

Local Mention

E. C. Faught was in town yesterday from his stock ranch at Crook.

F. U. Rowles came over from Bend on a business trip Tuesday.

Jake Stroud spent the last of the week at Madras and vicinity.

For fine candles, tobaccos, cigars and fruits, we have them. Glover & Starr.

Charles Brock was over from Bend yesterday attending to business matters.

T. F. Long was a Prineville visitor from his stock ranch at Crook the last of the week.

Will Ford came over from Sisters the last of the week to attend the St. Valentine's ball.

Go to Glover & Starr's Cash Grocery for the potatoes, bacon, ham and lard.

Arthur Clothier returned to Prineville Monday afternoon from a trip to Shaniko and way points.

P. B. Davis went out to Bend Monday on a business trip returning the day following.

We have on hand a Big supply of Stewart & Hodsons Pure Leaf Lard. J. E. Stewart & Co. 111 d 28.

W. F. Hafner, democratic candidate for the nomination to the office of county clerk, was in the city the first of the week.

Lee Wigle came down from his Crooked river ranch Tuesday to spend a few days in the city looking after business matters.

Don't sell your eggs until you see Glover & Starr. They are always in the market and pay the highest market price.

The Merchant of Venice will be given at Athletic hall, Friday evening, March 2. Program will be published next week.

F. M. Lobdell has secured the principalship of the Powell Buttes school. The spring term begins there a week from next Monday.

Farquar McIne returned the last of the week from a trip to his ranch in the Squaw Creek country where he has been putting in a crop of grain.

L. S. Logan is in the city from his stock ranch at Hampton Buttes.

J. H. Garrett was in the city from Trout creek the last of the week on a business trip.

We carry a full line of sugars, coffee's, teas, canned goods, and can save you money. Try us before buying. Glover & Starr.

Manuel Wheeler and Henry Montgomery were over from Willow Creek the last of the week giving evidence in a contest case which was heard before county clerk Smith.

Mayor Wurzweller and wife left Monday morning for Portland. They will remain there a short time before going to Pendleton and La Grande on a visit with relatives.

Chas. Powell, of Moro, has been spending the past week in the city visiting with friends. He was here to buy heavy work horses for use on his wheat ranch in Sherman county.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hoffman, who have been visiting with relatives in the city since New Year's, left last Saturday for their home in western Kansas. They are the parents of Mrs. J. W. Collins.

Hobbs station on the Prineville-Bend road, which has been in charge of Mr. Niswanger for some time past, has been abandoned and a new station established at the Niswanger ranch a mile west of the old stopping place.

The Presbyterian church services next Sunday as follows: Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Subject for 11 o'clock: "Lessons in Farming." There will be no evening services, the congregation to meet at the Methodist church in union service.

A. C. Ashire, of Ashland, and Dr. C. A. Scott, of Portland, are in the city. They expect to remain here some little time looking over the country. Last fall they spent several weeks in Klamath county on a tour of investigation.

F. C. Davis, of the Parke-Davis Drug Company of Detroit, who has been in the city during the past week, left for Portland Monday. He and J. Frank Spinning were former classmates in college and both rode the same goat into Masonic circles in Lansing, Mich.

Mrs. Frank Hoffman and Misses Maude Cook, Anna Beknap, Bessie Corwin and Lizzie Corwin came in from Culver Tuesday to attend the Sunday school convention at the Methodist church yesterday. D. W. Barnett drove in with them and acted as chaperon for the party.

Byron Cady returned Monday from a trip to the Christmas Lake region where he located two homeseekers in that valley. He says there is an immense amount of snow south of Pine mountain and the party enjoyed the experience of being out in the wilderness three days with only one day's lunch as nourishment.

POTATOES WANTED: Write to C. W. ELKINS, Prineville Oregon.

Wm. Wigle has arranged to give another dance at Athletic hall Friday evening, March 9. The floor managers are P. B. Pofidexter, P. B. Howard, P. B. Doak and George Summers. A full orchestra will play until early morning.

Thomas Sharp, Jr., was in the city from his ranch on Crooked river the first of the week. He has recently installed a Fairbanks gasoline engine, which he purchased through Wurzweller & Thomson, on his place and is using it for pumping water for his stock.

