

LOCAL MENTION

Falls Hair to $30,000.

D. G. Rogers, of Culver, was in the city several days during the past week.

T. M. Post was a business visitor from Sisters during the first of the week.

Taylor Hill is in town from Greenville looking after his business interests here.

President B. F. Allen of the First National is in the city on a business trip from Portland.

A. M. Logan was in the city from Paulina the first of the week, returning home yesterday.

A. J. Noble and family were down from their ranch near Paulina during the first of this week.

Congressman J. N. Williamson returned from a visit with his family at The Dalles the first of this week.

Mrs. M. E. Bradford was in the city this week to make final proof on her homestead in the Madras district.

Walter Ruble was in town from Culver Tuesday making arrangements to offer final proof on his desert entry.

Frank Glass, land agent for the Deschutes Irrigation & Power company was in the city yesterday from his headquarters at Forest.

The firm of Roller, McClum & Roller has leased the hall room over J. H. Wigle's shop and will soon open a carriage painting establishment.

Rev. J. T. Moore will preach next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Mill creek and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Union church in this city.

Wayman Withers passed through town on his way to Prineville on a sheep buying expedition the latter part of the week.—Silver Lake Oregonian.

County court convened yesterday to hold its regular November term, the business of the session keeping the commissioners and judge busy over today.

W. M. Davey returned Monday from Trout creek where he was called by the death of P. L. Priddy whose funeral occurred there the last of the week.

George Stevens and wife came up from Madras Tuesday evening. Mrs. Stevens, who has not been well for some time, will remain here to receive medical treatment.

Meyer & Brown, of Post, sold 60 head of three-year-old steers last week for $30 per head. This is a considerable increase in the prices which heretofore have been paid this fall for three-year-old beef steers.

John N. Starr, deputy district head consul for the Modern Woodmen, has been in the city this week in the interests of that organization. He left here yesterday for Lamonia to look after the insurance business in that district.

Rev. W. P. Jinnett will preach at Newsum creek school house Friday and Saturday evenings and next Sunday morning. At 7:30 p. m. he will conduct the regular services of the Methodist church. Subject: "A Man Caught in His Own Trap."

Chas. Hindman and wife arrived in Lebanon last Friday from Eastern Oregon. They came over the mountains by the McKenzie route. Mr. Hindman brought over a bunch of horses, which he will try to sell this fall. He says he and his wife may spend the winter in the valley.—Lebanon Critter.

A. H. Rohde was in the city Monday from Powell Buttes where he has recently purchased 120 acres of land from the Deschutes Irrigation & Power company. Mr. Rohde came to Crook county only a short time ago from near Salem where he sold his ranch and property to invest in Eastern Oregon soil. He is well pleased with the territory around the Buttes and is busy clearing his tract which will be sown in grain.

The new two story Prineville hotel is being erected nearly as rapidly as if it were being constructed of wood instead of stone. A large force of masons is engaged and the ease with which the rock is handled and cut makes building a rapid matter. Almost the entire front of the building on the lower floor will be of glass, so but very little rock work is necessary aside from the supporting pillars. The work will probably proceed slower when the first story has been completed and the second begun.

It isn't often penitentiary birds go a visitin', but yesterday was an exception, when seven of 'em were "entertained" at our county jail from 3 o'clock in the afternoon until 9. The gist was composed of criminals who received their sentences at the recent term of court in Prineville, and are on their way to the penitentiary in charge of Deputy Sheriff Smith and seven guards. On account of the delay of passenger train No. 1, it was necessary to bring them down from Biggs on a special and place them in the jail for safe keeping until the train passed through at 11 o'clock. All were well behaved and when they left this city had given the guards no trouble.—Dalles Chronicle.

Fresh Eastern and Olympia Oysters served in any style are on the bill of fare at the Opera House Cafe.

Best 25 cent dinner in the city. Chicken dinner every Sunday. At Mrs. S. V. Pennington's.

The largest and most complete line of all kinds of dishes to be found in town is at Belmont & Foster's. Call in and see their display of fancy wares.

Clyde Rowell and wife, of Sweet Home, came over from the valley last Saturday and have been spending the past week on the J. H. Gray ranch on Crooked river. This is the first visit Mr. Rowell has paid this section for two years. He and Mrs. Rowell expect to stay here until the first of the year.

D. F. Dryden, who with J. L. Dunlap, explored the county records during six months of last winter and this spring, died suddenly at his home in Portland last Monday morning from an attack of apoplexy. Mr. Dryden was well known in this city where he made a host of friends by his quiet and genial ways, and the news of his sudden death will be received with genuine regret.

Halloween night, the kid's delight. From the appearance of the streets Wednesday morning no time was lost the evening before in celebrating the anniversary. Wagons adorned the store steps and one was raised to the top of a barn in the residence district. Farm implements were brought forth in array like in seen in harvesting and plowing time, and every wagon that was not anchored was moved from its mooring place to add to the general confusion spread over the thoroughfares.

W. K. McCormick, a Summer Lake sheepman, was in Shaukelo on Saturday where he came to meet his family who have been on an extended visit with relatives at Oregon City. Mr. McCormick is one of the most extensive wool growers in Lake county, and has recently purchased several thousand head of lambs in that county at $2.25 per head, which he will pasture this winter on his large meadows in Summer Lake valley. He says that fully 40 per cent of the sheep in Lake county this fall went to California buyers.

