Work on the educational exhibit is being pursued diligently by the High school pupils who are preparing descriptive matter concerning Crook county. About 20 different subjects will be dealt with covering the early history, geological formations, productions, resources, etc. When finished and corrected, the various subjects will be printed and published in book form. A part of those will be sent to the Lewis and Clark fair and the balance kept in this city. The pamphlet complete will contain about 20,000 words.

Horse rustlers, who got busy during the past week in several localities along the Ochocho and at Combs Flat would have furnished a good story had they not been persuaded to mend their ways and return the horses which had slipped into their keeping. John Hunsaker missed several head of his horses and others belonging to different persons turned up missing about the first of the week. But the rustlers themselves were amateurs in the business and were persuaded, after being shown the narrow and rocky road they were traveling, to return the animals to the pastures from which they had been taken.

A hall full of young people enjoyed the St. Patrick's dance at the Athletic club Friday night. Prof. Henry appeared for the first time in the orchestra and the music generally was quite the best that has been heard at any of the dances this winter.

Byron Cady and J. H. Tiltonson left this morning for Lookout mountain to continue work on the climatic properties there. If possible they will be located with which to burn brick, the latter to be used later in the spring when the furnaces, which are now under contemplation, are erected.

"The Uster," a three act farce comedy, the cast of characters being made up principally of High School students, will be presented at Athletic hall Friday evening, April 7. Those who will appear in the different roles have been putting in several weeks of diligent rehearsing, and the play will be a laughable and thoroughly enjoyable affair from beginning to end. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the High school and the play itself is deserving of a crowded house, which no doubt will be present on the evening in question.

Some time next week a half way station will be opened and ready for business on the George Hobbs' homestead just this side of the old river bed. The new establishment is a co-partnership affair in the hands of A. C. Lucas and George Hobbs, and arrangements have been made for every possible accommodation to the traveling public. Meals will be served and hay and grain will be kept on hand for teams. Water will be hauled from the springs at Powell Buttes for use at the barns and domestic purposes. A petition has also been drawn up asking that a new post-office be established at this point to be known as Hobbs, and it is asked that A. C. Lucas be appointed postmaster.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I think this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by D. P. Adamson & Co.
