Georgia Harper, the talented actress, says: "The photos which Mr. Kelley made for me are simply perfect and could not be improved in one detail."

Mrs. M. Wiegand the photographer is busy now days turning out work for her many customers. She solicits new trade however and guarantees not a fault.

After seeing Georgia Harper's photos, every member of her company had sittings at Kelley's studio—a compliment not only to Mr. Kelley but to Prineville.

J. F. Morris, the merchant, has a $2000 line of men's and boys furnishings, which he will close out below cost. You can find some genuine bargains at his store.

John Newson and Clarence Sharp of Prineville were in camp the latter part of the week. They were doing staving work at the Red Jacket mine—Ashwood Prospector.

A. Hackleman was in the city Friday from his Camp creek ranch on his way to Albany to spend the winter. He stopped in the city long enough to attend the races the last of the week. Dr. Taggart, the oculist, is still at his old stand, the Poindexter Hotel. Don't go to the spectacle peddlers for your glasses but go to Dr. Taggart who guarantees his work to be the best.

J. A. Rayl was in the city Wednesday from his Crooked river ranch making an effort to buy forty or fifty head of cattle.

C. M. Willey returned to the city the first of the week from a business trip to the Ashwood mines. He left Wednesday for his ranch near Lava.

A party composed of James Cram, W. F. King, Will Combs and John Millinson made a trip the first of the week to the Lookout mountain mines.

Charlie Swalley will leave Saturday for his desert claim ranch near Pickett island where he intends to spend several weeks adding improvements to his place.

Nick South was in from Deschutes this week on business. He left on Wednesday's stage for Portland to be gone for ten days attending to his timber business.

Jan, Gullford, a former Crookite, but now of Pendleton, is in the city in the interests of a patent fire extinguisher. Tuesday afternoon he gave a public exhibition of the apparatus.

George Hobbs a Paulina sheepman passed through the city Wednesday on his way to the Allen & Lafollett ranch on McKay creek, where he purchased a number of their fall blood Rambouillet rams.

Mrs. Wiegand, the first class photographer, left Tuesday for Portland to purchase a new and up to date supply of photographic material for her gallery. She will be back and ready for work the 14th of this month.

J. H. Smith was in the city Tuesday from his ranch near Silver Lake. He left Wednesday for that place and will return inside of the next ten days with his family to take charge of the Miner Lewis ranch about three miles above town on the Ochoco.

Charlie Whitsett left Saturday for his ranch about 30 miles north of the city. On his way home Sunday he punctured his tire when 25 miles from town. He walked home for the lack of "hot air," but was not the least bit cold when he arrived in the city late that night.

The fire department was called out at midnight Tuesday to extinguish a blaze which had started in a pile of cordwood in the rear of W. H. Porter's residence in North Prineville. A bucket of coals had been thrown out early in the evening and the strong wind which was blowing fanned them into flames. The fire had made considerable headway before discovered, and several cords of wood were destroyed.

J. B. Lafollett and wife of Prineville, who have been in Lakeside for several weeks past, returned to their home last Thursday. Mr. Lafollett disposed of nearly all of the 3000 Rambouillet and Delaine bucks that he brought down from the Allen & Lafollett stock ranch in Crook county. These bucks are well bred and command a good price, and no trouble is experienced in selling them to sheep men who want good stock.—Lakeside Examiner.

I will buy about 40 or 50 head of cows and calves if they can be had cheap.
J. H. RAYL, Prineville, Oregon.

Jeckey Race Meet is Over
The Jeckey Club finished with its races last Saturday afternoon. The meet has been a successful one from all stand points, well attended, and the races have been of the best order. Thursday's events opened with a novelty race in which five horses took part: Allen's Little Kate; Armstrong's Brownie; Allington's Dan; Charles Lister's Sad Sam and Gray's Skipper. The distance was one mile and a half—half mile walk, half mile trot and the wind up on the run. The race afforded considerable amusement and was won by Little Kate, the Brownie finishing second. The quarter mile dash was won by H. Hodges' Sam in 26, Joslin's Larry, second. In the three-quarter mile dash in which Montoya, Black Dugan, and Tempest were entered, Black Dugan and Tempest finished in a dead heat with Montoya four lengths behind although the beating was heavy in favor of the latter horse. The tie was run off between the two horses with Black Dugan winning by a scratch, Time 1:25. Six Indians opened the races Friday in a half mile dash, which was followed by a trotting heat and won by John Schuizer's horse. Then came another Indian race of a mile and a half which shined up some spirited racing on the part of the copper skins. Everyone was interested in the last two heats of the afternoon which were won by Beaver Tom in close finishes. Three horses started, Montoya, Black Dugan and Beaver Tom, but the former was distanced in the first heat and was barred from the second. The best time for the half mile was :53. Saturday's events opened with a 2 1/2 mile Indian race in which six horses were entered. Only three finished, however, the balance dropping out on the fourth and fifth laps. The second race was a 3/4 mile dash in which Tempest, Black Dugan and Montoya ran. The race was a special one and the judges ordered the riders just before the start. Black Dugan won by a length, Tempest finishing second.

Presbyterians Hold Annual Meeting and Elect Officers.
The third annual meeting of the Presbyterian church was held last Thursday afternoon, Oct. 23, at the Union church. A fair attendance of the members of the church was present, and a good interest was manifested. The business of the annual meeting consists in hearing the reports from the different departments of the church which includes those organized efforts that make up the active life of the organization, namely, the session, the board of trustees, the Sunday school, the Ladies Aid society, and the helping hands. The reports showed of good work and the departments of the church's organic life is a healthy condition. Besides the review of the year, the following officers of the church were elected: Elders, D. E. Templeton, J. H. Crooks; trustees, M. H. Bell, T. M. Baldwin, C. W. Foster, and to relieve the treasurer of the board of trustees because of the new church project which confronts the board, Mrs. Kate Liggitt was elected church treasurer. This is irregular and is simply a matter of division of labor. All subscriptions for the running expenses of the church and the pastor's salary are to be paid to Mrs. Liggitt who will receipt the same.

Winter Items.
Cloudy weather, wind and sand showers in the weather record for the past few days. Did you see the Pumpkin Rollers play ball? O. G. Collier started to Portland on Sunday of this week to meet his wife who has been on an extended visit in California. Oren Belknap has gone to Chinook, Wash., where he has a suit pending in the circuit court. Miss Annie Belknap has been quite sick for the past two weeks. Miss Mary Herney arrived home from eastern points a few days ago. The people say the Ravens are the champion ball players of Crook county. X
