John Aldridge and Roscoe Holt, two young horse rustlers wanted in Arlington where warrants charging them with horse stealing have been filed, were arrested Tuesday evening and lodged in the county jail. They had broken into several places along their route down the Ochoco, and James Elliott telephoned Tuesday to the sheriff that he had them in charge. Deputy B. F. Jones went after the two young men and when brought here their identification was easily established by the descriptions furnished the local office by the sheriff of Gilliam county. The latter was at once notified and left Arlington yesterday morning for this city. The young prisoners stole the horses they were riding in Arlington and judging from their actions in this vicinity it is probable they will have to answer more than one charge of burglary besides the criminal charge for which they are wanted in Gilliam county.
