Perry Poindexter drove over to Bend with the ball tossers Sunday morning. John Blair and George Meyer returned with the base ball team.

J. A. Ray left the last of the week for Portland. His little daughter, who has been staying with friends there since Mrs. Ray's death, will return with him.

Geo. H. Osborn was in the city from Culver Tuesday. Mr. Osborn stated that the recent rains in that district had given the growing crops a good start and the season would bring out a good crop in all lines of produce.

The largest stock and land sale in this county for some time was closed Tuesday. John T. Proffit sold his undivided half interest in the large sheep plant of Gillenwater & Proffit to James H. Oakes, who formerly owned a half interest in the plant. We did not learn the consideration of the sale, but the plant is approximately worth close to $100,000. The sheep plant is the largest in the county.—Mitchell News.