A party of five North Dakotans, who came to the city the last of the week to look over the irrigated sections in this vicinity came in from the desert Tuesday and left at noon for Shaniko. All of them purchased land from the Deschutes Irrigation & Power company and will become residents of Crook county as soon as they can dispose of their business interests in North Dakota.

B. C. Gilbert, formerly of the Gilbert-Russell confectionery company of Portland, has taken charge of the confectionery department with Rideout & Foster. Mr. Gilbert has been a manufacturer of sweet meats for a number of years, and his assistance here with the local firm will do much towards extending the business which has already assumed large proportions in both the retail and wholesale lines.

We are Agents for
The Royal Tailors of Chicago
the largest Merchant Tailoring Establishment in the World.
J. E. STEWART & CO.

The Athletic club's new pool table was forwarded from Shaniko last Friday and has been in use during the week. The bowling alley was also completed about the same time and the two new attractions have made "standing room only" a prominent feature of the institution. Bowling clubs will be organized and the Ladies' Annex will use the alley two nights out of the week. The club's adding many new members and has entered the most prosperous year since its organization.

U. S. Commissioner Don Rea, of Madras, and brother, Robert, were in the city yesterday and today. Robert Rea has recently returned from Ketchikan, Prince of Wales Island, off the south coast of Alaska, where he has been in charge of a marble quarry owned by J. O. Johnston, of the Deschutes Irrigation & Power company. A. E. Hammond and others. This is his first visit to the states since last summer. He will return to resume his work there some time this month.

Mrs. Jerry Barber is in the city from Culver visiting for a few days. J. H. Horney and J. B. McDowell were in town today from their ranches at Culver.

John Combs returned Tuesday from Portland where he has been spending the past few weeks. O. D. Allingham was a business visitor from the Sisters country several days during the week.

Will Wurzweller of Prineville shipped two carloads of horses and mules from Shaniko Wednesday for Walla Walla.—Shaniko Republican.

W. R. Cook, democratic candidate for county clerk nomination, is in the city assisting Sup't Dinwiddie with the teachers' examinations.

Teachers from all parts of the county are in the city this week taking the various grade examinations at the court house which are being conducted by County Superintendent Dinwiddie.

STEWART & HODSON'S
Choice Home Cured Meats
J. E. STEWART & CO.

A variety of things queer to look upon will be seen at the Firemen's masquerade ball next Wednesday evening at Athletic hall, preparations for which are fully completed. The attendance will be large and the evening an enjoyable one.

Revival meetings continue at the Methodist church with increased interest. The usual services will be held on Sunday morning. At 3:30 p. m. a union meeting of the Sunday schools will be addressed by Bro. Walker. The Christian Endeavor meets with the Epworth League at 6:30. W. P. Jinnett as leader, at 7:30. Rev. Mr. Walker will preach on the subject, "Why so Many Prineville People go to Hell."

The Baptist church will not hold any service Sunday evening on account of the revival service at the Methodist church, but the pastor, Rev. J. T. Moore, will preach at the Union church at 11 a. m. and the Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. The Sunday school has begun a special revival seeking to get every one in Prineville, who do not attend Sunday school elsewhere, to attend their Sunday school. A large number of new scholars are expected. Everybody welcome.

Miss Maude Vanderpool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Med Vanderpool, was married last evening to Eugene Lussier of Redmond at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by County Judge W. A. Bell in the presence of a few invited guests and relatives, who gave the bride a large number of beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Lussier left this morning for Redmond where Mr. Lussier is in business and where they will establish their permanent home.

B. Gatewood, who is manager of the Mayflower mines at Howard which were bonded recently by Kansas City people, was in the city Monday. He returned a few days ago from a trip east and states that every indication points to a heavy immigration to this part of Oregon this year, evidence of which is already being seen. While in the Denver & Rio Grande railroad offices in Denver Mr. Gatewood found a liberal number of copies of the descriptive circulars gotten out by the irrigation companies located in Crook county, and while coming west he states he had occasion to answer many inquiries concerning Central Oregon by persons who were coming to the coast to locate permanently.

