

LOCAL MENTION

J. R. Benham was a business visitor from the west from Bend.

C. L. Roberts came down from Mary's this week to attend to business matters for a few days.

Mrs. George Robinson was in the city from Culver for a few days this week visiting with friends.

J. T. Robinson was a business visitor from Culver during the first of the week.

E. E. Hollis was in the city from Crook Monday attending to business matters.

Jan. Ragan was a business visitor from Lamona during the first of the week.

Hon. J. S. Burgess came up with the Antelope team Friday to enhance a little ginger into his home club.

Thom Thromson came down from the mines at Howard the first of the week to look after business matters for a few days.

E. E. Laughlin, of Paulina, has been in Wheeler county during the past two weeks buying sheep for his ranch in this county.

P. B. Davis returned to the city the last of the week from The Dalles where he has been spending the past five weeks.

James Keenan, of the firm of Morrow & Keenan, was in the city the last of the week transacting business matters.

E. W. Nelson and wife of Post, Ore., returned to their home this week after a short visit with relatives here and securing some fruit for winter.—Mitchell News.

Grant Mays came in from Antelope Sunday in time to take in the ball game. He left the first of the week for his stock ranch in the eastern part of the county.

Good dressing rains throughout the county during the past week have started the grass to growing again and indications point toward another fall with range conditions in the best of shape.

W. E. Guerin, Jr., of the Deschutes Irrigation and Power company, passed through the city Friday on his way home from a business trip to Portland. W. G. Johnston and F. C. Rowley went out the same day.

J. L. Dunlap arrived in the city from Portland the last of the week and has begun the expediting of the county records. He is to be assisted by D. F. Dryden who came here with Mr. Dunlap from Portland.

Mrs. O. Montgomery, a sister of G. C. Blakeley, with Mr. Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bond, the latter a niece of G. C. Blakeley, are in the city from the Haystack country in Crook county, taking in the air.—Dillon Chronicle.

L. B. Lafollett and wife returned last week from the Lakeview district after an absence of several weeks. Mr. Lafollett has been looking after the sheep interests of Lafollett & Collins there and expects to make some heavy sales in that market before spring.

Elder C. A. Sims will meet his regular appointment at the Union church October 16. This will close his present engagement with the Christian church of this city. He extends a cordial invitation to all to attend these services.

B. C. Low and Frank Glass were over from Bend the first of the week looking after business interests. Mr. Glass stated that arrangements had been made by the Deschutes Reclamation company to finish the canal work during the coming fall and spring. The company, which is composed of private land owners, has about one and a half miles of ditch to complete before their construction work is brought to a close.

An automobile made its appearance for the first time in the streets of Prineville last week. The machine was the property of the Deschutes Irrigation and Power company and had been driven in from Shanika by P. C. Rowley and W. O. Johnson, who took it out to Bend Friday. The "red devil" is a seven horse power Cadillac and doesn't lose much time in getting over the ground.

Ira Conitt, who broke jail at Sodaville last summer and was later arrested on the Logan ranch in this county only to escape from the sheriff of Linn county at Ashwood and later be taken again into custody, made good his escape from the Albany jail for the second time last week. He sawed off two bars from his cell window and crawled through the aperture sometime during the night. He had about $30 on his person at the time and it is believed took the train for Washington. Officers are now searching for him.

The re-districting of the road and voting precincts of the county is a job which will be undertaken during the next session of the county court. Many inquiries have come to Judge Bell of late asking in regard to the time when the court would re-district the county and he is desirous of obtaining as many suggestions as possible from people interested, believing that if they do not hesitate in making their wants known the work of the court will be made easier and much more satisfactory.

Editor Gage of the Lane County Leader, recently wrote: "Wednesday, a swarm of bees lit upon a limb of a tree in front of Mrs. Brown's and presented a very interesting appearance." But the printer, who was in a hurry to attend a ball game, set it up: "Wednesday a swarm of bees lit upon a limb of a tree in front of Mrs. Brown's and presented a very interesting appearance." The next day something madder than a swarm of bees lit upon Brother Gage. It was Mrs. Brown. Confirmation delayed in transit.

