D. P. ADAMSON & CO.

Rev. J. A. Mitchell announces his next lecture for Friday evening, March 17, at the Union church. He has not yet decided upon his subject, but will give announcement of it later.

Postmaster Staats has resigned his office at Deschutes and it is probable that the office will be discontinued. The Bend office, it is found, is supplying mail for nearly all the residents in that vicinity.

The old reliable Peter Schuttler Wagons can be found at J. F. Morris's. Light build, durability and easy running qualities have sold a great number of these wagons and will sell more.

Two nuggets of gold were displayed in Paisley Monday, the results of one of the Paisley mines. It was the pure quill, about $6 in one piece and $4 in the other. These are the indications that tell tales of unknown riches—Silver Lake Oregon.

We pay the highest cash prices for all kinds of Produce, Poultry, and Fresh Eggs. A big supply always kept on hand when possible. Prineville Market, PAUL BRUNZEL & SON, Props.

U. S. Cowles was in the city Monday. He had been over to Fossil on a business trip returning this way to Ashwood. Mr. Cowles stated that the mill at Ashwood would run about a week or ten days longer, then, if the weather and roads permitted it would be moved to its new location near the Agency.

Don P. Rea and Archie Mason were in the city Sunday and Monday. They came over from Bend and were on their way to Madras, stopping here to look after business matters. Mr. Mason, who built the automobile road, says that the first machine will be running by the first of April.

D. F. Stewart and J. H. Templeton returned Sunday from a two weeks hunting trip near the head waters of the Deschutes. The hunters encountered but very little snow and in many places the ground was bare even in the vicinity of Davis lake. In places where snow was encountered it was scarcely more than ankle deep.

Fred Rather, formerly an employe of one of the large packing houses in Chicago, has entered the employ of Paul Brunzel & Son. The latter have recently purchased new sausage machinery for their market here and it will be installed in a short time. The proprietors of the Prineville Market will have everything in full swing by May 1.

Extensive preparations have been made for the Masquerade ball to be given in Athletic hall tomorrow night. There will be an unlimited array of costumes and those who expect to attend are looking forward to an evening full of amusement. The orchestra will play until near time for the morning crowd. Invitations to out of town residents may be secured of any member of the board of directors.

R. Perry Long is wearing an immense opal, a product of Crook county, which was taken from Opal springs in the Haystack country. Mr. Long has had the stone polished and placed in a gold setting and the rays are brilliant enough to penetrate the deepest recesses of darkest Africa. Mr. Long has been engaged by the Lewis and Clark fair commission to stand on Mt. Hood this summer, and with the opal in his hand throw search light rays at night over the exposition grounds. Next.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mrs. Ida Prose wishes to inform the general public that they can get the very best meals to be had in Prineville at her boarding house. Next to W. H. Young's blacksmith shop. Call and Test them.

Superintendent Tearill, of the Baker City Forest reserve and who has charge of Blue Mountain Forest reserve, was in this district the first of the week. He was called to this locality to make inspection and make report on conditions as he found them at Dixie Meadows mine. More than a year ago final certificates issued from the land office, but by a ruling of the department, before patent is issued it must be submitted to investigation by a government inspector, and it is only upon his recommendation that patent issues. —Prairie City Miner.

Remember the BAZAAR is head-quarter for fruits, confectionery, tobacco and cigars.

Thos. Arnold was over from Sisters this week looking after irrigation matters for a few days.

We pay the highest market price for fresh eggs. Don't sell until you see us. One door south of Adamson's drug store. C. A. GLOVER.

Howard W. Turner, who has been filling the position of book keeper at the Derham saw mill for some time past, was in the city the first of the week on his way to his home at Powell Buttes where he will make some extensive improvements this spring.

Foster & Horrigan will pay highest Cash Prices for Good Hides and Sheep Pelts. m2

County court convened in regular session yesterday and will continue its business well into next week. Messrs Dunlap and Dryden, who have been experting the county records for several months past expect to make their report to the court about the middle of next week.

Ammunition of all kinds at Michel & Co's.

The members of the Junior Christian Endeavor gave an ice cream social in Bolnap Hall Saturday night and netted nearly $20. Much more could have been made had the refreshments not run short when they did, but for an ice cream social the last of February the event was a decided success.

The cut prices are still on at the BAZAAR and will continue until old stock is exhausted.

J. F. Cliff and a party of land seekers from Wisconsin points returned Tuesday from the vicinity of Silver Lake where they located desert and homestead claims. They had been out on a land cruise for about ten days. Mr. Cliff stated that no snow was encountered during the entire trip and the warm weather was a very attractive feature of the trip.

