A. H. Kennedy mourns the loss of his beloved violin. The instrument which was valued at $150, was left at the hall after the Circle dance Friday night, and when the piano was being moved Saturday, the violin got smashed into kindling wood. Prof. Strange announced that an effort would be made by the High School to reimburse Mr. Kennedy for his loss.

E. S. Cook of Portland, selling agent for the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Co.'s irrigated lands and for the Redmond townsite property, arrived Sunday and went to Redmond on Monday's stage. When asked if it was his intention to open offices in Prineville, Mr. Cook said that he was here to straighten things up a bit and that he could not say at this time just what would be done.

During the past week 17 persons have arrived in Prineville by way of the Prineville-Shaniko Stage line in search of homesteads, timber land and land under the D. I. & P. Co. This is probably about one-half of the immigration to this county for the week in search of homes, and is a small indication of the spring rush, which will begin as soon as spring opens up and the roads are in better condition.

A. Thomson returned Tuesday from a week's visit at his ranch on Squaw creek.

L. Michel received a complete line of Boots, Shoes, Ladies, Gents' and Childrens furnishings by freight Wednesday and is prepared to fill your orders for anything in that line. With the addition of this stock of goods Mr. Michel has a complete line as any other in the city.

Action has been brought against the Madras Milling and Mercantile Company by E. L. Sabin, attorney for the Merchants' Protective Association, of Portland, for $3152.32, this amount alleged to be due creditors among the wholesalers of Portland. The attachment was filed and seizure of the company's property made Monday. Another writ in equity has been filed against the company for $6000 by parties residing at The Dalles, who claim interest in the property to that amount.

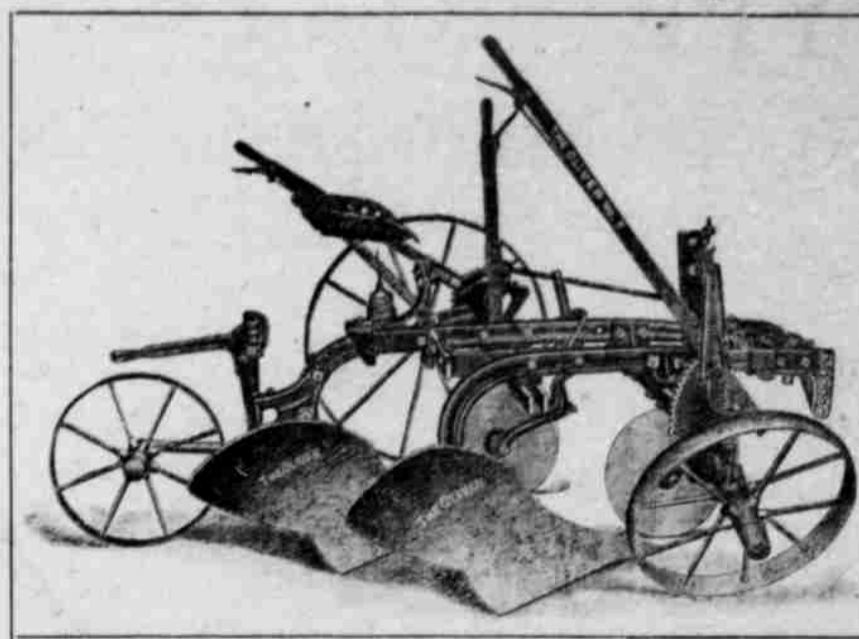

The Minstrel given by the Burnt Cork Coterie of the High School in Athletic Hall Saturday evening was greeted by a crowded house. As announced by the management every one present enjoyed a good laugh. While a good many criticisms could be made regarding the different numbers on the program, it was a very creditable performance considering the fact that the show was given entirely by the talent from the High School. The best numbers rendered were: "Old Black Joe" by Oliver Adams and the farce by the Comesses. The proceeds amounted to $107.

John Henderson returned Monday from a two weeks trip to Portland and Klamath Falls. In speaking of Klamath Falls Mr. Henderson says that it is the center of attraction now and that the sole topic of conversation from Portland on down the line was of it. Property is selling for fancy prices and as an instance Wm. Barnes, formerly of this city, who is running the American Inn purchased property to build an addition to his building on, paying $50 a front foot for it. Recently he was offered $100 a front foot for the same property but refused to sell. Another party was offered $100 a front foot for city property but refused to sell at that price. Archie Mason, formerly of this county, of the firm of Mason & Davis have the contract for the first ten miles of the canal and they are preparing to commence work as soon as spring opens up.

Word was received in this city Sunday by C. C. Dunham of the sudden death of Leo. Wiltse, aged 17 years, at P. T. Monroe's ranch on Trout creek. He had not been feeling well for two or three days prior to his death but nothing serious was thought to be the matter. On Saturday evening before retiring he told Mr. and Mrs. Monroe that he was feeling much better. About midnight Mrs. Monroe was awakened by hearing moans from his room and awoke her husband to go and see what was the matter. Mr. Monroe upon entering the room saw that he was dying and although all that was possible was done to aid him he expired in a few minutes after. The remains will probably be buried at Antelope. His parents reside at Springfield, Oregon. Mrs. C. C. Dunham and Mrs. H. D. Dunham, of this city and Mrs. L. E. Douglas, of Hay Creek were cousins of the deceased.