Renewed interest in the Malheur oil district, near Baker, has been caused by the bonding of a considerable tract of land. Recently one of Idaho's prominent oil operators, G. Blood secured bonds on a large tract of land near Ontario, and has just taken another bond on 1,200 acres in the same field. He states that boring is to commence on this land within 30 days. Three years ago there was considerable excitement over oil lands of Malheur, and two companies did some work. One headed by the Hirscheles of Portland put a well down several hundred feet, but gave up the week later. The plans of Mr. Blood revive interest, especially as he intends to bore further to the south, where indications are said to be better.—Journal.

A. E. Hammond and D. P. Bas were in the city the last of the week completing their work of getting right of way into Prineville for the automobile line. Mr. Hammond stated that they were experiencing but little difficulty in securing permission to build the road in the line desired, although some few of the ranchers along the route would rather that the line run over other property than their's. The auto road has now been graded as far as Forest's ranch on Crooked river and next week work will begin on the desert across the river on the last half of the stretch to Bend. As soon as enough rain has fallen to thoroughly wet the soil a six ton roller will be put on the road to pack it down and the sandy patches will be treated with a sufficient quantity of petroleum to insure a solid bed. Indications point to the route being completed and ready for the machine early next month.

The Inside Inn.

At the World's Fair, St. Louis, the hotel within the grounds is called the Inside Inn. A visitor the other day thoughtfully walked up to the desk and asked: "Is this the Inside Inn?" And if so is the proprietor of the "Inside Inn?"

"Yes," replied the smart clerk, with a far away look in his eyes. "This is the Inside Inn, and you will find the proprietor outside by the Inn's side. He has been keeping the Inn for several weeks. He tells me that once when he took an ocean voyage he couldn't keep his inside in, but that was inside information, and he didn't intend to get it outside."

"Alright," said the guest. "If this is the Inside Inn, we want to see its inside as well as its outside before we look inside any of the outside Inns. If we like the Inside Inn's inside and outside better than we like the outside Inn's outside and inside, we may bring our things from outside inside and stop inside the Inside Inn, because we won't have to go from the inside outside or come back from the outside inside when we're seeing the Fair, but can remain inside or outside the Inside Inn, it being the only Inn inside the grounds. The other Inns are on the outside and furnish no more comforts for the guests inside or outside than does the Inside Inn with the exhibits close outside the Inn's side,—that is the Inside Inn's side. In

But the clerk had fainted and fallen inside the Inside Inn's desk, and bell boys were hurrying with water for his outside and brandy for his inside, but in their excitement they got that which was meant for his inside outside and that which was for his outside inside.—Ex.

Prineville Wins Again.

Not even the stimulating influence of a chorus of feminine voices could save Antelope last week from meeting defeat for the second time at the hands of the Prineville ball team. Two games were played. The first was evenly matched and stubbornly contested up to the seventh inning when Jupiter Pluvius with his tenfold face demanded a discontinuance at the time when the score was 4 to 1. But the gentle little rain drops were all that saved the Antelope ball tossers from a drubbing in the first game. Up to the sixth inning in Sunday's game the score stood the same as in Saturday's contest, neither team having the advantage. Then Antelope got one runner across home plate and in the eighth the local team broke loose from all forms of baseball etiquette scoring seven runs in that inning and eight in the next.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

Prineville led off at the bat, but Van Houten's military curves kept the locals guessing until the third when Jordan scored the first run after two men were out. In the last half of the fourth Ball crossed the plate for the Buckskins and the fight was on. After a recess of 20 minutes to enable the rain to settle the dust, the game was again called and Prineville secured two runs and three were brought in for Antelope. Then another recess was taken while the rain had an inning, after which both teams were treated to a little whitewash in the sixth. In the seventh inning the umpires called the game for the third time after Jordan had tied the score and Van Houten was disabled in a play at third. The Antelopers were blanked in the first half and Smith struck out when the locals came up. Then Jordan deciphered a choice academy in shoot and landed on second before the ball could be fielded. From second he stole third while Van Houten with Brog's assistance tried to nail the first little base runner before he had covered the bag. In the general tussle up of hands and feet which resulted from a collision at the third square, Van Houten injured his knee while Jordan slid out of the mess and scored the tying run.