You Can Save $1 to $2 on Shoes At the RACKET STORE

County School Superintendent C. B. Dinwiddie is anxious that the teachers throughout the county make their returns for the educational exhibit of Crook county at the Lewis and Clark fair as quickly as possible. The work must all be in by the 10th of April and every teacher holding school in the county is asked to contribute. The work when ready should be addressed to Central Committee, which is composed of the local teachers, and sent in care of the County Superintendent.

John Banta and wife were bound over to the grand jury by Justice Luckey last Saturday on a charge of maliciously killing a horse belonging to Banta's father. Justice Luckey placed the bonds at $400 each. The trial took up the entire afternoon and a large number of witnesses from the vicinity of Culver were present to testify. The evidence produced showed Mrs. Banta to be guilty of the charge brought against her and Banta was held as an accessory before and after the fact.

Calavan & Rideout will receive within the next few days a complete line of the well known Capen Shoes for men and boys.

The warm summer weather during the past two weeks has given birth to many germs of spring fever and nearly everyone is more or less affected. Last Sunday the spring fever turned into influenza fever and some of the local enthusiasts went out on the diamond and handled the horsehide sphere for the first time this year. The willows along the river banks started to bud early last week and if it were not for the fact that the present month invariably brings more or less wind and rain it would be hard to believe that Crook county was not enjoying some of those rare days in June that the poet told about.

A Shakespeare Class.

Rev. Mitchell will hold a meeting at the Union church, Friday evening, March 10, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of forming a Shakespeare class. The first evening will be spent with character pictures from the Merchant of Venice. Rev. Mitchell will give descriptions of Venice from his own personal observations. All those who are interested call on Prof. Strange for further particulars.

George Millican was in the city during the past week from his ranch at Pine Mountain. Mr. Millican while here was recalling a few reminiscences and comparing the present appearance of Prineville with that when he first visited this vicinity nearly 40 years ago. Mr. Millican is one of the earliest pioneer settlers of Crook county. He first visited this section in 1861 and seven years later took up land on McKay creek, the property now owned by M. D. Powell. Mr. Millican soon afterwards started in the cattle business and was the first stockman to bring beef cattle into this county. At the time he first engaged in that business here, Prineville consisted of a barren sage brush flat, but soon after Mr. Millican's launch into business here, Barney Prime built the first log cabin on the present site of the city. Mr. Millican secured all of his supplies at that time and for several years to follow by pack horses from Eugene. There were no roads constructed across the Cascades and only narrow winding trails over which the heavily burdened pack horses made slow progress. Mr. Millican does not recall with any marked degree of pleasure those early days of hardship and privation, although at the time of coming to Crook county he was in a measure accustomed to such a life, having endured the hardships encountered in the rush from the east to California during the gold excitement of 1849.

An Interesting Homestead Decision.

Judge Bellinger last week rendered a decision relative to the abandonment of homesteads in Washington which contains some interesting features, the latter being almost directly opposed to those emanating from the Interior department.

In the instance in question a homestead had been taken near North Yakima by Daniel Schultz. He found he was unable to make a living on the homestead and went to Portland where his family followed him and remained for some time. Schultz died and an effort was made by another party to relocate the claim. Before his death Schultz had filed a petition in bankruptcy and the widow retained her husband's homestead hoping to have it exempted from the bankruptcy proceedings. The referee, before whom the case was given a hearing, decided adversely and the case was appealed to district court where Judge Bellinger overruled the referee's decision. In his decision he states:

"I am of the opinion that the removal of Schultz under the circumstances shown does not constitute an abandonment of the homestead, without reference to the law of Washington, which provides that a homestead can only be abandoned by a declaration or grant duly executed and acknowledged" said Judge Bellinger. "A homestead is not abandoned by the removal of the husband with his family, where there is an intention to return later and again make it their home. A man may have more than one residence, but he can have but one domicile. The testimony does not show that Schultz had abandoned his domicile in Washington."

Auto Is Given Trial Run.

Trial run was given the new 5200-pound automobile being built by the Gill Gas Engine Company, of 224 Oak street, for the Deschutes Irrigation Company, this morning, and the monster passenger van worked smoothly and satisfactorily. It is to be put on the run between Shaniko and Bend by the Deschutes Company, and will make the trip of 100 miles in about five hours, the average speed being 30 miles an hour. If desired, it can be geared up to greater speed.

The machine is 16 feet in length, and has four wide seats, holding four passengers each. On the front of the car is the 40 horse-power gasoline engine which propels the vehicle. It is the four-cylinder type, and burns about five gallons of gasoline in making 100 miles.

The machine is unique in automobile construction, in that it is equipped with air brakes and can be stopped in three feet. Everything about the machine, including the designing, was made locally, with the exception of the wheels, axles, springs and chains.

Other machines of similar construction will be built for the Bend-Shaniko line, and freight vans will be put in commission. They will be introduced soon.—Telegram.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs;" says Hon. John Shenek, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by D. P. Adamson & Co.
