The ordinance introduced at the council meeting Tuesday night to exclude livestock from a free and unlimited use of the city's thoroughfares is a measure which cannot be too highly commended and one which should pass without discussion when next read. A grateful public would appreciate favorable action by the alderman in this matter which has already been too long neglected.

Arthur Hodges has been suggested as a candidate for nomination for joint representative from this district at the April primaries. The suggestion could not be improved upon. Mr. Hodges' services to the county while county clerk need no comment and the business interests of this district could not be placed in safer hands than his if he consents to run for the office. His business and political careers here are excellent recommendations for extended service to the district in the state legislature.

LAMONTA NEWS NOTES.

Rev. Brown held services in the school house Monday night.

Bruce Hood, of Madras was in town Monday.

Steve Waite is very sick. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moore were at Forest on business Saturday.

Mr. Waite Sr. transacted business in Prineville Monday.

Able Cudd, of Crooked river visited friends here Sunday.

Lena Thomas is working for Mrs. Geo. Hendricks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Cowan and son Robert, transacted business in Prineville Monday.

Melvin Gilette started for Shaniko Saturday after a load of freight for Mingers and Cowan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, of Ashwood are visiting at J. C. Rush's.

Mr. Glen Ridgeway and Miss Grace Robinson attended a party at Grant's Saturday night.

Don Rea, of Madras passed through our town Sunday on his way home from Prineville.

A brand new son arrived at George Hendricks home Sunday morning. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Mr. Matson and Sundquist, who came out from Minnesota a few weeks ago looking for a location have gone after their families.

Sam Pierce had a little excitement Monday morning. He had left his team without being tied and they ran away breaking the buggy up quite badly.

John Starr, M. W. A. Deputy was in town last week getting charter members for a camp here. He met with good success and the physician will be here Wednesday, February 14, to examine applicants

POTATOES WANTED: Write to C. W. ELKINS, Prineville Oregon.

Sisters Correspondence.

William Doak stopped at our town Sunday. He was on his way to work for the B. B. Co.

C. H. Foster is prepared to register anyone, without regard to color. "Time waits for no one," better move up boys.

H. B. Reed is back on his ranch again. He says that "Wedfoot" can't beat Eastern Oregon yet for him.

L. E. Allingham paid Sisters a visit Sunday. He hails from Madras and says that he almost heard the whistle of the locomotive coming up the Deschutes. We are inclined to think that it might have been the new distillery whistle that he "almost" heard.

M. M. Thomas and Bert Hodson are cutting logs for Wilson Bros. who are preparing for a good spring run. Any one wanting a good quality of rough or dressed lumber can get it there as no mill in this neighborhood has a better grade of timber to saw from than they have.

E. H. Sparks brought Alex Thomson from the company's Long Hollow ranch to Mr. Thomson's ranch the other day. Mr. Sparks was all smiles as he says he has found one man he can out walk yet.

West Brothers, living at the Lower Bridge had a serious runaway some time ago. They owned a fine span of grays, weighing in the neighborhood of 1400 pounds. One day while going after a load of hay and passing through a gate the team was stopped. While Mr. West was shutting the gate they took a notion that they wanted to try their speed, but forgot about all danger, running to the brink of Deep Canyon where the rim was about 40 feet high. They made a short turn, the hind wheels of the wagon slid around and off the bluff taking the team with it. One horse was killed outright, the other living two weeks. The wagon was a total wreck and Mr. West said that no two pieces of it were together.

NEWS FROM REDMOND

Mr. F. F. Smith of Laidlaw paid us a short visit on Wednesday.

Mr. I. R. Whitney has sold his lot next to the D. L. & P. Co.'s office to a Los Angeles party for $250.00

Mr. B. S. Cook of Portland is here now making preparation to meet and handle the rush of settlers into this part of the country the coming spring.

Mr. L. E. McCard formerly barnman for the D. L. & P. Co. is now on the Bluffs place near Prineville feeding a bunch of D. L. & P. Co. horses which are wintering there.

The Prineville Review has it that when the D. L. & P. Co. finish with Mr. Drake the Duke of Pilot Butte will wish he had never seen the Deschutes Valley. We venture to say there is more truth than poetry in this statement.

Come early to register and avoid the rush. Mr. V. J. O'Connor has been appointed registration officer at Redmond and wants all in his territory who intend to vote at the coming primary to register before the last day.

The Misses Tuck, who had charge of the dining room of Hotel Redmond have resigned, and Miss Neva Marlon of Laidlaw has now taken charge of the victual department and will be pleased to serve all its old patrons as well as the new.

We notice in the issue of the Bend Bulletin of the 19th ulto that there is to be a "Dun below Bend." Has not this truthful (?) paper slipped a cog? From all accounts there is more "darning" at the present time in Bend than in any other part of Crook county.

Last Friday a surprise Smoker was given Mr. F. C. Rowley by his many friends in Redmond, at the hotel dining room. Cards and pipes were indulged in until 11 p. m. when the ladies, who had met in the parlor on the second floor marched into the dining room headed by McMay's orchestra. Dancing was enjoyed until midnight when supper was served table-a-tete.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th day of February, 1906.

J. J. SMITH, County Clerk.

Are you using

MADRAS FLOUR?

Ask your grocer for it and insist upon getting it. The unequal merits of Madras Flour are its greatest recommendations. Housewives using it will not complain of poor loaves or baking failures. Madras Flour and failure in cooking are unknown to each other.

Madras Flour Costs $1.25 Sack

Other brands cost you as much or more and a lot of trouble besides. Order a sack from your grocer today. If he doesn't handle it now he will.

Starting But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have warded it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Witcox, Logan, New York. Sold by D. P. Adamson.