Sabbath School Workers in Session.
The first Sunday school convention in the history of Crook county is in session this week in Prineville. A large interest is manifest under the inspiring leadership of the Rev. W. C. Merritt, International Field Worker. Delegates are present from the following places: Madras, Agency Plains, Young's school house, Haystack, Fairview, Culver, Laidlaw, Sisters and Post.
A permanent organization has been effected to be known as the Crook County Sunday School Association with J. B. Shipp, president; Mrs. C. L. Winnek, vice-president; Mrs. Herbert Rideout, secretary; J. W. Horgan, treasurer. The district vice-presidents are: L. A. Hunt, Madras; Arthur Templeton, Sisters; Rev. J. C. George, Laidlaw.

Born.
In this city, Saturday, February 10, to the wife of Herbert Rideout an 8 1/2 pound daughter.

In this city, Saturday, February 10, to the wife of the Rev. J. T. Moore, an 8 pound son.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to express our sincere thanks to those who so kindly and devotedly assisted us in caring for our little son during his late illness.
FRANK ELKINS AND FAMILY.

STRAYED.
One sorrel mare branded F S on left shoulder and a horse shoe cross on left arm, white strip in face, two or three white feet. Gentle and when left had a colt, colt branded same as latter brand. A liberal reward will be paid for information of, or return of same to C. W. Colby, Prineville, Oregon.

FARMERS

BEFORE BUYING YOUR PLOW THIS SPRING CALL AND SEE
Our New No. 5 Oliver Gang Plow

LIGHT DRAFT    ADJUSTABLE FRAME    SCOURING QUALITIES

When fitted with the N. C. 12 bottoms this plow will scour in the stickiest ground. The adjustable frame combines a 12, 14 and 16 inch gang plow in one frame and can be fitted for 2 or 3 base. This feature has many advantages, one of which is that you can always adjust your plow to the team instead of being compelled to get team enough to pull the plow. A FULL LINE OF OLIVER PLOW REPAIRS

W. F. King

Timber Land. Act June 3, 1878.
NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.
United States Land Office.

The Dalles, Oregon, November 23, 1906.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Peter N. Vibbert, of Madras, county of Crook, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 2746 for the purchase of the SW 1/4 Sec. 30, & NW 1/4 NE 1/4 Section No. 31, in Township No. 12 S., Range No. 16 E., W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Don P. Rea, U. S. Commr. at his office in Madras, Oregon, on the 27th day of March, 1906.

He names as witnesses: Louis T. Larsen, and Jacob H. Peterson, of Madras, Oregon. Sam Compton and William McMeekin, of Grizzly, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 27th day of March, 1906.

MICHAEL T. SOLAN,
Register.

THE O'NEIL

Restaurant and Lunch Room
SMELZER & ELEFFSON Props.

For Ladies and Gentlemen
Meals and Bakery Lunch

Board by the week, $5.00; with room, $6.00. Meal Tickets, $4.00

Job Printing    The Kind That Pleases
At The Journal Office

$6.95

Any Suit We Have in Stock up to $12.00
for One Week Only at $6.95

---

$8.95

For Any One Suit up to $15.00 One
Week Only at $8.95

We have a big stock of Spring Suits to arrive
shortly and we must MAKE ROOM FOR THEM

One Week Only Feb. 10th to 17th

J. E. STEWART & CO.

New Hats in All the Latest Blocks

We have just received a lot of Gents' Hats in all of the late styles and shapes, and in this line as well as our other lines we intend to make and keep a reputation for always selling the most up-to-date and Best goods at the lowest prices. We have secured the exclusive agency for the world famous

"Kingsbury Hat"

AND WE ALSO SELL THE

"Stetson Hat"

The Combination of these two lines makes us the strongest line of Hats to be found in Eastern Oregon, in fact there are none better anywhere. Our prices run from $1.00 to $6.00 so we can suit your pocket book as well as your head. Give us a call or send us your order with description of hat wanted and we will guarantee satisfaction.

RIDEOUT & FOSTER

The General Furnishing Store