A "strenuous term" might be the proper term to apply to the session of court just held in Prineville, from which place Judge Bradshaw, District Attorney Menefee and Court Stenographer Dufur have just returned. Seven days were consumed in trying seven criminal cases, and as a result six prisoners are now on their way to the penitentiary at Salem to serve terms varying from one to five years. One murder case was up, that of Corbett Holt, an Indian, who killed another Indian on the road near Madras last May. The jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter and Holt was given a two-year sentence. Speaking of Prineville Judge Bradshaw says "I tell you the little town is booming these days, several fine buildings are going up and in every way it is on the up move.—Dalles Chronicle.

Petition to Incorporate Denied.

The county court shortly before noon today denied the petition of the residents of Madras to incorporate as a city. The court found that out of the 48 signatures attached to the petition there were a number belonging to persons at present living outside of the prescribed limits as designated in the petition, so that the total number of legal signatures fell below the number required by statute. The court took the matter under advisement and will wait until another petition, containing the legal number of signatures of bona fide residents, has been presented, when favorable action will be taken.

High School Students to Raise Funds.

Students of the High school have decided upon a unique way in which to raise funds for the library fund. There are fifty-seven now enrolled and each of them will earn between now and Thanksgiving at least $1 which will be given to the fund. Each of the teachers will also earn a like amount for the same purpose. On the Saturday evening before Thanksgiving a social and entertainment will be given in the club hall to which a small admission will be charged. The faculty hopes to raise at least $100 which will greatly increase the present supply of reference books.

Don't forget the closing out sale at J. P. Morris', for the way they are selling it will not last long. Many thousands of dollars worth of goods, including Dry Goods, Groceries, Wagons, Buggies and Hacks are included in the sale. Your special attention is called to the sale of buggies as having a large lot of them on hand a big cut in prices has been made to close them out, also a small reduction on the Schuttler wagon which is sold at a very small profit. Owing to the excellent material used in this wagon it is valued for its superior strength, great endurance, light build and light draft, all of which make it one of the most satisfactory wagons that can be bought.

After a lapse of 24 years, during which time neither heard nor knew of the whereabouts of the other, A. B. Eastwood, who has been engaged in the lumber business in this county for several years, received word last week from a twin brother in Porter, West Virginia, stating that his father had died and that Mr. Eastwood's share of the estate would amount to $20,000.

The letter containing this information had been directed by mistake to another man named Eastwood living in The Dalles, the brother in Virginia having instituted a search for his long lost brother in Crook county, with the result that he found whom he thought to be his relative a residence of the above named city. The latter knew of A. B. Eastwood and immediately forwarded the misdirected letter to this city where it found its rightful owner. An answer was written at once and a correspondence began after a silence of two dozen years.

Mr. Eastwood in speaking of the circumstances said that he ran away from his home in the east when only 11 years of age, and the family having moved several times since then he had lost trace of them. The letter he received a few days ago was the first intelligence he had had of his relatives for nearly a quarter of a century.

The money which has come into his possession he intends to give to his daughter when she becomes older and until such time it will remain at interest. Mr. Eastwood will go east to look after the final settlement of the estate, but it will not be before the last of next year.

Rutherford-Anderson Nuptials.

Miss Lulu May Anderson, youngest daughter of Mrs. L. H. Anderson, was united in marriage Wednesday evening to Mr. Adrian E. Rutherford, of Ontario, at the home of the bride's mother in this city. The ceremony which was performed by the Rev. J. T. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, was witnessed by a number of invited relatives and guests.

The bride was prettily gowned in a dress of crepe du chene. She wore a white veil and was attended by her bridesmaid, Mrs. S. M. Bailey. S. M. Bailey was best man.

The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Hodges, the ceremony being performed at 7 o'clock, after which a wedding supper was served. Among the guests present were: Mesdames Hugh Lister, Chas. Lister, S. J. Newsum, Wm. Pollard, Bud Kelley, J. F. Morris, Mary Hinton, S. J. Adams, Ed. Rannels, V. M. Bates; Messrs and Mesdames B. F. Johnson, J. L. McCulloch, Wm. Smead, Alex. Hinton, Ward Cram, S. M. Bailey; Misses Maud Brown and Gertrude Hodges; Dr. Gail Newsum and P. G. Milliron.

The bride and groom will leave about the 20th of this month for Ontario where Mr. Rutherford is connected with the Ontario Argus, one of Malheur county's most progressive papers.

Japanese Evening a Great Success.

Success followed closely the efforts of the members of the Ladies' Annex last Friday evening at their Japanese evening given in Athletic hall. The decorations themselves were the prettiest which have ever been seen in the club house and the same can be said of the Japanese drill, taken part in by 21 women dressed in Japanese costumes. The burlesque on the streets of Cairo, which was given by the men, furnished the humor for the evening, and surpassed the funny bone of the ridicules. The proceeds of the evening exceeded $100, leaving about $75 clear of expenses. The latter amount will be used in sealing the gymnasium room. The Japanese drill will be repeated tomorrow evening at the club hall to satisfy the many demands made since it was seen first last week when over 300 admissions were recorded.

Arrested for Horses Stealing.

Wm. Riley was arrested in Prineville Friday evening for horse stealing, the charge having been preferred against him by a resident of The Dalles, Deputy Sheriff Harper. Of Wasco, came here and took the prisoner in charge. He will be tried before Judge Bradshaw.

Wm. Hogg, who was arrested last week on a warrant sworn out against him last spring charging him with horse stealing, was released from custody the first of the week, his bond of $500, which was fixed by Judge Ellis, having been signed by his father.

MARRIED.

At the Methodist parsonage in this city, Thursday evening, October 26, Miss Myrtle Borden to Mr. James Magnus, of Madras. The Rev. W. P. Jinnett performed the ceremony.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by D. P. Adams.
