinquent. Provided however, that if one-half of the taxes against any particular parcel of real property, or taxes on any personal property charged against any individual, be paid on or before the first Monday in April, then the time for the payment of the remainder of such tax may be extended to and including the first Monday of October next following, but if the remaining one-half of such tax be not paid on or before the first Monday of October, then such remaining half shall be delinquent, and, besides the penalty, interest thereon shall be charged and collected at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the first Monday of April preceding; and upon all delinquent taxes there shall be collected from the taxpayer of such taxes, for the benefit of the county, ten per centum as a penalty, and for the benefit of the county or other corporation which shall have an interest in any portion of such taxes, interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum on such taxes from the day on which they become delinquent until their payment.

The sheriff's office is busy mailing statements to all who still owe half payments and to all delinquents. Sheriff Smith says that all taxes remaining unpaid after the first Monday of October will be collected immediately by levy and sale.

DIED.

The little girl was injured 33 days ago by a kick in the forehead from a horse, and during that time never regained consciousness. The injury to the brain was such that made recovery impossible. The funeral was conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the M. E. Church by Rev. H. C. Clark.

Don't forget that D. P. Adamson carries a complete line of school text books, and school supplies at reasonable prices.