The score by innings was as follows:

Prineville	12345678
Antelope	00100214

Batteries—Bailey and Scott, Larsen and Barber; Van Houten and Knapp. Struck out—Bailey 5; by Larsen 4; by Van Houten 8. Umpires—Clother and Steffen.

SUNDAY'S GAME.

If Van Houten's long, angular right wing had held out on him Sunday, it is just probable that another story would be told concerning that contest instead of the one which must be chalked up against the ball tossers from Wasco county. Anyway, up to the eighth inning it was one of the prettiest games which had been played on the local diamond in a good many years. Van Houten had just a margin in the best of it until the close of the seventh and then his successors were treated to a most beautiful baptism of fire and cross fires. From a score of 5 to 5 the last two innings kept the score keepers diligently at work until they had chalked down 19 for the locals and 8 for the neighbors. No runs came for either team until the third and then two more were allowed each side before the unfortunate eighth. The game until then was marked by good fielding and quick, snappy plays. Silvertooth, on third, was the only Antelope who failed to give Van Houten the support he deserved and some costly errors were scored against him. Otherwise, both teams played glib, edged ball for the first seven innings. Knapp is by far the best catcher who has ever played on the local diamond and his work in both games would have been a credit to any aggregation of speedier players. The slaughter in the seventh and eighth is told better in the following score:

Prineville	12345678
Antelope	002101978-19

Batteries—Larsen and Barber; Bailey and Scott; Van Houten, Emmitt, Brog and Knapp. Struck out—by Larsen 4; by Bailey 4; by Van Houten 5. Umpires—Clother and Steffen.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. ## Stock Movements.

Delivery was made in Fossil Wednesday of a large bunch of steers to Harry Rogers, of Echu, who bought 200 head of three and four-year-old steers from the Butte Creek Land, Live Stock and Lumber company. Fifteen head from W. W. Hoover, and a small bunch from Mungler Bros., all at $28 per head. Mr. Rogers started for Heppner with cattle on Thursday.—Fossil Journal.

L. M. Mills, a stockman of the Suplee country, was in this city last Saturday. The Stanfield brothers are buying a large band of cattle in that locality, he says, and it is expected that they will drive out a band of 1000 to 1200 head.—Canyon City Eagle.

W. H. Duke bought J. C. Dodson's best cattle for the Edison Bros., of Gassle, last Saturday. We are informed the price paid was six cents for steers and $24 per head for cows, the cattle to be delivered at Gassle.—Lakeview Herald.

Within the next few days, it is estimated that in the neighborhood of 2000 head of beef cattle will be started on their way from Northern Lake and Klamath county to the California markets. The cattle in this part of the state are usually found to be in good condition, and free from any contagious disease. The parties who started their cattle to market this week from this section are J. C. Porter, Martin & Schroeder, Egl & Gowdy, J. W. Howard, J. R. Horning, Harris & Bradley, W. C. Bulek, Jack Partin, Harris Bros., Brattain Bros., Tom Jackson, Porter Bros., Chester Avery, W. B. Barnes and Geo. Ranney. We have been informed that the Chewaucan Land and Cattle Co. will start about 1000 head of beef to the railroad next week.—Silver Lake Oregonian.

Jury List Is Drawn.

MARRIED.

At Post, Wednesday, October 5, Miss Bessie Anderson to Mr. Alex Hinton, the ceremony being performed by the Justice of the Peace Wallace Post.

The wedding, which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rannels, was a quiet one only the relatives and a few friends being present. The young couple is well and favorably known throughout the county and a host of friends join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life.

Obituary.

J. H. Barnett was born in Shelby county, Ohio, Feb. 4, 1831. He died at his home near Haystack, September 21, 1904. Mr. Barnett came to Oregon in 1851, settling in the Willamette Valley, thence he moved to Crook county in 1882. He was converted to Christ, and became a member of His church over fifty years ago, and had lived an exemplary Christian life. The immediate cause of his death was an acute attack of erysipelas. The funeral took place from the residence September 21. Rev. C. A. Sims, pastor of the Christian church of this city, performing the ceremony.
